AN ARTICLE OF GENUINE MERIT. In this age of shams it is pleasant to meet with an article of Genuine Merit. Such a one is GLEN'S SULPHUR SOAP, a remedy for diseases of the skin and a beautifier of the complexion. All the advantages derivable from Sulphur baths are conferred by the use of this expensive substitute. The ladies speak of it in the highest terms as a means of softening and whitening the skin. The recommendation of physicians has been frequently cited in its behalf, and testimonials from respectable sources would seem to leave no reasonable doubt that it possesses claims upon public confidence of the most positive kind. Merely regarded as an adjunct of the bath and toilet it is very desirable, and as a remedy for eruptions, irritation, and abrasions of the cuticle it takes high rank.

THROUGH countless little openings in the skin, invisible except through a microscope, the perspiration, in a state of health, exudes, hour by hour, night and day. The total obstruction of these minute outlets would produce death; and when they become partially blocked, the skin grows dry, yellow, and finally diseased, and the general health is injuriously affected. GLEN'S SULPHUR SOAP, by opening the pores, removes eruptions and unhealthy granulations on the skin, and imparts to it a healthy clearness, humidity and smoothness, banishing from the face of beauty complexional blemishes, whether attributable to impurities in the capillary circulation, or to undue exposure to the sun and wind. For obstinate scrofulic complaints like the itch, salt rheum, and eczema, it is a sovereign remedy, being quite as effective as Sulphur Baths, for such maladies, as well as rheumatism and gout. It is wonderfully healing and soothing in its action, relieving the cuticle where broken by external injuries, relieving the swelling and inflammation attendant upon sprains, scalds and bruises, and curing the most obstinate sores and ulcers. The Medical Profession sanction its use, and from all classes of society, voluntary evidence in its favor is continually emanating. Ladies of fashion prefer it to any similar accessory of the toilet, and the bath, since it promotes not only health, but personal attractiveness. As a disinfectant of diseased and contaminated clothing it has no peer. After they have been washed with GLEN'S SULPHUR SOAP, garments and linen from the sick room may be handled with perfect impunity.

Sold by Druggists. Price 25c. per cake. 1 Box (3 cakes) 75c. sent by mail, prepaid, on receipt of price. C. N. Critchfield, Prop'r, 7 Sixth Avenue, New York.
