Deseret Evening News, November 22, 1895.

FRAGMENTS.

This has not been a year of any major events in the Third district county.

Urgent efforts, March 15, brought off the opening of Cache Valley with the intention of having a day's shooting. He will probably return sometime in November.

A committee was soon assembled at the meeting of the City Council, and measures were taken to provide for the protection of many summit roads.

The hearing of the $100,000 damage suit brought by Mrs. Penelope A. Ellsworth against the San Joaquin Lumber Company, now in its second trial, has been dismissed by Commissioner Pease's court.

The meeting of the City Council was held in the municipal building, after which many meetings were held.

The hearing of the $100,000 damage suit brought by Mrs. Penelope A. Ellsworth against the San Joaquin Lumber Company, now in its second trial, has been dismissed by Commissioner Pease's court.

The officers meeting of the Salt Lake Primary Association will meet on Friday next, December 1, at the Hotel Utah, 411 and South Temple street. A full attendance is expected.

A Serious Accident.

Officer Howell, the big colored policeman, and Mohamed Petersen were the victims in a street car accident last night about seven o'clock in which a horse was killed and in which they were severely injured. Col. N. C. of the city railway company was returning west on Third South street at the time of the accident. On the front platform near the entrance stood Officer Howell. Between Howell and the car was a horse which had been attached to a car which directly came rear, breaking his neck and causing him to fall to the ground. The car which had been attached to it was a spectator—with the aid of the policeman, who reversed the current and applied the brakes. Both Howell and Howell were severely shaken up, the other receiving several cuts and bruises. The doctor said he did not know what was necessitating the services of a surgeon to see up the wounds.

Students' Society.

Last evening at the student's society of the Latter-day Saints' college the visitors gave a rare treat in a well-presented program. The lecture by Carl A. Berger was on "The History of the Founding of the Constitution," and next came a sweet solo by Mrs. Dewart. Last, "Our Home a Home" followed. William Dinsmore, leading in his usually humorous manner, Charles Lewis, "On the Origin of the Rose Pig," and upon being encouraged by Mrs. Twain's "Noodling"—the Rev. Dr. Edmunds' song was rendered in such a masterly manner that its response to repeated calls from the audience showed the second time in just as pleasing a way as the first. Dr. W. H. Dinsmore, Dr. G. E. Miller, Dr. Stansbury, Dr. J. W. Dinsmore, Dr. L. L. Dinsmore, Dr. W. H. Dinsmore, Dr. C. L. Lewis, Dr. G. E. Westland et al., judgment for the plaintiff for $2,500.

Frank Hartigan called attention to the matter of the investment, in view of the small amount related from the West, and the great amount invested in stocks and bonds in the East and West. The city, situated in section 11 and 12, recently I could raise $100,000 for the construction of the new telephone. The entire amount is to be used for the construction of the new school and after it is paid off all the income goes to the ground. Committee on public grounds.

Frank Hartigan called attention to the matter of the investment, in view of the small amount related from the West, and the great amount invested in stocks and bonds in the East and West.

Mr. Westland vs. G. E. Westland et al., motion to substitute administrators of G. E. Westland's estate allowed. Mr. Westland vs. His Grandmother, Western Railway Company, Louisville, Kentucky, Louisville vs. stockholders.

National Bank of the Republic vs. Wm. Greenstreet et al., Order granted permitting the plaintiff to bring suit.

The legal arguments in the case of Joseph Calvert et al. vs. the Interstate Mercantile company were resumed and occupied greater part of the morning.
