PAIN FROM A BURN PROMPTLY RELIEVED BY CHAMBERLAIN'S

PAIN BALM.

Mr. James N. Nichols, a merchant and postmaster at Vernon, Conn. makes the following statement: "A little child of Michael Strauss was recently in great pain from a burn on the hand, and as cold applications only increased the inflammation, Mr. Strauss came to me for something to stop the little one's pain. From the many liniments I carry in stock. I savised him to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and the first application drew out the inflammation and gave immediate relief. I have used this liniment myself and recommend it very often for cuts, burns, strains and lame back, and have never known it to disappoint." For sale by all druggists.

Edwards here stated that he proposed to show that Clark received but a small part that Clark received but a small par-of the money, the bulk of which was divided up among interested parties by the witness. WHERE ARE FAKIRS GOING.

Believed They Are Preparing to Leave For Pastures New in Search Of More Dupes.

When aged Mary Brandon declared to the man who struck her a vicious blow in the face, "You shall pay dearly for this," she perhaps little realized how verily her words would come true. And her assailant, George J. Arnold, professional "spirit medium," and pretended Christian, but who has shown all the instincts of a fakir, now realizes the mistake he made when he added vicious brutality to deception and robbery, under the cloak of religion. Arnold has already begun to pay dearly for his despicable conduct, and the end of his trouble has not yet come. He has been convicted of the offense of assault and battery, and is under sen-tence of 90 days' imprisonment at hard The case has been appealed to the district court, and in the mantime the defendant is at large on a $300

Immediately following the sentence, Arnold and his partner in deception, Dickson, sold their real estate and other belongings, with a view, it is thought, of leaving Salt Lake, where their fraud has been exposed and where they can no longer expect to work a ducrative scheme as they have for some four years past. At 369 east Third South street, the Arnoid-Dickson "Brothers," as the pair styled themselves, purchased ground and erected an elegant building, which they used as a residence and as a hall for the carriers of the street of the rying on of spiritualistic work. house was furnished in splendor, the furniture costing, it is said, at least $5,000. The building and grounds at a fair valuation were worth twice that amount. But so anxious have the pro-prietors become to sell out, since the exposure of last Saturday, that they sold house, grounds and belongings for the sum of $9,000. Dr. S. N. A. Down-ing and his son Earl E. A. Downing were the purchasers. The transfer was made yesterday, the "mediums" using every endeavor to keep the transaction every endeavor to keep the transaction secret, but the facts leaked out during the day. Arnold and Dickson protest against the intimation that they are intending to leave, but their movements look suspicious and parties interested in keeping them here will doubtless be on the alert and forestall any attempt that the pair may make to seek other

"OLD BEDSTEAD" IN OGDEN.

Authors to Take Big Show Intact to Junction City Monday.

With the hearty good will of the board of managers of the Press club, the authors of the "Old Bedstead," the screaming burlesque which packed the Salt Lake theater, will present that rural problem play at the Ogden Opera House on Monday. Sept. 24. While the presentation will not be under the auspices of the Press club, the cast. scenery and properties will be the same as in the original production at the Salt Lake theater on the hitsoric night. Sept. 6. This will be positively the last performance of that weird play. Whitney and Young, the young authors have made arrangements with the Rio Grande Western for a special excursion to Ogden and return for the occasion. The train will leave Salt Lake at 6 p. m. and return after the per-formance in time to catch the last car home. A round trip rate of $1 has been fixed for the excursion. Scores of people who could not gain admittance to the Salt Lake theater are now inquiring after reservations for the occasion, and it is safe to say that a large contingent from Salt Lake will be on hand when the curtain goes up at the Grand Opera House.

Whitney and Young have returned from Ogden where they found that patrons of the drama were anxious to see the famous play upon which so many columns have been written in the Salt Lake press. They have localized the show and seasoned it with Ogden tabaseo, and a generous sprinkling of Ogden local hits, so that the produc-tion will be more enjoyable to an Og-

Grape-Nuts Accomplished What Ocean and Travel and Medicine Could Not

It's not what you eat, but what you digest that gives strength.

Many a man drags around year after year half dead, because his food is not digested and he takes first one kind of medicine and then another without relief—because medicines cannot take the place of well digested food, and never will. Give nature a fair chance, as a prominent German-American of Chicago did, and if you're in a bad fix from stomach trouble, read what he says and try it on.

"About a year ago," he writes, "I was afflicted with stomach trouble which so enfeebled me I had to quit work. I grew so lean I was merely skin and bones

"I had the advice of six different doc-"I had the advice of six officerent doctors and two college professors. One thought I had cancer of the stomach, another advised a change of climate, and recommended ocean travel. I decided to follow this last and went abroad for three months.

"But my health became worse and worse. The least amount of food caused me awful pain, and I obtained relief only by having my stomach pumped "Nothing did me any good. Soon I could take no food at all except strained oat meal; then a time came when I could not even take that. I Miss Theresa McEnery is here from London and will be the guest of Dr. and Mrs. McEnery during the winter, in San Francisco.

Mrs. Alexander Dowd of Sunnyside is the guest of Mrs. George T. Badger, Miss Nora Van Cott leaves shortly to enter school in the cast.

Gen. and Mrs. J. M. Thompson will entertain tonight at dinner at the country club.

Mrs. J. F. Grant and Mrs. G. A. Show have returned from California where they have been spending some time.

Stanled oat linear, then the take that. I lost courage and prepared myself to die. At that time my wife brought me a package of Grape-Nuts, but I had no confidence in anything any longer.

"She finally persuaded me to taste a few snoonfuls of the new food and to my surprise I retained it and had no distress. That made me feel fine and encouraged to make another trial for life. For several menths I are nothing else—every day a bowl of Grape-Nuts with cream, and thus I regained my health, my old time weight and am now as well as ever. I could not live with-out Grape-Nuts." Rydberg of the Ger-man Lutheran church was the teast-master, and these toasts were responded to: "How to Grow Old Gracefully," Rev. J. C. Andrews; "The Ministerial Association of Salt Lake City," Rev. Dr. McNiece; "Christian Fraternity," Rev. J. H. Talbot. Messrs. Wake and Murray both spoke in regrets at leaving Salt Lake. Among the guests were Rev. Dr. J. D. McCuish of Leadville, and Miss Jessie McGillivray of Detroit.

RESCUE OF A MERCHANT.

A prominent merchant of Shongo, N. Y. J. A. Jhonson, says: "Several years ago I contracted a cough which grew worse and worse, until I was hardly able to move around. I coughed constantly and nothing relieved my terrible suffering until I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. Before I had taken half a bottle my cough was much better, and in a short time I was entirely cured. I surely believe it saved my life. It will always be my family remedy for colds."
