Great Day on the Other Side of the Atlantic LONDON, June 20 .- The exercises attending the celebration of the jubilee continued to-day in all the business centers of the country. The corporations by thus forestalling the London order of exercises enabled the officials to be present at the services at Westminster Abbey. The programmes everywhere were similar—thanksgiving service, local receptions, festivals for children. A private rehearsal was held at Westminster Abbey to-day in the presence of the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Dean of Westminster and a number of court officials. The Earl of Lathorm, the lord chamberlain, her majesty's household and other state officers assisted in the ceremonies.
