CORRESPONDENCE.
PRIMARY FAIR AND ANNIVERSARY.
AMERICAN FORK, Nov. 22nd, 1885.
Editor Desert News:
The Primary Associations of American Fork, Central, East and West, held their annual fair and anniversary in the meeting house on Saturday. The forenoon was devoted to the exhibition of articles made by the members, and I assure your readers it was very profitable. Quilts, aprons, and all kinds of ladies work; bread, cake, etc., by the little housewives of the forks; waffles, etc., by the future "Lords of Creation," evincing the fact that the children of American Fork are not idle. The afternoon exercises consisted of songs, recitations, dialogues and plays, all pleasing, elevating and instructive in tone, and appreciated by a large and attentive audience.

ATHLETICS.
The papers have been making a deal of game lately of the athletic development sought for in our leading universities. It is a matter of fact that the "master of arts," but "master of athletics," well perhaps, the boys do run somewhat to extremes, but after all this admiration for the physical development of all that it is natural and should, under proper circumstances, be cultivated. As a nation, we are too much given to labor without sufficient and regular recreation.
