

the legislature next Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Boyle at 8 o'clock, a number of leading Democrats to be among the guests.

Miss Nance O'Neill is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Burton.

COMING AND GOING

Mrs. F. J. Hagenbarth will leave early next week to join Mr. Hagenbarth in Chicago.

Miss Mary Rogers of Omaha is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand J. Fabian for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Moore have moved and are now at home at 21 the Bradford.

Mrs. Hal W. Brown is the guest for a few days of Mrs. J. G. Jacobs.

Miss Bees Chandler is in from Birmingham to spend a few days with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morse and daughter have returned to Denver after spending the winter at the Manitou.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe M. Breeden, who were married in Los Angeles, February 18, have returned from their wedding trip through California, and for the present are at home at the residence of Atty. Gen. and Mrs. M. A. Greden, 574 South State street.

Mrs. M. B. Sears and baby have returned from a visit to friends in St. Louis.

Mrs. Frank D. Hobbs and Miss Edith Hobbs will shortly be at home at 443 east First South street.

Mrs. Clark M. Knight and baby

the day, will be heard in concert with the Ogden tabernacle choir.

Miss Margaret Moore and Mr. Joseph Hayes, two popular young people of Hooper, were married this week.

Mrs. Herrik gave an enjoyable afternoon Thursday to a number of her lady friends at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Lewis.

Mrs. R. A. Jones and Rollo Emsworth were visiting in Salt Lake City this week with friends.

James Horgan gave an enjoyable stag party Wednesday evening at his home to the members of the Tower club. Cards and sociability made up the evening's pleasures. Refreshments were served.

The Fourth ward dramatic club will be seen next Wednesday evening at the Fifth ward hall in a five-act drama. The proceeds will be given to the Weber stake Religion Class board.

Postmaster Glassman, after attending the American Publishers' association at New York, went to Washington to visit for a week.

Clarence McCoy and wife returned home this week from a month's pleasure in California.

Tuesday evening the auxiliary to the Carmen's union gave a very pleasant card party and social at the Labor hall which was largely attended. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. A. E. Lansing delightfully entertained the Past Noble Grand club Thursday afternoon at her home on Twenty-seventh street. Cards and music were the pleasures of the afternoon. A dainty lunch was served.

Last Wednesday evening the members of the First ward choir very pleasantly surprised their president, Dr. J. F. Snedaker, at his home on Adams avenue. A pleasant feature of the occasion was a real hose shower, which delighted the astonished doctor. A bounteous repast and several musical numbers completed an evening of rare enjoyment. The party broke up about midnight, each member of the choir expressing the hope that Dr. Snedaker will remain its chief officer for a long time to come.

Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Blair, Satter, T. Pickett, Goddard, Schmidt, Holbrook, Dalton, Elmer Jones, Edward Jones; Mesdames Warner, Phelps, Parker, Pickett, Jones, O'Neill, and Bank of Salt Lake City; Messrs. Bain, Warner, Jackson, Jones, McGregor, Jarman, Jacobson, Misses Larsen, Brown, Florence Brown, Bernice Brown, McGregor, Fowler, Pingree, Johns, Blair.

The Nineteenth Century club celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of its organization Friday evening at the home of Mrs. J. W. Aird. The parlors were beautifully decorated. The club colors, green and gold, predominating in artistic effects. An interesting program of music, songs, readings and games were enjoyed by the members and a large number of guests. Refreshments were served.

The Five Hundred Social club will meet next Tuesday with Mrs. B. R. Thurman.

The Pallas club were entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. W. W. Stacey.

The parlors were tastefully decorated with ferns and flowers, and a delightful evening, passed with music, song and games and the discussion of delicious refreshments.

The ball given Wednesday evening by the free library committee, was attended by a large number of people and was a very enjoyable event.

Senator and Mrs. Smoot and son are expected to arrive from Washington on Friday the 8th.

Miss Fannie Fries has arrived in this city from the east and will remain here for the season with Mrs. W. H. Dusenberry.

A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alma Stewart Thursday night, the occasion being the birthday anniversary of Mr. Stewart. A large number of guests enjoyed an evening of charming sociability. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Hugh Clayton was the guest of honor at a pleasant surprise party given at her home Thursday evening. A large number of guests enjoyed an evening of charming sociability. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. C. W. Bailey was the hostess at a family dinner at her home Thursday evening, in honor of her mother, Mrs. Ruth Bailey. Covers were laid for ten.

Mrs. Thomas Osborne of Salt Lake, spent a couple of days visiting relatives in Provo this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Greenman entertained a number of their friends at their home Monday evening. An evening of sociability and music were enjoyed by about 20 friends and relatives. An elaborate lunch was served.

Master Willie Dunn was surprised by a number of his young friends at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dunn, Wednesday evening. The hours passed merrily in games. Refreshments were served.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Vincent was invaded by a party of friends Wednesday evening, who made merry with songs, recitations and games. Lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McAdam entertained at a family dinner at their home Sunday, in honor of Mrs. Thomas Osborne of Salt Lake. Covers were laid for 12.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Karchner were given a pleasant surprise Tuesday evening by a number of relatives and friends who invaded their home and made merry with song and games till the early morning hours. Refreshments were served.

The Pocatello club met Thursday evening at the home of Miss Effie Bullock. After the usual program, refreshments were served.

LEHI.

Lehi, Utah, March 2.—Last evening in this city, the first ward hall was filled with members and non-members of the ward and the bishoprics of the other wards. The reunion partook of the nature of a social gathering, and the party, those present having brought their own picnic. A delightful program was rendered and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

This evening the Home Dramatic presents, "Captain Racket," in the opera house.

Bishop J. H. Gardner spent most of the week in Salt Lake with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ball are spending the week visiting Eureka relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Speer have returned to their home in Kirksville, Mo., after spending the summer here.

Mrs. Heber Austin has returned to her home at Idaho Falls.

Mrs. Alice Vaughn of Idaho Falls is visiting Lehi relatives.

The people of Ogden are to be given a grand musical treat next Friday

daughter, Aileen left this week for southern Utah, where he will spend a month.

Herbert C. Browne has gone to southern Utah, where he will spend a month.

Mrs. M. H. Kervin is up from Reno, Nev., for a stay of a few days with friends.

Judge and Mrs. Thomas Marioneaux expect to be in their new home on E street within a few days.

Mrs. Sheldon L. Butler and her little daughter, Margaret, expect to move tomorrow to join Mr. Butler in New York.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN.

Ogden, Utah, March 2.—The social function of the week was the party given Tuesday evening by Mrs. J. S. Lewis for the Campers' club at her home on Twenty-fourth street. "High five" was played throughout the evening, prizes were given, and instrumental music was a pleasing feature. A bounteous repast was served in the dining room. The home was tastefully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and ferns.

Mrs. Abe Kuhn gave a pretty party Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Birdsell of Sacramento, who is visiting in Ogden, the guest of Mrs. F. J. Kiesel.

The Young Ladies' Sewing club spent a pleasant afternoon last Saturday at the house of Mrs. Bell.

Albert Seoworoff returned home this week from New York City.

Mrs. A. M. Hastings entertained the Ladies' Missionary circle of the Baptist church at her home on Grant avenue Wednesday afternoon. Topics of special interest to the members were discussed by Mesdames Smith, Fitzgerald, Cook, Brooks, Petterson and Johnson. After the discussion, several songs were rendered, and some sweet vocal and instrumental music.

Next Saturday, March 3, a wedding of unusual interest will take place in Ogden when Miss Alice M. Murdoch one of the most popular young ladies of the city, will be married to Mr. Gas A. Brown, the well known soda water manufacturer.

Miss Marion Delap returned to Salt Lake City this week to resume her studies at the state university.

City Councilman Ed O'Donnell and wife, Josie, left Ogden Thursday for Philadelphia, where they will spend several years studying for trained nurses.

The people of Ogden are to be given a grand musical treat next Friday

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Holman

of March for a stay of some time abroad. They will be joined in New York by their daughter, Mrs. T. W. London.

Mrs. A. J. Gustin, who has spent some time with her daughter, Mrs. Joel L. Priest, left this week for Pasadena to visit her sister, Mrs. S. H. Gilcrest.

Mrs. E. C. Horn, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Richards, for some months, left this week for her home in Colorado Springs.

Mrs. Ray Brandon is in town from Denver visiting her mother, Mrs. M. A. Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dorn have gone to the coast for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis are at home on the corner of J. and Fourth streets.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Dinwoodey are at home after a visit of some length in the east.

Mrs. James C. Dick has returned from a visit with friends in St. Louis.

Mrs. A. E. Hutchinson has returned from a visit in Berkeley, Cal., with Mrs. T. O. Rhoades.

Mrs. Horsford of Oakland and Miss Rennie of San Francisco are visiting with friends in the city for a month.

Mrs. Frank D. Hobbs and Miss Edith Hobbs will shortly be at home at 443 east First South street.

Mrs. Clark M. Knight and baby

the day, will be heard in concert with the Ogden tabernacle choir.

Miss Margaret Moore and Mr. Joseph Hayes, two popular young people of Hooper, were married this week.

Mrs. Herrik gave an enjoyable afternoon Thursday to a number of her lady friends at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Lewis.

Mrs. R. A. Jones and Rollo Emsworth were visiting in Salt Lake City this week with friends.

James Horgan gave an enjoyable stag party Wednesday evening at his home to the members of the Tower club. Cards and sociability made up the evening's pleasures. Refreshments were served.

The Fourth ward dramatic club will be seen next Wednesday evening at the Fifth ward hall in a five-act drama. The proceeds will be given to the Weber stake Religion Class board.

Postmaster Glassman, after attending the American Publishers' association at New York, went to Washington to visit for a week.

Clarence McCoy and wife returned home this week from a month's pleasure in California.

Tuesday evening the auxiliary to the Carmen's union gave a very pleasant card party and social at the Labor hall which was largely attended. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. A. E. Lansing delightfully entertained the Past Noble Grand club Thursday afternoon at her home on Twenty-seventh street. Cards and music were the pleasures of the afternoon. A dainty lunch was served.

Last Wednesday evening the members of the First ward choir very pleasantly surprised their president, Dr. J. F. Snedaker, at his home on Adams avenue. A pleasant feature of the occasion was a real hose shower, which delighted the astonished doctor. A bounteous repast and several musical numbers completed an evening of rare enjoyment. The party broke up about midnight, each member of the choir expressing the hope that Dr. Snedaker will remain its chief officer for a long time to come.

Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Blair, Satter, T. Pickett, Goddard, Schmidt, Holbrook, Dalton, Elmer Jones, Edward Jones; Mesdames Warner, Phelps, Parker, Pickett, Jones, O'Neill, and Bank of Salt Lake City; Messrs. Bain, Warner, Jackson, Jones, McGregor, Jarman, Jacobson, Misses Larsen, Brown, Florence Brown, Bernice Brown, McGregor, Fowler, Pingree, Johns, Blair.

The Nineteenth Century club celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of its organization Friday evening at the home of Mrs. J. W. Aird. The parlors were beautifully decorated. The club colors, green and gold, predominating in artistic effects. An interesting program of music, songs, readings and games were enjoyed by the members and a large number of guests. Refreshments were served.

The Five Hundred Social club will meet next Tuesday with Mrs. B. R. Thurman.

The Pallas club were entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. W. W. Stacey.

The parlors were tastefully decorated with ferns and flowers, and a delightful evening, passed with music, song and games and the discussion of delicious refreshments.

The ball given Wednesday evening by the free library committee, was attended by a large number of people and was a very enjoyable event.

Senator and Mrs. Smoot and son are expected to arrive from Washington on Friday the 8th.

Miss Fannie Fries has arrived in this city from the east and will remain here for the season with Mrs. W. H. Dusenberry.

A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alma Stewart Thursday night, the occasion being the birthday anniversary of Mr. Stewart. A large number of guests enjoyed an evening of charming sociability. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Hugh Clayton was the guest of honor at a pleasant surprise party given at her home Thursday evening. A large number of guests enjoyed an evening of charming sociability. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. C. W. Bailey was the hostess at a family dinner at her home Thursday evening, in honor of her mother, Mrs. Ruth Bailey. Covers were laid for ten.

Mrs. Thomas Osborne of Salt Lake, spent a couple of days visiting relatives in Provo this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Greenman entertained a number of their friends at their home Monday evening. An evening of sociability and music were enjoyed by about 20 friends and relatives. An elaborate lunch was served.

Master Willie Dunn was surprised by a number of his young friends at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dunn, Wednesday evening. The hours passed merrily in games. Refreshments were served.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Vincent was invaded by a party of friends Wednesday evening, who made merry with songs, recitations and games. Lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McAdam entertained at a family dinner at their home Sunday, in honor of Mrs. Thomas Osborne of Salt Lake. Covers were laid for 12.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Karchner were given a pleasant surprise Tuesday evening by a number of relatives and friends who invaded their home and made merry with song and games till the early morning hours. Refreshments were served.

The Pocatello club met Thursday evening at the home of Miss Effie Bullock. After the usual program, refreshments were served.

LEHI.

Lehi, Utah, March 2.—Last evening in this city, the first ward hall was filled with members and non-members of the ward and the bishoprics of the other wards. The reunion partook of the nature of a social gathering, and the party, those present having brought their own picnic. A delightful program was rendered and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

This evening the Home Dramatic presents, "Captain Racket," in the opera house.

Bishop J. H. Gardner spent most of the week in Salt Lake with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ball are spending the week visiting Eureka relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Speer have returned to their home in Kirksville, Mo., after spending the summer here.

Mrs. Heber Austin has returned to her home at Idaho Falls.

Mrs. Alice Vaughn of Idaho Falls is visiting Lehi relatives.

The people of Ogden are to be given a grand musical treat next Friday

daughter, Aileen left this week for southern Utah, where he will spend a month.

Herbert C. Browne has gone to southern Utah, where he will spend a month.

Mrs. M. H. Kervin is up from Reno, Nev., for a stay of a few days with friends.

Judge and Mrs. Thomas Marioneaux expect to be in their new home on E street within a few days.

Mrs. Sheldon L. Butler and her little daughter, Margaret, expect to move tomorrow to join Mr. Butler in New York.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN.

Ogden, Utah, March 2.—The social function of the week was the party given Tuesday evening by Mrs. J. S. Lewis for the Campers' club at her home on Twenty-fourth street. "High five" was played throughout the evening, prizes were given, and instrumental music was a pleasing feature. A bounteous repast was served in the dining room. The home was tastefully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and ferns.

Mrs. Abe Kuhn gave a pretty party Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Birdsell of Sacramento, who is visiting in Ogden, the guest of Mrs. F. J. Kiesel.

The Young Ladies' Sewing club spent a pleasant afternoon last Saturday at the house of Mrs. Bell.

Albert Seoworoff returned home this week from New York City.

Mrs. A. M. Hastings entertained the Ladies' Missionary circle of the Baptist church at her home on Grant avenue Wednesday afternoon. Topics of special interest to the members were discussed by Mesdames Smith, Fitzgerald, Cook, Brooks, Petterson and Johnson. After the discussion, several songs were rendered, and some sweet vocal and instrumental music.

Next Saturday, March 3, a wedding of unusual interest will take place in Ogden when Miss Alice M. Murdoch one of the most popular young ladies of the city, will be married to Mr. Gas A. Brown, the well known soda water manufacturer.

Miss Marion Delap returned to Salt Lake City this week to resume her studies at the state university.

City Councilman Ed O'Donnell and wife, Josie, left Ogden Thursday for Philadelphia, where they will spend several years studying for trained nurses.

The people of Ogden are to be given a grand musical treat next Friday

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Holman

of March for a stay of some time abroad. They will be joined in New York by their daughter, Mrs. T. W. London.

Mrs. A. J. Gustin, who has spent some time with her daughter, Mrs. Joel L. Priest, left this week for Pasadena to visit her sister, Mrs. S. H. Gilcrest.

Mrs. E. C. Horn, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Richards, for some months, left this week for her home in Colorado Springs.

Mrs. Ray Brandon is in town from Denver visiting her mother, Mrs. M. A. Alford.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dorn have gone to the coast for a short stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis are at home on the corner of J. and Fourth streets.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Dinwoodey are at home after a visit of some length in the east.

Mrs. James C. Dick has returned from a visit with friends in St. Louis.

Mrs. A. E. Hutchinson has returned from a visit in Berkeley, Cal., with Mrs. T. O. Rhoades.

Mrs. Horsford of Oakland and Miss Rennie of San Francisco are visiting with friends in the city for a month.

Mrs. Frank D. Hobbs and Miss Edith Hobbs will shortly be at home at 443 east First South street.

Mrs. Clark M. Knight and baby

the day, will be heard in concert with the Ogden tabernacle choir.

Miss Margaret Moore and Mr. Joseph Hayes, two popular young people of Hooper, were married this week.

Mrs. Herrik gave an enjoyable afternoon Thursday to a number of her lady friends at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Lewis.

Mrs. R. A. Jones and Rollo Emsworth were visiting in Salt Lake City this week with friends.

James Horgan gave an enjoyable stag party Wednesday evening at his home to the members of the Tower club. Cards and sociability made up the evening's pleasures. Refreshments were served.

The Fourth ward dramatic club will be seen next Wednesday evening at the Fifth ward hall in a five-act drama. The proceeds will be given to the Weber stake Religion Class board.

Postmaster Glassman, after attending the American Publishers' association at New York, went to Washington to visit for a week.

Clarence McCoy and wife returned home this week from a month's pleasure in California.

Tuesday evening the auxiliary to the Carmen's union gave a very pleasant card party and social at the Labor hall which was largely attended. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. A. E. Lansing delightfully entertained the Past Noble Grand club Thursday afternoon at her home on Twenty-seventh street. Cards and music were the pleasures of the afternoon. A dainty lunch was served.

Last Wednesday evening the members of the First ward choir very pleasantly surprised their president, Dr. J. F. Snedaker, at his home on Adams avenue. A pleasant feature of the occasion was a real hose shower, which delighted the astonished doctor. A bounteous repast and several musical numbers completed an evening of rare enjoyment. The party broke up about midnight, each member of the choir expressing the hope that Dr. Snedaker will remain its chief officer for a long time to come.

Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Blair, Satter, T. Pickett, Goddard, Schmidt, Holbrook, Dalton, Elmer Jones, Edward Jones; Mesdames Warner, Phelps, Parker, Pickett, Jones, O'Neill, and Bank of Salt Lake City; Messrs. Bain, Warner, Jackson, Jones, McGregor, Jarman, Jacobson, Misses Larsen, Brown, Florence Brown, Bernice Brown, McGregor, Fowler, Pingree, Johns, Blair.

The Nineteenth Century club celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of its organization Friday evening at the home of Mrs. J. W. Aird. The parlors were beautifully decorated. The club colors, green and gold, predominating in artistic effects. An interesting program of music, songs, readings and games were enjoyed by the members and a large number of guests. Refreshments were served.

The Five Hundred Social club will meet next Tuesday with Mrs. B. R. Thurman.

The Pallas club were entertained Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. W. W. Stacey.

The parlors were tastefully decorated with ferns and flowers, and a delightful evening, passed with music, song and games and the discussion of delicious refreshments.

The ball given Wednesday evening by the free library committee, was attended by a large number of people and was a very enjoyable event.

Senator and Mrs. Smoot and son are expected to arrive from Washington on Friday the 8th.

Miss Fannie Fries has arrived in this city from the east and will remain here for the season with Mrs. W. H. Dusenberry.

A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alma Stewart Thursday night, the occasion being the birthday anniversary of Mr. Stewart. A large number of guests enjoyed an evening of charming sociability. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Hugh Clayton was the guest of honor at a pleasant surprise party given at her home Thursday evening. A large number of guests enjoyed an evening of charming sociability. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. C. W. Bailey was the hostess at a family dinner at her home Thursday evening, in honor of her mother, Mrs. Ruth Bailey. Covers were laid for ten.

Mrs. Thomas Osborne of Salt Lake, spent a couple of days visiting relatives in Provo this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Greenman entertained a number of their friends at their home Monday evening. An evening of sociability and music were enjoyed by about 20 friends and relatives. An elaborate lunch was served.

Master Willie Dunn was surprised by a number of his young friends at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dunn, Wednesday evening. The hours passed merrily in games. Refreshments were served.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Vincent was invaded by a party of friends Wednesday evening, who made merry with songs, recitations and games. Lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McAdam entertained at a family dinner at their home Sunday, in honor of Mrs. Thomas Osborne of Salt Lake. Covers were laid for 12.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Karchner were given a pleasant surprise Tuesday evening by a number of relatives and friends who invaded their home and made merry with song and games till the early morning hours. Refreshments were served.

The Pocatello club met Thursday evening at the home of Miss Effie Bullock. After the usual program, refreshments were served.

LEHI.

Lehi, Utah, March 2.—Last evening in this city, the first ward hall was filled with members and non-members of the ward and the bishoprics of the other wards. The reunion partook of the nature of a social gathering, and the party, those present having brought their own picnic. A delightful program was rendered and the remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

This evening the Home Dramatic presents, "Captain Racket," in the opera house.

Bishop J. H. Gardner spent most of the week in Salt Lake with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ball are spending the week visiting Eureka relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Speer have returned to their home in Kirksville, Mo., after spending the summer here.

Mrs. Heber Austin has returned to her home at Idaho Falls.

Mrs. Alice Vaughn of Idaho Falls is visiting Lehi relatives.

The people of Ogden are to be given a grand musical treat next Friday

daughter, Aileen left this week for southern Utah, where he will spend a month.

Herbert C. Browne has gone to southern Utah, where he will spend a month.

Mrs. M. H. Kervin is up from Reno, Nev., for a stay of a few days with friends.

Judge and Mrs. Thomas Marioneaux expect to be in their new home on E street within a few days.

Mrs. Sheldon L. Butler and her little daughter, Margaret, expect to move tomorrow to join Mr. Butler in New York.

THE LARGER OUTSIDE CITIES

OGDEN.

Ogden, Utah, March 2.—The social function of the week was the party given Tuesday evening by Mrs. J. S. Lewis for the Campers' club at her home on Twenty-fourth street. "High five" was played throughout the evening, prizes were given, and instrumental music was a pleasing feature. A bounteous repast was served in the dining room. The home was tastefully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers and ferns.

Mrs. Abe Kuhn gave a pretty party Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Birdsell of Sacramento, who is visiting in Ogden, the guest of Mrs. F. J. Kiesel.

The Young Ladies' Sewing club spent a pleasant afternoon last Saturday at the house of Mrs. Bell.</