WEBER ACADEMY IMPROVEMENT

Domestic Science Department Has Added a Dining Room.

Ogden, Nov. 12.—In its usual step of progress the Weber academy has added another feature to its splendid institution which again placed it in the front ranks of like institutions of the city and state. The latest addition to the school is the large dining room which has been opened under the auspices of the domestic science department of the school and which will serve dinners every day for the remainder of the school year.

The large dining hall has recently been remodeled and newly furnished throughout. Additional china and silverware as well as new linen have been added which now gives it the appearance of the dining room of some first class hotel or cafe. While the members of the class in the domestic science department took a great amount of interest in their work heretofore the opening of the dining hall for serving of meals to the faculty and students during the school year has added untold interest in the students' work.

Principal W. M. McKendrick and faculty are to be congratulated upon this step of giving the students the best possible opportunities in domestic science.

TALE OF A TRAMP.

Stranger Robs Potato Pile of Its Protection Against Frost.

Ogden, Nov. 12.—A Gypsy, a native of Spain, is held a prisoner at the county jail until his case can be investigated and some charge brought against him. Pedro is not a vag, or a mendicant, but he claimed he had upon his person $121 tied up in a handkerchief. Pedro is responsible for the freeing of several bushes of potatoes belonging to Joseph Jenkins of Wilson Lane.

Monday Jenkins dug his potatoes and placed them in a pile preparatory to sacking them for market. Fearing a frost Jenkins covered the potatoes with all the spare blankets and quilts that his household could spare.

Yesterday morning Jenkins found the potatoes were uncovered and frozen and the blankets were gone. Upon going into the barn he found Pedro wrapped up in the missing bedding deep in slumber. Pedro was detained as Jenkins' guest while he sent word to the sheriff's office and the deputies were dispatched to the farm. It is probable that the case will be settled by Pedro buying the frozen potatoes.

WILL APPOINT RECEIVER FOR MERCANTILE CO.

Chicago, Nov. 12.—Judge Mack announced in the circuit court that he would appoint a receiver for the Mercantile Finance company today to hold the assets of the company pending the settlements of the affairs of the Rhodus Brothers. This is the third Rhodus corporation for which a receiver has been appointed. Receiver John F. Felser, of the Central Life Security company, and of the Mercantile Security company, will probably not be appointed receiver of the third company. Judge Mack, who expressed the opinion that interests of the company might be hostile to each other, Felser claims the Mercantile Finance company owes the other two corporations $300,000.

The Mercantile Finance company, according to the allegations of Felser, has acted as the agent for the sale of the stock of the other two companies.

SOCIALISTS PLEASED WITH LABOR'S PART IN CAMPAIGN

Denver, Nov. 12.—Characterizing the participation of the American Federation of Labor in its executive campaign as a distinct victory for the Socialist cause, it is announced by that element in the federation that there will be no fight in this convention of the federation between Socialists and non-Socialists. Heretofore the contest has been a leading feature of the annual meetings, and President Gompers has been a mark of assault. Now the Socialists believe that the start has been made by the federation, which will bring the labor movement of the country to their party.

The convention resumes its sessions this morning after taking a day off to visit the Union Printers' Home at Colorado Springs. The program will be with the addresses of the fraternal delegates from the English and Canadian labor congresses.

Mrs. Hains was asked by a reporter if she had been correctly quoted in an interview in New York, in regard to the severe criticism of her son-in-law. "An interview with me," exclaimed Mrs. Hains, "expect you have been talking too much," exclaimed Mr. Hains.

Gen. and Mrs. Hains will spend the winter in Washington in order to keep their grandchildren in a milder climate than New York.

Starting at an early hour this morning in the Arcade theater, the fire quickly communicated to adjoining buildings, most of which were temporary structures of flimsy construction, and, after burning fiercely for two
