Fran M. Orem yesterday filed a suit against Edward McGarrick, asking $10,000 damages for slander.

It has been discovered that the wires connecting the ends of the rails on the Rapid Transit, in the paved district are still intact after a lapse of nine years.

Dr. E. L. Colburn is suing the administrator of the estate of Mary Jane Hopworth for $372, which he claims is due him for professional services rendered to the deceased.

President George Q. Cannon and party left for San Francisco this morning, en route to Honolulu, to attend the semi-centennial celebration of the introduction of the Gospel on the Hawaiian Islands.

David Nicol yesterday filed a complaint with the county attorney, charging A. Dittman with threatening him with a shot gun. The case will come up before Justice McComie of Little Cottonwood.

Thomas C. Armstrong died at the advanced age of 83 years, yesterday afternoon in this city. He came here from England about forty years ago, and became associated with Henry W. Lawrence, which associations lasted up to the time of his death. The funeral will be held on Friday.

Joseph Shotwell, who drives a coal wagon, fell from the car at the Diamond company's yard last night, and received serious injuries. Dr. Beer was called to attend him and found one of his left ribs broken. Shotwell will not be able to go back to work for several weeks.

Regarding the statements in the Herald that Dr. Talmage is or is not a candidate for the board of education, the "News" is requested to state that the doctor makes a denial. He is not taking part in the controversy, and remarks attributed to him are without foundation in anything he has said.

The charge that was made against Principal Elsworth and Teacher Christensen of the Riverton school, of having brutally beaten James Morgan, a ten-year-old boy, found to be wholly without foundation, according to County Superintendent Ashton, who says he has investigated the matter thoroughly.

Civil service examinations for the positions of superintendent and head nurse in the Freedman's hospital in Washington, D. C., at salaries of $90 per annum will be held in this city on Dec. 19 and 20. Applicants must be graduates of a reputable training school and must be 20 years old or older. Preference will be given to unmarried women between the ages of 20 and 25 years.

A non-partisan mass meeting to which all qualified voters of the Second precinct of Salt Lake City are invited has been called for 7:30 Monday evening in the Sixth ward assembly hall on Third West street, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the school board. The call is signed by Thomas C. Lewis, chairman of the Democratic precinct committee, and R. W. Lewis, chairman of the Republican precinct committee.

A young lady whose name is suppressed swooned away while pacing in the corridor of a business block yesterday afternoon, and much difficulty was encountered in restoring her to consciousness. She was subjected to somewhat violent treatment, which seemed to have no effect upon her. A physician who knew the girl, was finally summoned, and after reviving her, sent her home in a hack.

Judge Tolpelt yesterday handed down his decision in the Himmah contested will case. The decision is that Minnie Himmah, the deceased, was insane at the time she signed the will and continued in that condition up to the time of her death. He decides that Rosetta L. Himmah and William L. Himmah, brother and sister of the deceased, and Alonzo H. Hendricks, a nephew, are the only heirs to the estate.

WAS A BAD FALL.
Miss Lilla Zenger of 61 west Third North street, who is attending the Salt Lake Business College, fell in a fall on the stairway in the city and county building last evening. She was descending the stairs in company with Miss Jessie Houck, when she suddenly pitched forward and fell headlong down the stairs. She was taken into an office and Dr. Benedict was summoned. It took him an hour to restore her to consciousness, after which she was taken home. It was there discovered that she has sustained a slight fracture of the left wrist, a bad contusion on the left side of the head and some severe bruises about the lower ribs. It is said that the young lady will soon recover.
