Contractor Campbell of the federal building will be glad when word comes from Washington to resume setting stone, as there is a lot of it in position to be set, but nothing can be done until the order is given from the department.

Cap. Hayden of the artillery corps, who is in this city on the commission to buy hornes, is a West Point classmate of Capt. J. E. Caine of this city, and the two are talking over old times together. Capt. Hayden remarked this morning that no horses had been offered the commission yet.

Maj. James C. Bush of the artillery corps, formerly stationed at Fort Doug-has as first licatenani of light battery D. Fifth artillery regiment, is now in com-mand of the battalion of heavy artillery, stationed in the Philippines. Maj. Bush was in the class of 'Ti at Yale, and later graduated at West Point.

The Carmena Glee club goes to Hing-ham Friday evening to give a concert in and of the Bingham Methodist church. Among those who will appear on the pro-gram are Mrs. John Reed Mrs. Kate Bridewell Anderson, Miss Young, Katie Fordyce, Fred Sands, Mr. Devere, Miss Lawyer and Mr. Leonard.

The street railway company has com-pleted the laying of the double track on Pirst street hill, and the additional troi-ley wire has been string. The change makes a valuable improvement for the company, and does not seem to mar the appearence of the street. There is a sufficient roadway on either side.

Last evening Sergeant Hempel found a quantity of silverware that is believed to have been stolen from a residence or church. The stuff was concealed in a sack at the rear of a store on Market row, where it had been cached by the thief. It was taken to the station and is there now awaiting a claimant.

With the retirement of Col. S. C. Park from the command of the First infantry, there is a good deal of speculation as to bis successor. Dr. Critchlow was men-tioned this morning, as a very desirable tand on account of his record as an off-cer in the Philippines and the high esti-mation in which he is held by both regu-lar army and volunteer officers.

All is now quiet between the American and the Greek laborers at the Bingham smelter, and the three men injured are reported as doing as well as could be ex-ported. The 15 men arreated will be heard before the Bingham justice of the pence later in the week. The Bingham officers are "keeping cases" or the ameilar laborers to prevent any repitition.

A. B. Worst of All Experiences,

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala, "For three years," she writes,"I endured insufferthree pears, and writes, i endared incuter-able pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death semed inevi-table when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered."
