

ARMOUR CAR MEN REFUSE TO ANSWER

Robbins, Pres., and Sprout, Traffic Manager of Lines, Decline To Reply to Questions.

ACTED UNDER INSTRUCTIONS.

No Action Taken Regarding Their Declaration—Claimed Commission Had No Jurisdiction.

Washington, Nov. 3.—President Robbins of the Armour car lines and Traffic Manager of the Southern Pacific company declined to answer questions put to them by the interstate commerce commission in the private car line inquiry today, both acting under instructions of their counsel.

The examination of Mr. Robbins was intended to show that the Armour car lines, through Armour & Co., or other concerns controlled by the same concerns is engaged in business other than that of leasing cars to railroads and refrigerating perishable shipments.

Mr. Robbins put said the company is not in the business of leasing cars and that the Armour car lines is a separate company, when ATTY. KENNEDY of the Southern Pacific company interposed an objection that the Armour car line was not a separate company, that the commission had no jurisdiction.

Mr. Robbins also testified in support of Mr. Eichenman's contention that the Armour car lines are not engaged in the transportation business, but only in the business of leasing cars and furnishing refrigeration. He asserted that the respondent railroads have no part in the charges of transportation.

Issue was taken by ATTY. BARRY with the testimony of the witness. Mr. Barry said he could show that the Armour car lines are engaged in the fruit and produce business.

Mr. Robbins, in answer to a query previously put, said the company is not in the fruit or produce business.

J. H. Call of Los Angeles, who is acting for California fruit interests, then took charge of the examination and under instruction of counsel Mr. Robbins declined to answer a number of questions. Chairman Knapp announced that the commission would continue its work on the ground and would require the witness to answer.

George W. Teltz, refrigerating manager of the California Fruit-Growers' exchange, testified in relation to the details of the case.

At the afternoon session Mr. Robbins was asked a number of questions which, under instructions from his attorney, he declined to answer. The commission ruled that he must answer.

President Robbins resumed the stand this afternoon. Mr. Barry asked as to the average daily movement of cars, the average life of cars and the basis on which the company assessed or fixed charges were not answered under similar circumstances. Mr. Robbins was asked to give lists of long stations and costs on citrus fruits, the witness refusing to answer on the ground that the commission had no jurisdiction.

The book presented at the hearing at Chicago as the Armour telegraphic code book was taken up, and the chairman, read from it: "Launch-Better arrangement rebate there," asking the witness what this meant. This and all other questions were not answered upon advice of counsel. Then Mr. Robbins was dismissed from the witness stand.

William Sprout, traffic manager of the Southern Pacific railway company, testified in relation to his contract by which J. T. Ames supplied his road with refrigerators.

Mr. Ames testified that he had advised the witness to not answer any question in relation to any contract between the Southern Pacific and the Southern California railways on the ground that the investigation concerns refrigerator charges and not transportation rates. The commission instructed Mr. Sprout to answer, but he declined. Commissioner Prouty declared the contract to be "a public agreement."

The witness refused to say whether the contract is still in operation.

TEA

A trifle of tea in a dainty cup has in it a world of rest or of stimulant—what is the result?

Miss S. Lay, in an interview, declares that the dissemination of inflammatory boycott literature is indirectly responsible for the massacre and he has warned the isolated stations in Kwangtung and Kweichow of their danger in view of the fact that the anti-American feeling is growing stronger, and advising the departure of the missionaries for their head stations.

The anti-American newspapers are being distributed gratis by junks going up the rivers. The boycotters at Canton were the first to receive the names of the missionaries massacred.

CHICAGO THE GOLDEN.

No Longer a Windy City According to Govt. Weather Bureau.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Chicago is the "Windy City" no more from the viewpoint of the government weather bureau. Since the removal of the bureau offices from the Auditor tower to the dome of the new federal building, the aerometer has taken a 20 per cent rise. Officially it has been found that the wind does not blow over the postoffice as hard as it did over the Auditorium by comparison.

The wind register in its new quarters is 33 feet above the sidewalk. This is 56 feet higher than its old location. But a gale that would have registered 50 miles an hour at the old stand now indicated 40.

"The change probably is caused by the high buildings which surround us," Professor H. J. Cox said yesterday. Although the register is high above anything else on the city, the skyscrapers around the postoffice tend to change the currents.

PRINCE JOHN OF BELGRADE.

For Sixty Years Was Known in N. Y. as "Plain John Markowitch."

New York, Nov. 4.—Plain John Markowitch as he was known here for nearly 60 years, a furrier, who died Thursday, will be buried tomorrow under his long abandoned title of Prince John of Belgrade. Markowitch was a first cousin of the present ruler of Serbia, King Peter I, his mother being Princess Helena of the house of Kara-georgievich and his father Count Stephen Nicholas. When 15 years of age, the boy John, quarreled with his father and came to this country where he learned the trade which he afterwards followed. He wrote home that nobility was no longer a matter of concern to him in a free country where all men were sovereigns. Since then he held no connection with his noble relatives until his cousin ascended the throne of Serbia, when he sent his congratulations.

The old man's coffin bears a silver plate emblem with the royal arms of Serbia and the inscription: "Prince John of Belgrade, Serbia. Died Nov. 2, 1905."

SIMPLE JOY

It Feels Mighty Good to be Clear of Coffee Ails.

A Massachusetts woman had been a life-long coffee drinker and was slow to suspect that it was this habit that was making her life miserable.

"I can now see," she writes, "that the use of the old kind of coffee was the cause of my poor health, and before going any further, I want to say that roasting food coffee has done more for me than I can express. I have been drinking roasting food coffee for two years now, and shall never give it up again."

The first intimation of breaking health that I had was when my stomach gave out; my digestion was so impaired that I had no appetite for breakfast and but little for any other meal. Then I became the victim of sleeplessness and in the morning I was tired and languid and utterly unfit for the duties of the day before me. I grew so nervous that I could not hold my pen, my hand fell away and I became painfully thin.

"I must acknowledge the help the doctor gave me in getting out what was really the matter with me, for after vainly prescribing medicines, he suggested that I give up coffee and eat roasting food. I had to have something in the way of a hot, table beverage and fortunately, I hit upon Irvins."

"Quite a little time elapsed before the coffee pain was worked out of my system. But this was at last accomplished, and from that moment my health improved in every way. Today I am as healthy as a young man and can be found at my desk, enjoying a good hearty breakfast with no distress to follow it. My nervousness has disappeared, and I have taken on flesh so rapidly that my friends tell me I am 'getting fat.' I weigh more than I ever did before." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

ground for suspicion of any criminal intent on the part of Mr. Matter or any corrupt collusion with the officers of the bank. He was, however, it is alleged, entirely too credulous in his acceptance of their statements and careless and inefficient in his examinations.

Seized Chinese Idols.

London, Nov. 4.—A dispatch to the Daily Express from Hongkong says that the Lanchow massacre was due to the unwise action of Mrs. Machie, who, on the refusal of some of the members of a native procession to assist from worshipping the idols they carried, seized the idols and declined to restore them to their owners. Thereupon the infuriated processionists surrounded and destroyed the mission and assassinated the inmates. They then murdered them and threw their bodies into the river.

The mob did not interfere with six French priests who resided in the neighborhood.

TAMMANY ANTI-HEARST POSTAL CARDS CONFISCATED

New York, Nov. 4.—Thousands of Tammany campaign postal cards issued in opposition to William Randolph Hearst, candidate for mayor, were confiscated today by order of Postmaster William R. Wilcox of this city. The cards were a miniature of a campaign poster and banner, which has been widely distributed by Tammany. It bore a transparent likeness of President McKinley above the red bomb, the fuse of which was burning; while in the background was the figure of a man labeled "Hearst." It bore the inscription, "Let us forget" and contained alleged extracts from one of Mr. Hearst's newspapers.

A BIG REWARD

Offered for Apprehension of Some Cornell Students.

Ithaca, N. Y., Nov. 4.—A reward of $500 was offered yesterday by the Ithaca Street Car company for the apprehension of the Cornell university students, who, it is alleged, on Thursday night, placed in peril the lives of a score of passengers under the guise of a college party.

The street car, which had a bad curve on a dangerous grade a short distance above the deep cascading gorge at the edge of the Cornell campus, were gripped with soap, evidently to cause the men to lose control of the car while descending the hill.

As a car approached the curve say-

MERCURY MAKES WRECKS NOT CURES

Thousands who have had their health ruined by Mercury testify that it makes wrecks instead of cures in the treatment of Contagious Blood Poison. While it may mask the disease in the system for awhile, when the treatment is left off the trouble returns with renewed violence, combined with the disastrous effects of this powerful mineral.

Mercury, and Potash, which is also a common treatment for Contagious Blood Poison, eat out the lining of the stomach and bowels, produce chronic dyspepsia, cause the teeth to decay, make spongy, tender gums, decay the bones and muscles, and leave its victims complete physical wrecks.

Another effect of this treatment is mercurial rheumatism, the worst and most hopeless form of this disease. There is but one certain, reliable antidote for this destructive poison, and that is S. S. S. It is the only medicine that is able to go into the blood and cure the disease permanently. S. S. S. does not hide or cover up anything, but so completely drives out the poison that no signs of it are ever seen again. S. S. S. is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, and while curing Contagious Blood Poison, will drive out the effects of any mineral treatment. We offer a reward of $1,000 for proof that S. S. S. contains a particle of mineral of any kind. Book with instructions for self-treatment and any medical advice wished furnished without charge.

(DO YOU REMEMBER?)

David B. Hill was elected governor of New York by a large majority. Cyrus Yanda committed suicide on the grave of his father, at St. Paul, Minn. The son was left a large fortune, but grieved much for his dead father, who had been his inseparable companion.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY.

Eugene Field, the poet, died of heart failure, at his home in Chicago, aged 45 years.

Ida Gaskin, aged 11 years, was found murdered near her home in Omaha. Three young men who roomed in part of the house were arrested with strong evidence against them, especially one named George Morgan.

Dennis Sullivan, foreman of the Bullion-Beck, at Eureka, was killed in the mine by a cave-in.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY.

The defense in the trial of Lynch and King, charged with the murder of Col. Proussan, opened its case. The steamship St. Paul, of the American line, arrived in New York, badly damaged, having been in collision with a drifter.

eral students jumped from behind trees and grabbing the rope at the rear of the car, pulled the trolley pole off the wire. The motorman and conductor managed to replace the pole in time to reverse the power and check the speed of the car as it passed over the slippery rails.

Manager Post of the street railway company declared yesterday that had a less experienced motorman been in charge, nothing would have prevented the car from leaving the rails at the curve and that in all probability it would have precipitated in the deep gorge with a possibility of frightful loss of life.

The matter is regarded as a criminal attempt to wreck a car and has been placed in the hands of the district attorney and police. The railway officials say that if the offenders can be captured they will prosecute them to the full extent of the law.
