FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Jameschek will only play one night, at the Opera House. De-... of her best roles.

The regular monthly Priesthood meeting of the 21st Ward, will take place this evening, at 8 o'clock.

The August services over the late pastor's casket, took place last evening, in the 21st Ward Meeting-house.

The last August Wilkes's class in the Spanish language now numbers twenty students. There is room for more.

The theatre has been crowded during the last three nights, notwithstanding the presence in town of the circus.

During last night John Robinson's show, company "brought their goods into the arena and slowly stole away," to Ogden.

A report named David B. Ruch, alias "Black" Ruch, was arrested last night on a charge of abducting a woman in a legitimate house. The case was to be tried this afternoon.

This afternoon we received a fraternal call from Bela Cogan, M.D., associate editor of the Pittsburgh Courier, published at Pitts., Mich. He was accompanied by his wife.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

"People Who Live in Glass Houses"—J. Bailey Brown will deliver a lecture next Monday evening, commencing at 7:30 o'clock, in the 15th Ward Assembly Rooms.

"People Who Live in Glass Houses"—A musical charge of five cents admission will be made.

New Camp Stool.—This morning George Bond showed us a new camp stool of his own invention. It resembles an ordinary article of that kind, excepting that the center piece is removable which, conjoined with a set of hinges of the upper side pieces, permits the whole to fold up laterally, as well as lengthwise, thus occupying the space of a small umbrella. The chief point of advantage is the greater ease and convenience with which it can be carried around.

Road Repairs.—Supervisor Taylor is engaged in placing the extensive and of South Temple street in a suitable condition, "close up" to the Military Reservation line. It is no easy task, as the road is badly rutted up and followed by numerous trucks and automobiles, and pedestrians going that way were compelled to use the sidewalks. The corner of which has lately fenced it in, shutting off travel that way. The task now being undertaken were then rendered absolutely necessary.

Sunday Liquor Selling.—Last evening the following liquor firms were arrested on charges of breaking the ordinance against selling on Sunday: Peter Tomney, May & Thimble and John A. Williams. This morning the second named firm called around at the Police Court, pleaded guilty, was assessed a fine of $50 and costs and departed. Later on Mr. Tomney took a similar step and was fined $50 and costs for an offense committed on the 16th inst., and $50 and costs for another last Sunday.

"The Romance"—To night Wal-lack's New York Company will make their last appearance at the Salt Lake theatre in that most beautiful and intensely pathetic drama "The Romance of a Poor Young Man." The gorgeous scene from the brush of Mr. Henry C. Brown, the most elaborate he has yet created, will be shown for the first time. It will make a perfect picture, representing the scene in our life. The performance to night will be remarkably new. In fact the knowledge of the company is such as to guarantee an entertainment of a first-class order.

The August Number.—The August number of the Contributor is out. The following is its table of contents:

Editorial: Grant V.; Straight and Crooked; Bismarck; Canterbury Cathedral; Betmans; our Writings of the Prophets. XI. Epistle from Liberty Jail—II; The Home of Childhood; Amity; Hammer Day; What is a Name? H. W. Raleigh; The Calling of Moses; J. J. B. Mental Development; John H. Nelson; Hyde Park and Apple House; Hannah T. King; What is Education, O. F. Whittier; If we would only see; H. W. Raleigh; The Political Situation; F. C. R. John Lyon; Gulls and Crickets; Strike; Answers to Questions.

Willful Destruction.—This morning, F. A. Gull was on trial before Justice Epley, on a charge of willful destruction of property. His offense consisted of knocking holes in a couple of chairs containing his garage of roof paint, and destroying over two-thirds of the quantity. It appears that the staff belonged to the accused and his partner, J. W. Lingle, at whose instance the proceedings were brought. In view of this plot the defendant pleaded that he simply destroyed his own property, but the court held that he also destroyed the portion belonging to Lingle, and the case was proceeded with, and would probably be finished this afternoon.

Shooting at Park City.—From some passengers arriving from Park City last evening we got the following details of a shooting affray that occurred the night before last: Richard Squires and a man named Stanley quarreled over a game of cards the previous evening. Stanley struck Squires over the head with his revolver, but the men were separated, and that was the end of the trouble that night. On the following night the men came together. Stanley immediately drew his revolver and made an effort to strike Squires again with it, but the gun was knocked from his hand and he was on the ground. They both climbed, and each, man tried to get possession of the weapon. Squires succeeded. He then shot Stanley in the groin, the ball, it is supposed, passed around the bone and in an upward direction.—Ogden Pilot.

Midland Insurance Matter.

A few days ago we published an extract from an insurance journal, which cast a shade upon the reputation, in insurance matters, of A. T. Wood, President of the Midland Insurance Company of this city. As we stated at the time, our object was not to do that gentleman any personal damage, but to put people on their guard against the possibilities of being defrauded. He subsequently inserted a communication from Mr. Wood, in which he referred to accompanying certificates relating to his business handling in Detroit. We did not insert these papers on account of limited space, considering that a brief statement of their nature, and that we had seen them would be sufficient. Mr. Wood thinks otherwise, and, at his earnest request, we give them here, leaving the public to decide the truth of whatever "favorable" statements they are entitled to in relation to the issue in question.

DETROIT, Mich., Aug. 9, 1933.

To whom it may concern:

The bearer, Mr. Wood, I have been acquainted with for more than 25 years, and have had more business transactions with him during that period, and am glad to say I have the utmost confidence in his integrity and business ability. I believe in whatever statement he may be called upon to fill, he will do it with honor to himself and I believe profit to his employer.

Very truly,
JAMES E. VANDERKAM,
Member of City Council.

DETROIT, Aug. 9th, 1933.

This is to certify that we have been acquainted with Mr. A. T. Wood a little over two years. During this time we have had more of his business relations, and do cheerfully say that the same have been of the most pleasant nature, having in every instance found Mr. Wood to be prompt and punctual in the discharge of his duties. As an assurance that we think that he has as few equals, and wish him every success in his new field of operation.

Very truly,
L. H. TUCKER & SONS,
Commission Merchants,
GEORGE C. LANGDON,
J. E. BROWN,
W. B. BOOTS & SONS,
T. B. RAY & CO.,
Haides.

A Case of Brutal Cruelty.—Last night P. T. Jones, of Big Cottonwood, was riding home from this city on horseback. When passing down the new drive on the west side of Liberty Park, the animal did not depart itself to suit him, so he drew a pistol and shot the horse in the shoulder, so shattering the bone as to make it necessary to kill it. A number of people congregated near the spot and were threatened by Jones, who was drunk. The police were notified, and arrested and placed him in jail. In the meantime, the horse was removed from the road to an adjacent field, where it remained until this morning in a terrible condition of suffering. This morning Jones was taken to the spot in charge of an officer, and was furnished with a gun, with which he put an end to the animal's agony by killing it. Jones says the horse belonged to his wife and was valued at $200. He deserves to be severely punished for his savage brutality and cruelty to a dumb animal.

A Belligerent Watch Borrower.—This morning O. Fritz was in the Police Court charged with purloining G. A. Hall's watch and containing an assault and battery on his person. The evidence showed that Fritz borrowed the watch, and when requested by the owner to return it over to him he responded by giving him a blow on the mouth with the back of his hand, saying at the same time, "I'll give you the watch to-morrow." Recalling the saying, "To-morrow never comes," Hall entered the charge of stealing against his belligerent friend. However, on Fritz agreeing to return the article and pay costs of proceedings, the prosecuting attorney moved for his discharge on the stealing part of the affair, the Court deciding in favor of the motion. Fritz was fined $750 and costs on the assault and battery charge.

Theatrical—"The Silver Ring" attracted another immense audience at the Theatre last night, and was duly appreciated. It is rare that so large a company with so much talent is brought to this city. Every actor has great ability and the leading parts are presented with consummate skill and fidelity to nature that entitle the performers to more than common credit.

To-night "The Romance of a Poor Young Man" will be placed on the boards, with some new scenery by Tryon. It is an excellent play, and in such hands as the admirable company, it cannot fail to please. Those who have seen it performed by the Home Dramatic Club will want to see what the Wallace's company can make out of it, and those who have never seen it should not miss the present opportunity. To-night closes the engagement.

Miscellaneous News from Manchester.—We have received a letter from Elder John R. Holt, now laboring as a missionary in Manchester (England) Conference, to Brother George F. Brooks, of this city. It is dated July 12th, and we learn from it that during his eight month's stay in the Conference, which is presided over by Elder H. W. Manning, fifty new members have been added to the Church by baptism and about twenty who formerly were identified with it but had fallen back, have returned to the fold.

Mrs. Holt is also in Manchester among her relatives, to whom she bears a faithful testimony to the truth of the Gospel. Her experience where she travels excites a great deal of curiosity, as it is a novelty to see a woman from Utah.

In Trouble.—John H. Freeman is in trouble again. Mr. Thomas Jenkins having entered complaint against him, charging him with obtaining a horse from him under false and fraudulent pretenses, he has been arrested. He gave security for his appearance for examination, before Justice Raleigh, at ten o'clock on Monday morning, until which time he was released.

Card of Thanks.—To my musical friends who labored so faithfully and whose energy and good services added so much to making my portion of our late concert a success I return my sincere thanks. While it is impossible to name all I feel especially indebted to Mr. A. Pederson, who so kindly and ably prepared the Scandinavian portion; also Miss Bruce and Olsen who, without a day's notice, came forward and substituted members for those unavoidably failing to appear.

EVAN STEPHENS.

Celebration Proceedings.—We have received reports of celebration proceedings on Pioneer Day at the following places. The reports are mostly elaborate and the crowded condition of our columns prevents their being published in full. They are from Moroni, Sanpete Co.; Nephi, Juab Co.; American Fork, Utah County; and Mant, San Pete County.

The Robbery Wave.—On Wednesday night Mr. Pauchner, just down from Pocatello, was knocked down and robbed in Ogden by a casual acquaintance. The amount he lost by the transaction was thirty dollars. Several other thieving incidents are noted by the Ogden Herald, the Junction City being infested by a bad crowd of thieves just now.

Burglary.—Yesterday afternoon the room of E. J. Yard, in the C. M. Douglas house, 15th Ward, was entered by a thief, who carried off a quantity of goods. Among the articles stolen was a watch, which had the owners name on the side, gold sleeve buttons, with initials engraved on them, black pants and vest, and a quantity of linen underwear. No trace of the thief.

The Callender Minstrels.—This famous troupe will visit us three nights next week, and also give a matinee. The "Callenders" are a body all of the talent available in the country. The Frohman Bros., who are favorably known as the representatives of the Madison Square Theatre attractions, are the sole proprietors of the "Callenders," which is sufficient guarantee of the merits of the company. In this grand and new movement in minstrelsy, whose magnitude has taken the form of a "festival" are consolidated the very best comedians and vocalists of repute. The popular "Heavenly Minstrels," the "European Colored," who have lately appeared before all the crowned heads of Europe, and the famous "Hysers Sisters," that are favorably known in Salt Lake, form a part of the combination.

The excellent band of the "Callenders" has become famous for its participation in many of the inaugurations and national festivals at Washington. During the past week we saw by our exchanges they had the distinguished honor of making the formal opening of the "Denver Exposition," and were highly complimented for their splendid playing and handsome uniforms. Mr. Blanchett, who represents this company and who visited us last spring with the beautiful "Emerald," and the affecting "Young Mrs. Winthrop," assures us that a rich treat is in store for the public, and as he remarks, "a perfect transformation in minstrelsy." A grand street parade will be made on the morning of the arrival of the company, Thursday, August 24.
