The report was adopted.

Chairman Wells, Secretary Hull and Sergeant-at-Arms Folland were made permanent officers.

E. A. Smith was elected first vice-president, and Wm. Fuller second vice-president.

C. L. Berry and D. S. Spencer were nominated for assistant secretary. Mr. Berry was elected by a vote of 62 to 43.

H. P. Richards and Robert Patrick were nominated for chaplain. Mr. Patrick withdrew, and David McKenzie was nominated. Mr. Richards was elected.

Chaplain Richards offered prayer. D. Harrington moved to adjourn. The motion was lost.

D. S. Spencer said:

I arise to place in nomination the name of the man who will be the next mayor of Salt Lake City. I wish to say to you that the name I propose to present is one that you all know. It is the name of a man who can be trusted in all respects, a man who was born here, reared here, and who, through his own energy, has established for himself a reputation and character that are beyond reproach from anyone, whether it be from our friends or our enemies. I wish you to think thoroughly of the name; and if you do that, I am thoroughly confident that he will be, without the existence of a doubt, the successful candidate of the party. That name, gentleman, is Spencer Clawson. [Prolonged applause.]

S. A. Kenner said:

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen—I rise to propose to you a name which I am sure will call forth equally as great enthusiasm as the one just uttered—perhaps greater. Indeed, I think, that if the united people of this city could be present to hear the name that will be presented, I am sure they would add their plaudits, but as the united people are not here, we will have to consider the question among ourselves. The name of the gentleman whom I propose to present is one that is familiar to everybody in this community, whether he has had occasion to participate in political affairs or not, for the simple reason that he has at all times and in all circumstances for the last ten years been prominently before the people, not only in an official capacity but in a personal capacity. He is a gentleman who is so well known that to mention his name is to mention that he is well known to everybody. He is known as an example to us for system in business by reason of his long term of service, by reason of the fact that for a great many years he has been the right hand man of the city government; one who, called to any position, has been the right individual; a gentleman who has been trusted, tried and true, a gentleman who has been where he has held the respect of men, even of those who do not think as he does. He has so deplored himself that he has never given unnecessary offense to the people of the city. He has at all times maintained their respect while he has had their confidence. A man who above all things represents that public and growing feeling which now above all other sentiments is for young Utah to be brought to the front. A man who is within himself the popular idea of
