LIKE San Francisco, Danver is enjoying a round of excitements. A gory attempt at street assassination on the 6th, a Mr. Manning the victim; a successful incendiary fire on the 3rd, after many unsuccessfalattempts, resulting in the burning to death of Mrs. Emma A. several men severely with their torches

De Soto, besides much destruction of property, Aaron L. Mozely, the owner of the houses, the supposed incendiary; and the standing attempts at moral paper occupying the position of W.N. Byers, both past and present in the history of Denver-professing as he does to be the open staunch opponent of public gambling and its kindred vices -arrays himself against the efforts of Denver's best citizens, to have the laws against public gambling and houses of prostitution enforced, and in his bitter, vindictive, and malicious opposition, denonness the motives of these entire, fire was discovered the entire distance denounces the motives of those engag ed in this movement as dishonest, mer cenary and hypoeritical, and when I am singled out and assailed, may I not, in presenting to the public my vin-dication, say, in his own language, "It may be well for the public to inquire into the motives of this "distinguished" editor, for striving in such an articator editor, for striving in such an extraor dinary manner to prevent the execution of the laws against such vices; and fur-ther ask, "are they honest or are they mercenary."

The discussion goes into Colorado court failures to enforce the laws, and refusals of grand jury to act. Mr. Charles tells Mr. Byers substantially that "he has sold out to the gamblers and is growing rich from pocketing a portion of their ill-gotten money," and Mr. Byers tells Mr. Charles, or rather insinuates, that he has "grown rich from money received by bribery and defending gambling."

They have a very pretty quarrel on hand, and on the face of it the public

Ez-Governor Curtis is again in a critical condition, being prostrated by the too numerous visits of his friends. The International congress at the Hague has decided to remove the gener-council from London to New York. CINCINNATI.—A torch-light proces-sion of colored men attending the Re-publican meeting last night was jeared at and stoned by persons on the street. The colored men recented it besting several men severely with their torches, and the standing attempts at abling reform by the suppression of gambling dens, houses of prostitution, etc., are among the most prominent. This last business is the most largely and last-togan addressed an immense gathering done up in rubber bags. The first ward ingly exciting. Mr. J. Q. Charles and the Denver News are having a good time in argumentative sparring over this question, Mr. Charles on the side of reform, the Dever News (W. N. Within half an hour from the time the fire was discovered the entire distance from Union to Monroe was on fire, the air being filled with sparks which ighted numerous places, some of them fully teu blocts distant. When the fire reached the extensive carriage works of Prince and company, many of the guests in the Peabody House, believing that building would follow, hastily evacuated it. The streets were crowded with people, some of whom rendered valuable sentence, removing goods, but the day was breaking when Bruce & Co's manufactory fell with a terrible crash, its huge walls and roof smothering the raging flames inside, soon enabled the firemen to control the fire; but southward the flames had spread to Brostill's livery stable, Wal-lace and Gibbon's carriage works, and Warner's livery stable, and in fact lare and Gibbon's carriage works, and Warner's livery stable, and in fact swept everything to Union Street. For a long time it was feared the Opera House, post office and court rooms would be burned. The streets were filled with the goods of the inmates of the amail shops on Union street, many of whom barely escaped with life. Hon. Wm. H. Seward, it is stated, is the enjoyment of his mental faculties. it is understood, will contain his general reflections on the countries through which he traveled and a summing up of his views and comarisons of different races and nations. His accomplished daughter works with him as amanuenels and assistant.

Mr. Seward's work will undoubtedly be one of great interest, and replete with information. The public will be eager to read the mavure reflections of so distinguished a statesman, made in the calm leisure of an honored old age.

THE California Republican is ungallant enough to say that Frances Rose McKinley is "fat and forty" if not "fair," and "must once have been very attractive," but that free love becomes impracticable when a woman approach-es the "sere and yellow leaf." The Republican reiterates to Rose the Shakesperian advice-"Get thes to a nunnery." We don't believe a nunnery is a fit place for woman.
