EXHIBIT C.

Know all men by these presents, that I, Emeline A. Young, (now residing at the City and County of San Francisco in the State of California,) of the City of Salt Lake, County of Salt Lake, Territory of Utah, have made, constituted and appointed and by these presents do make constitute and appoint Heber P. Kimball of Salt Lake City, County of Salt Lake, Territory of Utah, my true and lawful Attorney for me and in my name place and stead and for my use and benefit, to ask, demand, collect and receive all sums of money which shall or which are payable, belonging, given and bequeathed, or in any manner due and coming to me by the Will and Testament and from the Estate of my father Brigham Young deceased, and upon payment thereof to my said attorney, to make, execute and deliver a general discharge for the same, meaning and intending by these presents that my said attorney shall act for me and do and receive for me, and secure all my rights and interests under the will and testament, and in the estate of my said father Brigham Young deceased, and for me and in my name to sign and execute all necessary papers to that end.

Giving and Granting, unto my said Attorney, full power and authority in and about the premises, and to use all due means, course and process in the law for the full, effectual and complete execution thereof, and in my name to make, execute and deliver all and every instrument in writing, and for the premises to appear and my person to represent before any Governor, Judge, officer and minister of the law whatsoever, and in any Court or Courts of Judicature, and on my behalf to prosecute my rights and claims, and to answer, defend and reply unto all causes, matters and things whatsoever relating to the premises. And generally to say, do, act, transact, determine, accomplish and finish all matters and things whatsoever relating to my interest in the said Will and Testament and Estate of my said father, Brigham Young, deceased, as fully, amply, and effectually to all intent and purposes, as I might or could do if personally present, hereby ratifying, confirming and holding valid all that my said Attorney shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue of these presents, reserving to myself by these presents, full power of substitution and revocation.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the Fifteenth day of December, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven.

SEPARATE ANSWER OF THE EXECUTORS.

In the District Court, Third Judicial District, Territory of Utah, County of Salt Lake.

Emeline A. Young, plaintiff.

VS.

George Q. Cannon, Albert Car-

lington and Brigham Young as executors of the last will of Brigham Young, deceased, and John Taylor, John Sharp, Edward Hunter, Horace S. Eldredge, George Goddard, Leonard W. Hardy, Theodore M. Kean, Joseph C. Kingsbury and Angus M. Cannon, defendants.

The defendants George Q. Cannon, Albert Carrington and Brigham Young, executors of the last will of Brigham Young deceased, separately answering the plaintiff's complaint herein, deny that the said Brigham Young, deceased, left an estate of the value of two and one half millions of dollars, or that the estate, inclusive of certain property held by him in trust and not properly a part thereof, exceeded in value the sum of $1,628,510.68. They deny that, as such executors or otherwise, in the administration of said estate or in any matters connected therewith, either in the particulars alleged in the complaint, or in any way, they have grossly or at all neglected or violated their duties, or any duty, or have not faithfully administered said estate, or have wilfully or fraudulently or in any way wasted, converted, or suffered to be wasted or converted, a large or any portion of said estate or the property thereof.

They deny that they, or either of them, unlawfully or otherwise have taken, converted or appropriated a large, or any amount of the property or funds of said estate to their own use, or to the use of either of them, under any pretence or in any manner whatever, or that they have in any way received anything from said estate except the percentage of the principal, and rents and income of the property of said estate allowed them by the said will for their services as executors and trustees thereunder, the said percentage not exceeding in amount $50,677.37 and property valued at $18,000.00 duly allocated to the said Brigham Young as legatee under said will.

They deny that, in defiance of the statute or their duty in such cases, they have pretended to allow, or fraudulently allowed the claim against said estate in favor of John Taylor, Trustee-in-Trust, for $99,832.90 mentioned in the complaint, or any claim, or that knowing the pretended and alleged fraud or illegality of said claim, or intending to defraud or cheat said estate or any beneficiary under said will, they, by collusion with the said John Taylor or with any person or party, or by fraud, in form or in any manner allowed said claim, or caused the same to be filed in the Probate Court, or procured the approval or endorsement thereof by the judge of said court. They deny that in payment of said claim, they conveyed to the said John Taylor the parcels of real estate described in the complaint and therein alleged to have been so conveyed, or that they conveyed, in payment thereof, any real estate except as hereinbefore mentioned. They deny that any conveyance by them to said John Taylor was made by collusion with him, or to defraud said estate or the beneficiaries under said will; or that the value of personal estate and assets transferred or set over to said John Taylor in payment of said claim were of the value of $400,000 or of the value of more than $160,000, and they deny that any property was transferred or set over to said John Taylor in pretence of payment of said claim, or that the estate of said testator was thereby fraudulently diminished or the plaintiff or her alleged co-beneficiaries defrauded of any property or in any sum or value.

And these defendants, further answering, allege that the said Brigham Young, deceased, for many years prior to his death, was the President and Trustee-in-Trust of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and as such had at various times taken the titles to various parcels of the real estate described in the complaint and therein alleged to have been conveyed to said John Taylor in payment of the afore-said claim; but the titles to such properties were specifically held in trust by the testator in his lifetime, and the properties had been possessed, improved and used by said Church, and were notoriously the property thereof, and did not come to the possession of these defendants as assets of the estate of the testator; and these defendants solely, as a matter of justice and equity, conveyed said properties to the said John Taylor, as trustee of such Church, without any consideration
