

and aids the child to grind the paralytic axe."

See the dotting mother, the glad welcomer of a thousand lives, as she gazes with tearless eyes upon the warm but bleeding form of her boy of promise, laid low by the leaden messenger of death, sped on its mission of woe by the fevered touch of the drunkard's hand. See under the chill-hand of death, the lifeless form of that youth grow cold and stiff, and say if you can that the heartstrings of a loving mother may not be stretched on the keyboard of human misery, until they snap beneath their weight of earthly sorrow.

"The effects of liquor blight the noblest energies of the soul, and wrecks forever the happiness of the fireside; it clogs and dampens all the generous avenues of the heart; it makes man a drone in the hive of society, and drowsy even under the droppings of the sanctuary; it deprives him of his natural energies and makes him disregardful of the wants of the innocent beings who are dependent upon him. And, it transforms gifted man, fashioned in the express image of his Maker into a brute. Liquor! Oh! how many earthly Edens hast thou made desolate! How many starved and naked orphans hast thou cast upon the cold charities of an unfriendly world! How many graves hast thou filled with confiding and heart-broken wives! What sad wrecks hast thou made of brilliant talents and splendid intellects! How oft hast thou betrayed the marriage vow, and blighted, with the flame of passion, the innocent and good. Chastity shrinks back abashed and trembling before thy degrading touch, virtue pales under the whisperings of thy treacherous lips, and cowers under the promptings of thy evil influence! When shall thy polluting sway be rolled back upon thyself? Shall it be while the Elders of Israel lie supinely upon their backs hugging the delusive phantom of hope, leaving the despoiler to mark his course by placing in every household a grinning skeleton? Shall it be while our High Priests encourage the fellowship of the lecherous, or our Seventies go hand in hand with the unclean, and meet upon a common level with the drunken blasphemer? Shall it be while our virtuous sisters warm the viper that stings the innocent, and cherish beings who corrode the fountain of purity? Shall it be while our Mutual Improvement Associations are thoughtless and idle? Or shall it be when each and all with one common desire shall rise up in a union made strong by resolve and declare that passion heated by wine or by lust, must cease writing the language of guilt upon the brow of innocence.

Ye fathers and mothers, look, I pray you, upon the fair faces of your sons and daughters! Mark the improvement of the race under the holy covenants of the gospel; look upon the physical strength of your manly boys, and upon the chaste beauty of your virtuous girls, and say, whether or not you are willing to aid, with the light of truth shining around you, and the lamp of experience ever before you, in working out God's social problem of human redemption! If so, make purity your motto, write virtue upon every banner, and let "Holiness to the Lord" be engraven upon every heart. Crowd back to their place the sorcerer, the liar and the adulterer, let the libertine have no resting place within thy borders! so shall none lose their "good name" and be made "poor indeed." Guard well and keep pure the fountains of life, and the smile of God shall cast around us and our children forever, a halo of light and glory which shall guide us safely across the river, where we may rest in peace beneath the shadow of the trees."

The Centaur Liniments are of two kinds. The White is for the human family; the Yellow is for horses, sheep, and other animals. Testimonials of the effects produced by these remarkable Preparations are wrapped around every bottle, and may be procured of any druggist, or by mail from the Office of THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 46 Dey Street, New York City.
