ENCAMPMENT PROMISES TO BE WELL ATTENDED

Col. F. M. Sterrett Believes Visitors Will be Numbered Far Above the Average.

From indications already developing, he attendance at the sessions of the Grand Army encampment to be held in this city next August promises to be in excess of the average at such encampments. Col. F. M. Sterrett, ex-ecutive director, is receiving every day letters of congratulation from different departments throughout the country, on the excellent preliminary showing nade by the executive board, and as made by the executive board, and assurances that the attendance from the various commanderies will be large.

This morning Col. Sterrett received a communication from the department a communication from the department of Connecticut, William E. Morgan, commander, stating that the depart-ment expects to be present at the en-campment in force, every member hav-ing pledged himself to attend, if alive. The letter continues:

THREE WEDDINGS.

Trio of Daughters of John Carr Marry Within Twenty-four Hours.

Three weddings in the same household within 24 hours is the record which will be established at the residence of John and Lavinia Carr, 226 Fern street this evening. Last night Bishop Wil-jiam Wood married Edith Carr and George Howells of this city and this evening he will again officiate at the wedding of Blanch Carr and W. J. Clark, and Mabel Carr and Edward George also of Salt Lake.

CONTRACTORS RUSH WORK.

Old Descret News Building is Fast Disappearing.

Contractor Showell, who has the conract for tearing down the old Deseret making a record in the demolishing of the old landmark. The roof is off the Tithing office, and it will be only a few more days before all the buildings will be razed to the ground.

Raleigh & Harmon, contractors, are also going to make a record in excavating work. They have agreed to have the work done by July 15.

A fire was started on the north end of the building this morning to burn up waste papers, in the shape of receipts and other papers, some of them half a century old. There is no room for the storage of such papers in the new quarters of the bishoric, and the files of other days, having served their purpose, were taken out and burned. Some of the papers were valuable from a historical point of view, and some of the books contained records dating back to 1855 or earlier. These were taken out and placed among the records of the bishop's office, but a large mass of papers went up in smoke.

UNIVERSITY CLUB ADDS MORE PROPERTY

Annexes Lot to the East of Its Present Place on Brigham

The University club made its anticipated deal yesterday afternoon, whereby it bought from Harriet H. Young, the 4212x165 ft, immediately east of the club building on east South Temple street, for $12,750, and the transfer was recorded. The reason for the purchase is that the lot is close up against the west side of the club house, and as the lot was for sale, it might be bought by some one who would put up an apartment house there, reaching out to the sidewalk. This would not only shut out light from the west side of the house, but materially injure it by shut-ting out entirely the west view from the club house front. So action was cure now from obstruction on either side, as it owns enough land on the east side to make sure of light and not to grant the demands of the union, though they are willing to pay the wages demanded to men who are worthy of it. The employers are also set against the double time proposition on Sunday, which raises the pay to practically $1 per hour. One employer said this morning that it is impossible to pay this demand and make anything off the jobs that often come in and are required in a hurry, necessitating work on Sunday.

The number of men out is said to be between 50 and 60, affecting all the firms in the city. Appearances are that the strike will last some time.

354, of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, to the number of about 60, struck yesterday for higher wages, and a different arrangement with the masters regarding shop rules and holidays. Heretofore 33.25 has been the rate of wage pald for eight hours work, though some of the employers have paid good men as high as $3.50 are deed tricking electricians now have paid good men as high as also per day. The striking electricians now desire that the standard wage of $3.75 be paid. They also want the employ-ers to employ none but union men on all jobs where skilled labor is required.

WILL STUDY FORESTRY.

Five Agricultural college students arrived from Logan this morning, and later went out to the Wasatch planting station of the forest service as "temporary assistants" there. They were Elon H. Jessup, W. V. Crockett, E. Goodwin, S. M. Miner, and H. J. Manghan. There are 23 forest men at that station now. As the snow is all gore at that point, regular operations are in order. But there is a great deal of snow further back on the mountains reaching as high as the telephone wires in places.

Some Sensational Evidence Forthcoming in Divorce Suit of William F. Farrar Before Judge Morse.

Joseph F. Hutsler, a witness in the livorce sult of William F. Farrar against Phoebe Farrar, declared in ludge Morse's court this morning when he was called as a witness in the trial of the case that he had been offered a bribe to offer certain testimony defaming the character of Mrs. Farrar. He also testified that certain statements which he had made to Farrar's attorney vere untrue. The bribe, he testified was offered him by a man whom he understood was a friend of Farrar and that he was to receive enough money to set him up in the saloon business.

The case has been before the court n two occasions. Farrar obtained a decree by default several months ago, but Mrs. Farrar claimed that it was the fault of her attorneys. The case was reopened, and she is now contesting it, and has filed a counter claim charg-ing her husband with cruelty. In Farrar's complaint he charged her with a statutory offense and named two co-respondents

MARK JONES SET FREE.

Mark Jones, an old, gray headed and ray whiskered man, who has a farm south of the city, was brought up be-fore Judge Bowman this morning on a charge of exhibiting a deadly weapon. Carl Ernst, a neighbor, swore out the complaint, in which he charged that Jones drew the weapon in a dispute over water rights. After hearing the estimony of several witnesses, in which it developed that the difficulty came about through difference of opinion as to the water rights possessed by the respective parties, the case was
