VACCINATION IN CITY COUNCIL. Utah County Affairs-Schools Closed to the Unvaccinated-Weddings.

Special Correspondence, Provo, Utah Co., Dec. 18 .- At the meeting of the city council last evening, considerable time was devoted to the question of vaccination.

Dr. F. W. Taylor, city physician, as a representative of the board of health. appeared before the council, and called attention to the order of the State board of health and the local board of health, requiring that children and teachers attending schools should be vaccinated, and asked that some action to be taken by the council on the quesbe used and for the services of the hysicians in vaccinating the children tending the public schools. Dr. Taylor explained that the virus could be obtained, if bought in such a large quantity as would be required to vacquantity as would be required to vaccinate all the school children, at from 5 to 6 cents for each operation. He was not prepared to say just how much the doctors would charge, but assured the council that their charges would be reasonable. Mayor Taylor, also a member of the board of health, spoke briefly along the same lines, and explained the necessity for following the plained the necessity for following the order made by the board of health.
