THEATRE.—The Rigl sisters were greeted by a large audience at the Theatre last evening. The night was probably the sharpest of the season, but it was dry, though slippery underfoot. The cold—well, nobody minded that. The farce of "A Kiss in the Dark" went off in the lively manner in which Mr. Graham, Miss Kent and the company put those side-splitting trifles through.

The "Icewitch" was very nicely placed upon the stage, with the advantage of attractive scenery and showy costume, and the acting of Misses Walters, Kent and Simons, and Messrs. Cogswell, Graham, Thorne and Dudley carried the piece through with repeated applause. But the feature of the evening was the dashing dancing of the Rigls, and here words fall to describe the high, nimble, and graceful steppings and audacious and elegant terpsichorean contortions of these two most able and accomplished ballet artists. They must be seen to be appreciated, and there is a deal of them to be seen too. They were vigorously encored. By mechanical inadvertence the varied and brilliant effects of the calcium light were unavailable at the opportune moment when the splendors of its illuminative properties were intended to enhance the fairy-like magnificence of the scene and the surprising performance of the Rigls.

The same plays will be presented again this evening, when all those who wish for fun, mystic spectacle, and motion etherealized should attend.

COLD.—At 2 o'clock this morning the thermometer stood at 10 degrees below zero. We believe that this is the coldest we have had it this winter.

CELEBRATION.—There has been great rejoicing among the Celestial residents of Commercial Street and the small streets and alleys diverging therefrom to-day, this being the first day of the Chinese new year. The streets and lanes above named resounded during a portion of the day with explosions of thousands of fire-crackers, strings of packages of which, several yards in length, were suspended from trees and poles and let off. There have been feasting, drinking and general merry making and the shouting of the Chinamen, the noise of the fire-crackers, &c., attracted a considerable crowd to the vicinity where those things were being carried on.

HOW IS THIS?—Immediately after the decision of Judge C. M. Hawley was given, on Saturday, in the habeas corpus cases of A. S. Wright and William Schoonover, a gentleman of this city telegraphed the news to a friend in Brigham City. Yesterday morning the gentleman who sent the telegram received a letter from his friend informing him that the information contained in the dispatch had been anticipated, as the decision of Judge Hawley was known in Brigham City about six hours previous to its being rendered. The writer of the letter stated that a relative of one of the individuals accused of participation in the wholesale cattle-stealing arrangements told another party that the matter was all going to be nicely fixed up, that Judge Hawley was going to decide that the Probate grand jury indictments did not amount to anything, and that the aforesaid Judge, after thus deciding, intended having an examination into the cases at Corinne, where he would sit as a committing magistrate.

Some curious people may want to know how it is that a Judge's decisions can be anticipated before they are rendered. Well, it may be that some of the Brigham City people are excellent hands at guessing. They heard what kind of a decision interested parties wanted in the matter and the decision happened to be just of that character.

The proceedings in the gigantic cattle stealing operations will be watched with intense interest by a large number of people. It is well known that mighty efforts are being made by parties in the interest of the persons accused of participation in those transactions to cover the whole thing up. It is to be hoped, however, that their efforts in this direction will be completely unsuccessful. The investigation into these cases should be of such a thorough and exhaustive character as to show the matter up in the clearest light possible, that if any of the accused be not guilty of the allegations made against them their innocence may be made plain, and that those who are really guilty may be punished according to law, and with the utmost rigor thereof.

It is authoritatively stated that those thieving transactions have been so alarmingly extensive that a prominent industry of this Territory—that of stock raising, has received a powerful check in northern Utah, where those wholesale robberies have been systematically carried on. It is well known that, at least, one extensive stock herder and raiser has, by these transactions, been partially ruined financially. If such dishonest practices should go partially uninvestigated, and the participants therein walk abroad inhaling the atmosphere of freedom when they should be confined within the walls of a prison, the consequences of such a state of things being allowed to exist would not be difficult to determine.

As we have already stated, large interests are at stake in these cases and their progress will be watched with the keenest interest. All those whose actions shall in any way tend to prevent the exhaustive investigation that is so much desired will lay themselves open to the just censure and condemnation of not only the whole of the respectable citizens of this community, but of all the lovers of justice, peace and good order who may become acquainted with the nature of the circumstances connected with the huge robberies in question.

Y. M. S. P.—We acknowledge a complimentary to a "Young Men's Select Party," to be given at the City Hall, on Friday evening, Jan. 31. Committee, D. H. Wells jun., R. S. Wells. Floor Manager, James Currie.

ALL OF THEM.—We were informed to-day that all the parties, besides Wright and Schoonover, against whom indictments were found by the Grand Jury of the Probate Court of Box Elder County, charging them with participation in the Corinne cattle stealing affair, had been habeas corpused by Judge Hawley, and that they were to appear before that judicial functionary at Corinne to-day. That this programme might be carried out the bondsmen of the accused surrendered the latter to the custody of the sheriff, in order that the writ might be served on that officer.

Rather peculiar doings these. It is presumable that Judge Hawley and others expect that Box Elder County is going to foot the bill connected with these proceedings, but, if we are correctly informed, the people of that county think no, the people of this county do not view the matter exactly from that standpoint. Would it be at all wonderful if people should refuse to pay for the privilege of being vexed and humbugged in a suppositive degree?

THE STORM YESTERDAY.—Last evening, we are informed, the windstorm, which arose in the afternoon, became so violent northward, that near Farmington the exposed side of the U. C. R. R. carriages were lifted off the track several inches, and it was thought advisable to reduce the speed of the train. Joseph Walker, a young man, while out on the bottom lands near that place, hunting stock, was overtaken by the storm and, not being sufficiently clad to withstand the piercing effects of the gale from the mountains and the dry, driving snow, he came near being frozen to death. He fell off his horse several times, but finally managed to reach the depot, where he was cared for by the telegraph operator. With the aid of a little rubbing and some warm liquid to resuscitate the inner man, the youth was soon restored to himself and the Farmington choir was saved the loss of one of its best members.

FIVE MILES OF GRADING.—Up to Saturday at noon five miles of grading were completed on the Salt Lake, Sevier Valley and Pioche Railroad, and the work is still progressing. The storm which prevailed here more or less from Saturday morning till yesterday afternoon, did not extend very far to the westward, with any degree of severity, as we are informed there was but a light fall of snow, on Saturday, in the vicinity where the work on the railroad was being done, and on Sunday afternoon it rained there for about a couple of hours.

MARRIED.—In this City, January 27th, by Elder Joseph F. Smith, Mr. Marion Merrill and Miss Lydia A. Young, daughter of the late Patriarch John Young, both of this city.

GOOD TEMPLARS.—Yesterday we received, from Mr. Lewis F. Appleby, a copy of the "Weekly Rescue," a paper published at Sacramento, in the interest of temperance. It is a very readable journal, as it contains many interesting articles on a variety of subjects.

We mentioned, on a previous occasion, that it was the intention of Mr. Appleby to organize a branch of the Independent Order of Good Templars, of California, in this City. We are informed by him that the first meeting for the accomplishment of this object will be held next Friday evening.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PARTY.—A very pleasant party came off in the 16th District School House, 14th Ward, yesterday, under the direction of the managers of the Sunday School of that ward. In the afternoon the juveniles went forth in the dance, and in the evening the adults did likewise. The room was not crowded, but the company was sufficiently large to give liveliness and spirit to the occasion, six cotillions being on the floor at once. The school house is large and convenient and a credit to the people who have built it. They are to be commended too for giving the children the first opportunity to enjoy themselves.

OXY-CALCIUM STEREOSCOPTICON.—That is nearly as high sounding as the unpronounceable name of the man in a basement store in the Grocabeck Block. It is only the high-falutin, however, for what is known as the new magic lantern, of the wonders of which Brother W. Willis will give an exhibition in the Twentieth Ward School-house on Saturday evening, commencing at 7 o'clock. This is a good chance for a nice entertainment, especially for children. Adults 25 cents, children 10 cents.

COOK THE EXCURSIONIST.—Mr. Thomas Cook, the great excursion organizer, wrote from San Francisco to England concerning his visit to Salt Lake last fall, on his tour round the world. He says—

"All my party were astonished at the magnitude and business characteristics of Salt Lake City.

"Apart from all religious considerations, the Mormons have done a great work in cultivating the plain and its tributaries, and it would be a sad day if this colony of early and industrious settlers should be depopulated, or their homesteads be forcibly taken from them.

"I called to see one of my once near neighbors a Leicester, who left his home and friends nineteen years since, as a journeyman carpenter. At my request he showed the produce of his farm, which was perfectly astounding.

"Thus it is with great numbers of industrious settlers, and it is earnestly hoped that they will never be disturbed in the possession of such honorably-acquired wealth, for wealth it is of the best kind.

"It is unquestionable that Brigham Young and his adherents have altered a city, cultivated the greater part of the Territory of Utah, constructed railways, and executed other public works and have pioneered the way to the formation of another State of the Union."

COASTING.—Coasting has been rare hereabout the winter, but it is practicable now, and the boys are taking advantage of the time. Last night they were at it lively, notwithstanding the darkness and the cold.

RECEIVED.—"The Galaxy" for February is an interesting number of this popular periodical. Among its contents are "The Wetherel Affair," "Norway," "Life on the Plains," "From London to New York," "Women as Companions," and "Up to London for the Season."

"Lippincott's" for February has illustrated articles on "Searching for the Quinine Plant" and "A Glance at Athens," besides "Country-house Life in England," "The Forest of Arden," "Jack, the Regular," "Submarine Diving," "John Chinaman," and a full amount of other entertaining reading.

THE RIGLS.—Here is what the San Francisco "Figaro" says about the performances of the accomplished Dancers at the California Theatre:

"The public of this city do not more than all appreciate the ballet, they have not been educated to it; last night, though the corps de ballet executed their dances in a style which reflected the greatest credit on them, the audience reserved their applause for the principals, Miles Betty and Emily Rigl, and were not at all too enthusiastic over the two famous dancesques, who set New York wild when they appeared in the "Black Crook." Miss Betty is an accomplish d danseuse and has much variety of style, her sister, Miss Emily, is a beauty, dances with much spirit and abandon and must become a favorite with any audience."

Special Notices.

CAREFUL ATTENTION.—Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder and Special Flavorings, are by careful manipulation, freed entirely from the principles which render bread, cakes, &c., inadmissible with persons suffering with disordered digestion. We earnestly hope that all those who deal in Flavoring Extracts and Baking Powders, will take a supply of Dr. Price's, and make their benefits known; they are sure to be appreciated by all their customers. d56 s w 1e

DRUGS AND CHEMICALS.—Among the summer of first-class houses re-established since the fire of Chicago, that of Van Schaack, Stevenson & Reid, Wholesale Druggists, still holds its former prominence. We refer our merchants to their card in this issue, and feel assured that for reliability and promptness in filling orders this house can not be excelled. d56-1t
