DAVID O. CALDER,

EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

OUR SUBSCRIBERS in the country can at any time ascertain the date on which their subscription expires by referring to the numbers attached to their name on their paper, namely, 1-64 means first day, sixth month, fourth year, or 1st June, 1874, 15-12-4 means 15th December, 1874, &c.

Those names having no numbers close with the end of the volume.

Subscribers understanding this will be able to renew their subscriptions prior to the time of expiration, so that their papers may continue without interruption.

Local and Other Matters.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY, OCT. 21.

Another.—Last night the Grand Jury appeared in the District Court and reported one more indictment, making nineteen for that day.

Swallows Wanted.—Maria Swallow, Peoa, Summit Co., wishes to know the whereabouts of Thomas Swallow and family, who crossed the Atlantic in the S. S. Wyoming and arrived in Utah with the last Company of emigrants.

Sandwich Islands.—A letter to Brother George Nebeker from Elder Alma L. Smith, states that the latter arrived at Honolulu, Sept. 21st, after a pleasant voyage from San Francisco of 7 days and 18 hours. He was met on his arrival by several Utah Elders and native saints, and intended starting for the plantation the following day.

Every Saturday.—H. O. Houghton & Co., Boston, Mass., in a card, announce that Every Saturday, after this month, will be merged in Littell's Living Age, and the unexpired subscriptions to the former and its advertising contracts will be filled by the latter, which will complete the serials commenced and in course of publication in the former.

Woman's Exponent for Oct. 15, contains: "From Ocean to Ocean," "A Reformed Husband," "Address to the Richmond R. A.," "Extinction of Races," "Beware of Accusing Children," "Behavior of Females in Company," "Conference Items," "Seasonable Hints," "How to Become Accomplished," "Uniting Interests," "Home Affairs," "Hints" and "Notes" of various kinds, "Women Workers," "Religious Intolerance," "Lady Clerks in Washington," "A Model Farmer's Wife," etc.

That Telegraphist.—The champion telegraphical lie-dispenser and dirt-eater who sent over the wires, east and west, that Mr. Geo. Q. Cannon had left the Territory on hearing that an indictment had been found against him, and could not be found, has now a chance to get up another first-class unadulterated falsehood, by saying that that gentleman was captured while in precipitate flight. If that press agent were to tell the truth and say that Mr. Cannon surrendered himself to the custody of the marshal, people abroad would know, as well as people at home, that the former dispatch alluded to was an unadulterated falsehood.

Demise of a Kinsman of Joseph Smith.—By letter from a gentleman in Ruwe, Franklin County, Mass., President Geo. A. Smith has just been informed of the death of his kinsman, Dr. Humphrey Gould, which occurred on Thursday, Oct. 8th. Deceased had been, for about half a century, principal physician of the place at which the letter alluded to was dated. He was born at Topsfield, Mass., July 3rd, 1797. He was a man of enlarged views, never allowing his religious opinions to interfere with his personal friendship, being, we believe, a Unitarian. His father was second cousin to the Patriarch, Joseph Smith, Sen. He was much respected in Franklin County, Mass., and wherever he was known.

He leaves two daughters and quite a number of grandchildren.

Preserving Cider.—Now it is an old gentleman named William Bailey who comes forward and desires us to tell the public concerning what he knows about preserving cider sweet and pure for any desired length of time. He was engaged for some years in the manufacture of the article in the town of Elbridge, near Yarmouth, Norfolk, England. Here is his recipe:

Lay the apples aside until fairly ripe; make the cider; let it stand one day, and then barrel it. Put into each cask of 86 gallons one pint of wheat, one pound of lean raw beef and one pound of raisins. These ingredients have to be put in three times a year. At the end of each year the cider must be drawn off, the barrels rinsed and fumigated by burning in them a paper torch dipped in brimstone. The cider can then be returned to the barrels, and in this way Brother Bailey claims it can be kept as long as necessary.

The British Mission.—The following is from the Millennial Star of September 20—

"OCTOBER 14th COMPANY.—We take great pleasure in informing the Saints who are desirous of emigrating by the October 14th company, that arrangements have been made with Messrs. Guich & Co., to carry that company to New York at the same rates as that of Sept. 3rd, viz., £3 0 0 for each adult; the through fare to Ogden will therefore be £12 16 0, as heretofore.

"ARRIVED.—Brother J. H. and Sister Marks, accompanied by Sister Pearce of the 14th Ward, Salt Lake City, arrived at Liverpool on the 22nd inst., per the S. S. Baltic, in good health, on a visit to their children and friends.

"RELEASES.—Elder Volney King is released from laboring in the Leeds Conference, to return home with the October 14th company, on account of ill-health.

"Elder A. B. Taylor is released from laboring in the Bedfordshire Conference, to return home.

"Elder James Bywater is released from the Presidency of the Leeds Conference, to return home in consequence of failing health."

Explanatory.—Yesterday we referred to a charge brought into the Police Court by Mrs. Davis against Mrs. Peterson, for taking a pocket book and five dollars. The matter was compromised and did not come to a trial, the charge being withdrawn. We are informed by Mrs. Peterson that had the charge been investigated she was prepared to prove without difficulty that, at the time Mrs. Davis said she left her pocket book in her store, she, Mrs. Peterson, was absent; that, according to Mrs. Davis' own admission, there was a man in the store at the time who she believed took it; and that lately some girls who were employed by Mrs. Peterson at the time had instigated the prosecution, out of spite, by saying that Mrs. Peterson took the pocket-book, their reason for saying so being that Mrs. Peterson had taken from those girls some furniture she had loaned them out of kindness, they not wishing to return it.

We publish the foregoing in justice to Mrs. Peterson, whose statement we have no reason to doubt. The paragraph which drew forth this explanation was merely inserted as a portion of the police court proceedings.

Fair and Races.—The fair and races at the D. A. & M. Society grounds are a complete success. All the stock specimens on exhibition are of the very finest quality, although their number is not quite so large as might be desirable. Whole families of pure blooded stock are exhibited. A brood mare belonging to Mr. W. C. Rydall was particularly noticeable. She had by her side four of her colts, from a suckling to a three year old, all by well known sires, and all of them splendid animals. Mr. Sharp Walker had a magnificent Hamiltonian stud on the grounds, for which he would not take $2,000; also a beautiful colt from a blooded mare, sired by the celebrated horse Elmo, which was sold last year for $16,000. The colt is a perfect picture, and admired by all judges of horse-flesh who have seen it.

FIRST RACE:

Running race, 1 mile and repeat—Midnight Belle, Red Bird and Alice Ward; won by Midnight Belle, 544.

SECOND:

Trotting race, 2 and 1/3 to harness—Parepa Rosa, and Carter's Mollie; won by Parepa Rosa, in two straight heats, 2-56 and 2-551.

THIRD:

Time race, Quaker Lad, Dollie Varden, Mark McKimmon's Stallion, and Joaquin—Quaker Lad, 1st; Dollie Varden, 2nd.

Conference at Williamsburg.—A conference was held at American Hall, Grand Street, Williamsburg, N. Y., on Sunday, Oct. 4, H. G. Bywater presiding, J. T. Flashman Secretary. Meetings morning, afternoon, and evening.

Present on the stand, at one or more of the meetings, Elders H. G. Bywater, T. Pullan, J. T. Flashman, John W. Young, William C. Staines, L. W. Richards, and Spencer Clawson.

The Conference was addressed by Elders Bywater, Young, Staines, Richards, Pullan, and Flashman.

Favorable reports were made of the Williamsburg, Hyde Park (Pres. E. Howell), Brookfield (Pres. C. Grindle), Fishbeck (Pres. W. Stanforth) and Paterson (Pres. C. Cook) branches.

Elder W. Stanforth was released from the presidency of the Fishbeck branch, and Elder D. Edwards was voted to succeed him.

The general authorities of the Church and those of the New York Conference were unanimously sustained, H. G. Bywater being president of the conference and of the Williamsburg Branch, with Thos. Pullan and James T. Flashman as his counselors.—Millennial Star, please copy.

A Pleasant Visit.—To-day we were called upon by Mr. David Chadwick, M. P. of England, and son, with whom we had a very pleasant interview. Mr. Chadwick is one of those sharp-sighted Englishmen whose eyes are open, being a keen observer, and who in their travels add greatly to their fund of information about men and things. This is his third visit to America, and he is becoming familiar with her institutions and condition social and political.

The two strangers were accompanied in their visit to us by Mr. Sewell, of this City.

THE CRUSADE.

Congressman Cannon under Bonds.

Hon. Geo. Q. Cannon, Delegate in Congress, learning this morning that the grand jury, now in session, had presented an indictment against him, for "lewd and lascivious cohabitation," under the territorial statute, immediately, with his counsel, Messrs. Sutherland and Bates, sought the U. S. Marshal, into whose custody he surrendered himself. He went forthwith to the District Court, where the bail was fixed by the U. S. District Attorney and defendant's counsel at $5,000, for which President Geo. A. Smith and Hon. William H. Hooper became sureties.

We are of opinion that Judge McKean, nor the U. S. Marshal, nor anybody else need have any fears that any "Mormons" will run away from prosecutions for such offences. Three years ago the people were persecuted and harassed by many such indictments, but the Supreme Court brushed them out of existence with one breath of judicial justice; and there is a general confidence that the present crusading prosecutions will meet a similar fate. The idea that a man can be indicted for lewd and lascivious cohabitation with his own wife or wives is self-evidently absurd. Lawyers and laymen throughout the whole country well understood why such prosecutions were entered upon, and President Grant will in all probability ask why such things are done.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY, OCT. 22.

Under Bonds.—An indictment having been found against Mr. N. V. Jones, on a charge of assault with intent to do bodily injury, that gentleman appeared in Court yesterday and gave bonds for his appearance for trial in the District Court, in the sum of $500.

Pottery.—The rush on home-made pottery-ware has been so great this season that Croxall & Co. were taken by storm and surprise and closed out. They are getting out a new grist of articles this week, having fired up the pottery again.

No Jurisdiction.—We understand that the grand jury, in the cattle-stealing case of Fred Stockfelt, decided that they had no jurisdiction in it, the act having been committed in Malad Valley, Idaho Territory. Stockfelt was only arrested a few days since, and committed to the grand jury.

While Judge Wilson was Chief Justice of the Territory, he decided that the Utah courts had jurisdiction in such cases, his view of the law on the matter being that when a person stole cattle in one Territory and drove them into another it was a "continued larceny."

Should be Cared For.—Henry Spencer, the demented young fellow who was made to believe a few days since that he had been made a deputy marshal, and to whom a paper, purporting to be a warrant for the arrest of a gentleman of this City, was given by some parties as silly as himself, is still at large, and should be looked after. On Tuesday he went to the house of Mr. Charles Smith, on the bench north of East Temple Street, and insisted on there leaving a large brass key, which he said was the key of the City prison, he appearing to have an idea in connection with his supposed marshalship, that he had something to do with prisoners. He was sent away at that time, but yesterday morning before daylight, about half-past four o'clock, he was at the door, wanting admittance, evidently mistaking Mr. Smith for Colonel Smith, who guards the City prisoners. He called at the same place twice again during yesterday, and he was at the door at half-past six o'clock this morning.

Yesterday he was at the race track, at Agricultural Park, and had to be taken upon the stand to prevent his being run over. It is time that this demented creature was cared for.

More Leakage.—There are a few questions of a pertinent character that it may not be amiss to ask just about this time, especially as Judge McKean lately delivered a special lecture to the grand jury about leakages connected with the proceedings of that body. We have already supplied the Judge with a few clues relative to the making public of what are understood to be secret jury matters, but for some reason or other, he does not, by his actions, betray his expressed anxiety to follow them up. Like some other things, such as the instructions to indict the Herald, it may depend entirely on who the parties concerned are. There is not a scintillation of a disposition apparent on the part of the Judge to follow up the class alluded to, nevertheless we may be permitted to ask—

First. What right has the U. S. Marshal and his deputies to brow-beat and intimidate a witness who has been before the grand jury, for not giving the kind of evidence desired by the crusading, persecuting "ring"?

Second. How is it that the Marshal or his deputies, or other such parties, become familiar with the secret (?) proceedings before the grand jury?

That last question involves a capital clue for his honor.

Third. Is this questioning, brow-beating and intimidating of witnesses to be allowed to continue without that special judicial cognizance which the Court bestows so liberally on matters of minor importance, the only difference being that they are not on the Judge's side of the fence?

A gentleman who happened to be in the Federal Court Room last evening, when the Court was not in session, was present at the before alluded to brow-beating, intimidating and cross-questioning of witnesses by the marshal took place.

Before leaving this matter, we may say that efforts have been made to get up some of the most damnable conspiracies against leading citizens of this Territory, that for unmitigated and contemptible villainy can scarcely be surpassed in the annals of history, and the more they are investigated the more will an impartial grand jury discover the nefarious character of the plotters and the innocence of those they desire to make the victims of their rascality.

Stock Fair and Races.—The stock fair and races, under the auspices of the D. A. & M. Society, which terminated yesterday, were very successful. The premiums were awarded to the exhibitors and the stock was taken off the grounds yesterday about one o'clock.

The races went off well. The first was a mile dash. The contestants were "Don Victor," "Midnight Belle," and "Red Bird," won by "Don Victor," time 1:58.

SECOND RACE.

Three in five, mile heats, to harness. "Quaker Lad," "Molly," "Lady Hamilton," "Gen. Lasher," won by "Molly" (Patrick's); time 2:43 and 2:44.

For the ladies' equestrian match Miss Edith Clawson, Mrs. Joseph A. Young, Mrs. R. W. Wilson, and Mrs. B. H. Young entered. The first prize, a silver card basket, presented by Joslin & Park, was awarded to Mrs. Wilson; the second, a pair of silver vases, presented by the judges, was won by Miss Edith Clawson; the third, a lady's writing desk, presented by Mr. James Dwyer, was awarded to Mrs. Joseph A. Young; and the fourth, a picture, presented by Mr. C. R. Savage, was awarded to Mrs. B. H. Young.

"Red Bird," "Granger," "Gored Heels," "Slocum" and "Snail" were entered for a half mile dash, which was won by the first named animal.

Excommunicated.

MORTALITY PREVENTED.—It would be a moderate estimate to place the number of cases in which Consumption is prevented by the timely use of HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR, at ten thousand per annum. No cough, cold, bronchial affection, sore throat, or other ailment of the organs of respiration, can ever degenerate into a mortal disease, if this palatable and absolutely infallible specific be taken in time and long enough persevered in.
