The most notable contest of his con-ressional career, and one which attracted to him wider attention than anything else was when he led the senate minority in 1890-91 and defeate 1 the federal elections bill. To his sagaclous leadrship and adroit managenext his party friends attributed the defeat of the measure which was ro obnoxious to the south.

When the Democrats had control of the senate Gorman was the recognized leader of that body. It was at that time that the tariff bill of 1894 was passed. and although the Maryland senator was not a member of the finance committee be had so much to do with shaping the matter that his name is often given to it, and in fact it is frequently called the Wilson-Gorman tariff.

BREAK WITH CLEVELAND.

It was during Cleveland's last administration that a break occurred between the Democratic president and the leader of the party in the senate. In a speech which always will be remembered by those who heard 1t. Senator Gorman severely arraigned the president. To this opposition, the defeat of Senator Gorman a few years later is attributed, although his party lost Maryland in the sliver campaigns. As soon as the Democrats regained con-- 38 trol of the state he was at once reelected to the senate.

It was a tribute to his leadership that as soon as he was again in the senate he was made leader of the minority and, although the seniority rule strictly enforced, Gorman was given committee places that were equal to those he had held after long continuous service.

OPPOSED THE PHILIPPINES.

Senator Gorman was vigorously opposed to the acquisition of the Philipoines and fought the ratification of the Paris treaty with all the force he possessed. Knowing that strong pressure was being exerted on Democrats who were standing with him, he urged an early vote which friends of the treaty held back until the necessary two-thirds of the senators were seoured.

CONDEMNED EXTRAVAGANCE.

pages, all knew Senator Gorman intimately and grief is general. The news of his death reached the Capitol building at about 9:50 o'clock, when it was filling for the day's work, Every arrival was met with the ancouncement that the venerable minorty leader had shifted life's cares and found rest from the Eliness that had kept his sent in the senate vacant all of the present session. The announcement in nearly every case brought forth spontaneous culogies, such as seldom are given to any man, and dependently to an intergreat party. The expressive tributes, unanimous in bespraking the loveableness of the man and silent conarning the incidents of political strife, yest evidenced the marked esteem in which he was held.

Several of the most important com mittees which invariably meet on Monday, devoted nearly all of the time they were in session to discuss the high places Senator Gorman had filled in life at the Capitol.

FUNERAL PRIVATE. It is understood that the services will be private and held at the Gorman home. The senator will be represented by a committee of its members, chosen from colleagues who served with him for many years, Senator Gorman, In a written request, addressed to Mrs. Gorman, asked that no state funeral should be held. He said that he did not wish his body to he brought to the Capitel as he wanted his colleagues always to think of him as they knew him in life as an active senator There he was always cheerful and smiling, and it is regarded as charac-teristic of his disposition that he should desire so to be remembered.

Probable Change in N. G. U. Practise Encampment Program.

From a letter received by Gov. Cutler, it appears that the scene of the proposed practise encampment of regular troops and militia, may be changed from Fort D. A. Russell, Wyo., to Rort Riley, Kansas, The Fort plause and seemed to take great delight in the final overthrow of the plotters. The opening scene is New York, and from the rising of the curtain to the Riley encampment was planned for troops for the middle west, but so many states have replied that they would be unable to send troops, that there is accomodation there for a larger body than is in sight. For that reason, it is thought, a movement is on foot to consolidate the Ft Russell en-campment with that at Fort Riley. The letter has been referred to Gen. Naylor who will prepare estimates of the cost of going to Fort Riley instead of Fort Russell. The estimates already prepared by Col. H. M. H. Lund show that for 400 men, which is the strength the guard, $16,960 will be needed exclusive of horse hire. The estimate is for 8 days, and includes the items of 38.120 pay; $980, subsistence and $5.500 mansportation. Both government and state funds will be available to meet this amount.

to meet this amount. Gin. Naylor stated today that he would reply to Gen.
