Comforting the Aged Poor.-Last night Mrs. Burt, of the 21st Ward, wife of the Bishop, gave a party to the oldest and poorest people in the Ward, at which the Bishop and his Counselors were present. Those who participated had an excellent supper, and the tin e, till 11 o'clock was spent in rendering songs, recitations and in sociable, friendly conversation. Quite a large number were present.

Death of Robert Williams .- On Sunday night, shortly be ore eight o'clock, a well known and eccentric character departed this life at his residence in the 21st Ward. The voice of Robert Williams, whose ringing tones have been so often heard upon the streets of Salt Lake City, is now stilled in death. The cause of his demise was pneumonia, combined with dropsy. He joined the Church many years ago, in England, and emigrated to Nauvoo. At that time his mind was, so we are informed, well bal anced, but those acquainted with him in early times state that his mental equilibrium was disturbed by troubles through which he passed during the time the Saints were persecuted.

The funeral will be delayed until Thursday, when it is expected that his son Robert, who has been in Montana for some time, will reach home. He will be buried by the Church. The whole community will remember Robert Williams with a kindly feeling.

A DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

SEVERAL STORES DESTROYED BY THE DEVOURING ELEMENT.

Early yesterday morning a fire broke out to the butcher's shop of buildings on First South Street, between the Kimball and Lawrence corner and the City Market Square. The structure where the flames broke out and those in its immediate vicinity were constructed almost entirely of wood. The fire was discovered about 6.30 and probably ten minutes elapsed before the informafilled with dense smoke.
