proved a center of attraction, and the fost was crowded all the afternoon. When the Twenty-ninth regiment ar-rives, the band concerts will draw great crowds of city folk. City Creek canyon was visited by hundreds of peosome of whom walked clear to Black mountain.

While crossing the street at the inter-section of East Temple and Second South streets last evening, Henry Wil-son, a cook, was thrown down by a collision with a horse and buggy driven by H. Olson. He did not see the ap-proaching turn-out, but no blame is at-norbed to the driver. Wilson's head tached to the driver. Wilson's head struck the pavement with force, but an examination by Dr. Giesy failed to de-velop any serious injury.

There was a large attendance yester-day afternoon, in the First Methodist church on the occasion of the conclu-sion of the exercises of the evangelical Sunday school convention. The gram included songs, recitations The pro and brief addresses, the principal address being by Rev. Dr. Pinkerton on "Flow-ers." He spoke principally of the hap-piness brought into the world by these silent little messengers. Miss Louise Smith spoke on character building, ll-lustrating with a harp the points she wished to make. Mrs. A. R. Jones gave an interesting chalk talk.

E. A. Hunsaker Found Bleeding from

An Ugly Wound in His Neck.

Early yesterday Morning E. A. Hunsaker, a bricklayer, was found lying in the street at First South and State street, bleeding profusely from an ug. ly gash in the back of his neck. The wound looks as though it was inflicted by a razor. A negro named G. W. Thomas was arrested by the police on the charge of making the assault.

When Officer Parry made the arrest, Thomas was standing over his victim, who was bleeding on the pavement. A careful search failed to reveal any rar on Thomas, but he carried two ugy looking knives. It is claimed that the men had been drinking together Saturday night and became involved in a row when Thomas slashed Hunsaker in the neck with a weapon. The injured man was taken to the station and Dr. Benedict summoure to sew up the wound. Thomas will be charged with assault witht a deadiy weapon.

Whooping Courh.

"In the spring of 1901 my children had whooping cough," says Mrs. D. W. Capps, of Capps, Ala. "I used Cham-berlain's Cough Remedy with the most satisfactory results. I think this is the best remedy I have ever seen for whooping cough." This remedy keeps the cough loose, lessens the severity and frequency of the coughing spells and counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by all druggists.
