AN ELECTRIC TELEGRAM!

An age of light and wonder! the age,
Full of inventions of experienced time;
The crowded past the present doth engage,
To modify it a verse, not blank, but rhyme,
Heroic in events and episodes,
Its speed electric, and we daily find
New ways and means and bright progressive modes,
O'er earth to flash the glory of advancing mind.

Our present telegram has brought the news,
Important to our public and the world.
That Green's New Lights will show extended views—
That darkness from each home may now be buried.
His MATCH ELECTRIC is the potent rod,
Each hand that takes it holds a magic power,
To charm away a while the drowsy god,
And lend illumination to a cozy hour.

Then hail and praise the PRIZED ELECTRIC MATCH,
And make home enterprise a selling bid;
You'll long to read our telegraphic catch,
And more—perchance, may at it laugh and—
Will-of-the-wisp the Match will never be found;
'Twill give a certain and a constant light,
And chase the darkness that appears around,
And lend a social brightness to each passing night.
