

EVENING NEWS.

Monday, May 17, 1880.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Rehearsal To-night.—The members of the Home Dramatic Club will please remember the rehearsal of "Our" at the Theatre this evening. Without parts.

Remarkable Escape.—Friday night, at Bingham, a drunken man fell a distance of 60 feet, down an old placer shaft, and, strange to say, was taken out unhurt.

Mass Meeting To-night.—To-night, at 8 o'clock, a mass meeting will be held at the City Hall, to consider the matter of an appropriate celebration of the nation's birthday. The chances are that the 4th, this year, will be a big thing.

From the East.—Saturday evening, Mr. Joseph Sharp, son of Bishop John Sharp, and Mr. Leo Clawson, son of H. B. Clawson, Esq., returned from the East. The former comes to gain a respite from his collegiate studies during the summer season; the latter returns from a year's absence in New York, where he has been acquiring a knowledge of business life. Welcome home.

Seventies Notice.—The Seventies will please take notice that their general meeting will be held at the Council Hall, on Wednesday next, the 19th inst, at 7 o'clock p.m. A general attendance is expected.

JOSEPH YOUNG, Sen.,
JOHN VAN COTT,
W. W. TAYLOR,
ROBERT CAMPBELL, Clerk.
Salt Lake City, May 17, 1880.

Grand Duchess Again.—The children "Grand Duchess" is to be presented once more and for the last time, on Friday evening, the 21st inst, by Professor Smyth's juvenile operatic combination. The performance will be for the benefit of the child actors, and they deserve a good house. The best musical talent the city affords, will be obtained for orchestral purposes.

Funeral.—The funeral services over the remains of Howard H., the little 5-year-old son of Stanley and Hannah Taylor, who died of pneumonia at Brighton, on Saturday, were held yesterday at Mr. Taylor's residence in the 15th Ward. The assembly of relatives and friends was addressed in turn by Elder John Morgan, Counselor Wm. B. Barton of the ward, and Bishop O. F. Whitney.

The Outrage.—The examination of Charles Hanks, for an attempted outrage on his sister-in-law, Mary Jensen, and of John Rosquist, for complicity in the crime, was conducted before Justice Pyper, on Saturday afternoon. Rosquist was discharged, as no evidence was adduced that implicated him in the dastardly act. Hanks was bound over in $1,000 bond, to await the Grand Jury's action. The bond he was unable to furnish, and hence still languishes in jail.

The Ogden Co-op.—The Junction Co-op, the masonry work on the new Co-op, building is being rapidly pushed, and, if the weather continues propitious, the foundation will be ready for the bricklayers in three weeks. The mason work is under the direction of Mr. Dan Doyle, and we will venture to say that a better piece of work in this line has never been done in Utah. Some 32 men are at work, 10 of whom are masons, our old-time friend, M. R. Wheelwright, being employed as timekeeper.

Indian Actors—Alarming Mishap.—From the Enquirer of Saturday:

A grand characteristic entertainment will be given to-night in Cliff's Theatre by a combination of original Indian performers, showing the various dances of the Ute, Arapahoe, Navajo, Sioux, Snake and Shoshone tribes indulged in during times of war and peace. The troupe consists of Little Joe, Rine Friend, Red Blood, Little Antelope, Big Fish, American Boy, Big Injun and the Ute Squaw. Red Blood, a son of Mr. A. Roy, of Springville, aged about 13 years, met with a serious accident on Thursday last. While attempting to get on to a hand car, as it ran over a high gauge track, his head was caught between the handle and platform of the car and severely squeezed, so much so that hemorrhage was produced and flowed from the mouth and ears. It was feared that the loss of the skull was fractured. Dr. Pike was sent for, and although the boy incessantly vomited for a long time after the accident, it is thought he will soon recover.

Stricken with Paralysis.—Yesterday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, Mr. Edward Senior, a barber who lives near the lower end of Commercial Street, was stricken down with paralysis, and died within a short time afterward. A gentleman was passing by the shop, in the rear of which Mr. Senior resides, when he heard groans and strange noises issuing from the interior. He tried the door and found it locked. He then hailed another passer by, who came upon and being told that a man was dying inside the house, reached through a broken pane of the glass door and turning the lock entered. Mr. Senior lay on the floor of the shop gasping and trembling, and no one was there at the time to render assistance. The gentlemen lifted him upon a bed, and did all they could to make him comfortable. While they were there, Doctors Thompson and Smith came in. Seeing that nothing could be done to save the man, who was rapidly sinking, the physicians administered an opiate to relieve him of his pain. Soon afterward he manifested more consciousness, and in a little while passed away. Deceased was about forty years of age, and a widower, was a native of Dorset, Yorkshire, England, and is an old resident of this city. The remains were taken in charge by Mr. William Sugden, of the 15th Ward, has been taken to Mr. Senior's sister.

An "Indignant" Doctor.—A Springfield correspondent of the Enquirer writes that a week or two ago, a certain doctor from Provo went over to the former place to attend to a stranger there lying sick, and after prescribing, left with the understanding that he would return on the following Monday. On that day the patient was still feeling very sick, and finding that his medical adviser did not come as he had promised, he sent for another physician, who promptly visited and administered the requisite medicine to the ailing man. On Wednesday morning the first named doctor put in an appearance, and was respectfully informed by the sick man of what he had done, and asking for his bill, paid him. No. 1 got into a violent passion and drew a large knife from his girdle, flourishing it over the bed-ridden stranger and threatened to kill somebody. The singular conduct of this individual created the greatest consternation in the neighborhood, and although his arrest was demanded, the perpetrator of the outrage was permitted to go away "scot free."

To offset this version, the "doctor" in reference gives his own story, which is to the effect that he was in Alpine on the day he agreed to visit his Springfield patient and unavoidably delayed there. He endeavored to send a dispatch stating that he would attend the patient on the following morning, but was unable to do so because the operator could not be found. When he went over to Springfield the patient informed him of what he had done as above stated, but wanted to know why he had not, on his first visit, left him medicine. The doctor was indignant at this question and replied, that he had left medicine enough to last him during his absence. He drew no weapon, but merely placed his hand on his hip and said he was prepared to defend himself and his professional reputation against any such charge. A couple of women, probably alarmed at the movement, rushed out screaming, and told parties in the street that the doctor was killing the sick man.

Be this as it may, it does not appear to us that there was any cause given by the patient, for such a display of anger in his sick room. From all accounts, there are certain members of the medical profession in Utah County, who are a little too fond of becoming "indignant" at trifles and flourishing deadly weapons on the slightest provocation. Go slow.

Painful Cut.—A little six-year-old son of Mr. H. K. Whitney, of the 18th Ward, this morning met with a painful accident. He was playing on the porch of his father's house and had in his hand an ordinary pocket knife, with the blade open. His feet, becoming entangled in a rope lying near, he fell to the floor, and the knife blade which was pointed toward him pierced his left cheek, and glancing upward struck against a bone to the left of the eye. His screams brought a lady to the scene, who seeing what had occurred, grasped the knife, which was buried to the hilt in the child's face, and after three energetic efforts, succeeded in extracting it. Some arnica was immediately applied to the wound, and as soon as possible the child was taken to a surgeon, who dressed the injury in a suitable manner. The young patient is doing well, though his cheek is badly swelled and aches considerably. It was very fortunate that the blade did not strike to the right of where it did, as it then would doubtless have entered the eye.

Fine Fruit Trees.—Bro. Thomas Fenton, nurseryman and florist, whose advertisement can be seen in another column, informs us that he has now received from England a choice assortment of apple, pear, cherry, nectarine, plum, gooseberry and currant stock, which are growing nicely in his garden. There are several kinds of each of the above-named fruits, all of the old reliable and best qualities. He has also a fewish albert tree, which he thinks will thrive here. His desire is to improve our fruit, and he invites an inspection of his nursery by all interested in the object.

Encouraging the Sparrows.—Captain John Lawrence is having a number of sparrows placed in the trees along a portion of the sidewalk, east from the Eagle Gate, opposite the place of property on which he designs erecting a residence. His object is to thus provide homes for and encourage the raising of sparrows, which are very useful birds and should be protected and cultivated. Mr. Lawrence is quite a bird fancier and his policy is creditable.

Dangerous Sidewalk.—The attention of the Supervisor is respectfully called to the condition of the sidewalk near the residence of Mr. Robert Patrick, 18th Ward. At the place where the fluming of the water ditch has been going on, the work is left in an unfinished state and is positively dangerous to persons passing that way after dark. Something should be done immediately, before a serious accident results from its remaining in its present bad condition.

Tabernacle Services.—The congregation at the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon was increased by an instructive and deeply interesting discourse from Apostle Orson Pratt. The subject was the judgments of God upon the earth in the latter days. The discourse was taken in full by the Church reporter, and will be published hereafter.

Elders' Meeting.—The monthly meeting of the Elders' Quorum of Elders will be held on Thursday evening next, at 7:30. A full attendance is requested. The Presidency of the Stake are expected to be present on the occasion.

WM. P. AFFLECK, Pres.

On Hand.—This play was presented for the third and last time on Saturday evening, to a moderate house. It went off more smoothly than at the two previous performances, and elicited the usual applause and merriment. So ends Mr. Thompson's engagement.

Off To-Morrow.—Mr. C. L. Walther, the English gentleman of whom we spoke the other day, as being interested in the coal mines and projected railroad in Sanpete, intends leaving for the south to-morrow morning. We wish him success in his business visit to our sister county.

Good references can be given. Terms, eight dollars per quarter. Address F. G. H., Box 277 Salt Lake City. We recommend this teacher to the consideration and patronage of the public.

Advancing years, care, sickness, disappoinment, and hereditary predisposition—all operate to turn the hair gray, and either of them incline it to shed prematurely. AYER'S HAIR VIGOR will restore faded or gray, light or red hair to a rich brown or deep black, as may be desired. It softens and cleanses the scalp, giving it a healthy action. It removes and cures dandruff and humors. By its use falling hair is checked, and new growth will be produced in all cases where the follicles are not destroyed or the glands decayed. Its effects are beautifully shown on brassy, weak, or sickly hair, on which a few applications will produce the gloss and freshness of youth. Extensive use of it in its operation, it is incomparable as a dressing, and is especially valued for the soft lustre and richness of tone it imparts. It contains neither oil nor tincture, and will not soil or color white cambric, yet it lasts long on the hair, and keeps it fresh and vigorous. 35aw

Trains of this road are always on time, connections sure, and passengers seeking pleasure, comfort, safety and ease in traveling, will find the "North-Western" in excess of their expectations, and the greatest of all routes to Chicago and the East. If you wish to travel Accommodations, you will buy your Ticket via this Road, and WILL TAKE NO OTHER.

For the bitter opposition of jealous rivals, no better illustration could be had of the fact that the immense sale already attained by Dr. Ang. Kaiser's German Bitter, for the cure of Coughs and Bronchial Affections, is truly wonderful, even those suffering from Consumption in advanced stages and great relief, and number of patients have found, to their delight, not only relief, but cure. It being perfectly harmless, makes it at once popular with mothers, who of all others have felt the necessity of such a medicine. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the fac-simile signature of Dr. Ang. Kaiser, and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. A trial size may be had for 25 cents.
