

JAPANESE IMMIGRATION

Rep. Julius Kahn of California Bitterly Denounces it at a Dinner in New York.

ARE NOT WANTED AT CITIZENS

Oath of Naturalization Would be a Mockery, Their Loyalty Being To the Mikado.

New York, Dec. 11.—Japanese immigration was bitterly denounced in a speech tonight by Representative Julius Kahn of San Francisco. Mr. Kahn was one of the speakers at a dinner of the New York Credit Men's association, held at the Hotel St. Denis. His subject was "The Japanese Question as Affecting San Francisco."

"The people of the Pacific coast," he said, "were satisfied that the Japanese would always remain loyal to the Mikado, and the oath of naturalization would be to them a hollow mockery. Californians did not want that kind of citizenship and did not intend to have it if they could prevent it."

"The people of the coast," he said, "had their experience with Chinese and now were threatened with another oriental invasion still more serious, for the Japanese had all the views of the Chinese with none of their virtues."

The treaty between this country and Japan, he said, giving free entry to each country of the citizens of the other, was one-sided, as labor conditions were so different in America and Japan that only the Japanese can be benefited by the international agreement.

He defended the policy of segregation of Japanese in the public schools of California and said that the people of his state would never permit their children to be thrown into close contact with adult Japanese.

Mr. Kahn concluded by saying that the United States would not go to war with Japan.

He said in part: "There is no state in the Union that is more loyal and more patriotic than California, but let me say at the outset that oriental and occidental civilization will not mix. As early as 1842 we learned to know the Chinese coolie. By 1870 there were 75,000 Chinese coolies in California, and the yellow hordes kept pouring through the Golden Gate in increasing numbers. By 1878 California, from one end to the other, was ablaze with remonstrance and just about that time, by the overwhelming vote of nearly 150,000 to about 600, as I remember, the voters of California registered their opposition to the further influx of the Chinese coolie."

"And now again we are threatened with an oriental invasion. Since the great disaster which overwhelmed the city of San Francisco last April, Japanese laborers to the number of practically 1,600 a month have been swarming through the Golden Gate, and I think that we are not stating the facts too strongly when I say that the people of California regard these Japanese coolies with greater abhorrence, awe, even with greater fear, than they did the coolies from China. We feel that the former have all the virtues of the Chinese and none of their vices. In business they are absolutely devoid of the stern sense of honor of the Chinaman. The latter lives up to the letter of his obligation, while the Japanese never hesitates to break that obligation if it suits his purpose to do so."

"The Japanese coolie who comes to California for the most part is not an unskilled laborer. He is a shoemaker, tailor, gardener, cook, waiter or one of the other of a dozen classes of workmen, as the case may be. He can and does live just as cheaply as the Chinaman. A handful of rice, a little dried fish and a cup of tea make a good meal for him. And we feel convinced that if he is allowed to come to these shores he will undiminish numbers he will ultimately drive our Caucasian population in every occupation in which he enters, just as the Chinese coolie did a quarter of a century ago."

"It is such conditions that ultimately lead to bloodshed and race riot. We want by all means to avoid anything of that kind. We are peaceable, law-abiding citizens, and we want the Japanese coolie kept out of our state. There will be no war as the result of the action of the San Francisco board. The sound, sober sense of both countries will prevail in the matter."

TORPEDO EXPERIMENTS.

New York, Dec. 12.—United States government experiments with dirigible airships yesterday. The dirigible, which was built by the inventor, Frank Leavitt, was launched yesterday. It is a small, light, and maneuverable craft, and is capable of carrying a large amount of explosives. The experiments were conducted by the United States Navy, and the results were very satisfactory.

DANIEL F. RAUM ADMITS BEING FORGER.

Peoria, Ill., Dec. 11.—Daniel F. Raum, one of the most prominent lawyers in this city, and a son of Green B. Raum, ex-commissioner of pensions of the United States, stands accused of being a forger in the sum of $10,000. It is charged that he executed false mortgages on Knox county land. P. O. Cunningham, a money broker, is the complainant. Raum surrendered today to the state's attorney, admitted his guilt and was immediately placed in the county jail.

Jews Protest.

Against Observance of Christmas Festivities in New York Public Schools.

New York, Dec. 12.—Representatives of the Orthodox and Reformed Hebrew congregations of New York joined in a protest before the committee on elementary schools yesterday against the observance of Christmas festivities in the public schools.

A VERY FINE COUNTERFEIT.

New York, Dec. 12.—One of the best counterfeiters that has recently come to the notice of the government authorities was found yesterday. He is a 30-year-old man, and is a native of Italy. He was found in possession of a large number of counterfeit bills, and was immediately arrested.

FUNERAL OF SYLVIA GERISH.

New York, Dec. 12.—The funeral of Sylvia Gerish, formerly a popular actress, and widow of Henry Graham Hilton, was held yesterday in the old Hilton mansion on Morris Heights. The Rev. John S. Campbell, pastor of the Church of the Mediator, officiated, and read the Episcopal burial service. Only a half dozen of the actress's close friends and relatives, among them her brother, George Collins, were present. Only one carriage followed the hearse to Fresh Pond, L. I., cemetery.

All Druggists sell them—over ten million boxes a year, for six years.

Be very careful to get the genuine, made only by the Sterling Remedy Company and never sold in bulk. Every tablet stamped "COC."

TRYING TO ESCAPE A WOMAN'S WILES

An Arizona Miner Wanders Over Half the World to Do It.

OF COURSE SHE IS A WIDOW.

First Met Her in a Paris Cafe, Returned Her Affection and Grew Suspicious.

Chicago, Dec. 12.—The Chronicle today says:

The story of a man who has traveled half way around the world and most of the distance on foot to escape the wiles of a woman who he asserts has matrimonial aspirations in which he figures as the prospective husband, was unfolded to the Chicago police yesterday.

The tale in which a flight from the United States to Germany and back to this country again was included, was related by John Novatne, half owner of a gold mine near Prescott, Ariz.

Novatne arrived in Chicago with but 15 cents in his pocket, after having walked all but seven miles of the distance from New York.

Novatne, who is now 65 years old, first came to the United States in 1897 and went immediately to the gold fields of Arizona, where he asserts, he later acquired a half interest in one of the largest mines in that section. Then, according to his story, he returned to Austria, where he recounted his good fortune to relatives and friends. Again he came to the United States, but upon his second return to his native country Novatne's love affair began, as did also his subsequent financial misfortunes.

"It was in a cafe in Paris one night," he said yesterday, "when I made the acquaintance of a young woman—a widow—who at once fell desperately in love with me. I returned the affection at the time, but soon I grew suspicious, for she asked to my personal questions. She wanted to know the value of my mine and she wanted to know exactly how much money I was worth. Then she suddenly proposed marriage. I was surprised at the offer, but she insisted. 'I will marry you whether you like it or not,' she said, but I decided right there that there would be no marriage, so I left."

SHIP SUBSIDY TALK REVISED

Most Important Measure Left Over From Long Session.

THE HOUSE MUST DECIDE IT.

Santo Domingo, Morocco and Isle of Pines Treaties for Consideration by the Senate.

Washington, Dec. 7.—The new legislation recommended by the president in his message is by no means the only important business before Congress, in addition to the big appropriation bills. Some very momentous measures came over from the long session, and at least one or two of them probably will demand as much attention as the president's requests for an inheritance tax, a law making Porto Rican citizens of the United States and other legislation of consequence. The senate will be expected to do something, one way or the other, with three treaties which were before the committee on foreign relations when the long session closed.

SANTO DOMINGO TREATY.

The first of these in the matter of important treaties is the convention relating to Santo Domingo, the ratification of which is a somewhat modified form of the president's message. The president in his message called at the instance of Senator Bailey of Texas, who was leading the opposition to the treaty, developed sufficient strength in the minority to prevent the treaty from being passed. The treaty is a modification of the one which was passed by the Fifty-ninth Congress. It is a modification of the one which was passed by the Fifty-ninth Congress. It is a modification of the one which was passed by the Fifty-ninth Congress.

SHIP SUBSIDY BILL.

Many leaders think that the ship subsidy bill will be practically the only important measure of general interest which will be enacted into law during the short session. The senate passed a ship subsidy bill last session, but in the house the matter did not get beyond the committee stage. The interests which have been contending for a ship subsidy for years are now nearer their goal than ever before, and they are preparing to redouble their efforts to secure favorable action before the end of this Congress.

RIVERS AND HARBORS.

The short session will pass a river and harbor appropriation bill, work on which is already under way in the committee, and the opinion is expressed in some quarters that the advocates of ship subsidy will try to use that big money measure to further their plans. Many of the representatives of the western states are opposed to granting subsidies to shipping interests, but they want big appropriations for their waterways. The policy of "you scratch my back and I'll scratch yours" has pulled more than one law out of the hopper in the past, and history may repeat itself in the present instance.

PHILIPPINE TARIFF.

The bill providing for a further reduction in the customs duties on goods from the Philippines is another important matter which will receive more or less attention. The president is anxious to have the change made, and there is considerable opposition to it from both parties in Congress, and so far this opposition has prevailed. The house passed a bill relating to the subject last year, but a majority in the senate committee on the Philippines refused to support the measure, and it was never reported from that body. The opposition comes mainly from representatives of states which grow sug-

Strength Comes

Not From What You Eat, But From What You Digest.

Most people eat most foods without discrimination—it matters little what they eat. This is the first turn on the road to dyspepsia. Reckless disregard of the proper choice of foods, rapid eating and improper mastication, are the unquestioned causes of all stomach disorders from the slight ache to the malignant cancer.

There is nothing more revolting than a dyspeptic stomach—a very far from pleasant condition. It is a poison throughout the entire system, depressing the brain, befouling the breath, souring the taste, deadening the senses, incapacitating the liver and kidneys for their work, debilitating the heart, choking the lungs and clogging the bowels.

All of these disagreeable and dangerous conditions are due to the improper digestion of food and the consequent assimilation of poison. What else can be expected? If the food lies in the stomach, if the system is constipated, fermentation is the natural outcome. It shows itself in sour watery risings, belchings, heartburn and painful breathing.

There is only one way to relieve this condition. If the stomach refuses to digest your food put something into it that will. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are nothing but digestives. They are not a medicine. They work when the stomach will not.

Each tablet contains enough pepsin, diastase, golden seal and other digestive elements to reduce 2,000 grains of ordinary food to the proper consistency for assimilation into the blood.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are absolutely pure. There is nothing harmful in them as shown in their endorsement by 40,000 physicians in the United States and Canada.

Ask your family physician his opinion of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and if he is honest toward you he will state positively that they will cure your stomach trouble whatever it may be, unless you have a very long and have allowed your disorder to develop into cancer.

Act today and begin to end your suffering. A free trial package will be sent to your address upon request. The 50 cent size packages are for sale at your druggist's. F. A. Stuart Co., 67 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

gar cane, sugar beets, rice and tobacco, or at least the surface opposition emanates from that source. The argument made is that the proposed reduction in the tariff on Philippine goods would do serious injury to the local industries named. The friends of the tariff on Philippine goods are fighting it bitterly and that it is those great combinations of capital rather than the farmers who raise cane, beets, tobacco and rice, who would suffer if the bill became a law.

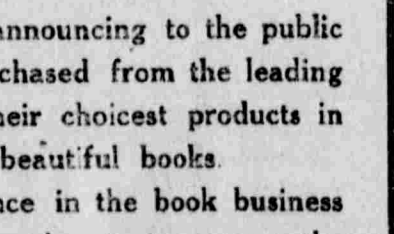

SPELLING MADE SIMPLE.

Uncle Joe Cannon has settled the whole question of spelling, and in a way quite characteristic of him. When the appropriations committee began to discuss the subject some one suggested that the speaker be consulted. He was, and this was the result: "Spelling? Oh, I don't allow spelling of any kind to bother me. I leave all that to my stenographer."

A NEW BALLOON.

New York, Dec. 12.—A new balloon has just been ordered by the United States government for use by the war department for experimental purposes in military work. The balloon will be capable of holding 30,000 cubic feet of gas, the largest of its kind ever made in America.
