LADIES OFFENDED.

Editor Steed, of London, Talks to Plainly in Chicago

IS A MEETING OF WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Many of His Fair Auditors Determine
Never to Listen to Him
Again.

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—W. T. Steed, the London editor and reformer, has morally offended many prominent women in Chicago by some plain talk today by a joint meeting of the Women's clubs of the city, voted to cancel, regarding his in offending women and children. In the course of his remarks Steed said: "Women who have great opportunities and talents are more distractible in the eyes of God and man than the most abandoned masses of savages."

This language gave much offence, and many ladies stated after the meeting ended that they would never again attend a meeting at which Steed was present.

UNITED STATES COAL COMPANY.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—The directors of organization of the United States Coal company, the successor of the National Carbon company, whose failure was filed in the office of the U. S. marshal yesterday, has its place at $100,000,000, Harry A. Hart of New York holding shares amounting to $55,000,000 and the balance being divided among various others, including M. A. C. Young, one of the leading men of the coal company's interests. Of the total stock amounting to $100,000,000 that will be given, $10,000,000 will be given, with a guarantee, six percent interest, with a limit of eight percent, all the money from the earnings in excess of the dividends to the first preferred stock.

New York, Dec. 27.—Nicholas Kipke has been elected president, and W. H. Curtis vice-president of the United States Coal company.

ASSASSINATION OF RAILROAD WORKERS.

HAMILTON, Conn., Dec. 27.—An American citizen, James Anderson, commanding by Captain Anderson, has arrived from Brazil. Captain Anderson's story of outrages treatment by Peruvians, edited in the article, Captain Anderson, has caused his ship to the harbor in a small boat, and when within sight of the coast, the Peruvians fired upon him, killing him, and were then massed. It was noted to never injury caused by the Peruvians & Raging to the New York and New England. A number of trains are now held up in the 20th.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 27.—Governor Waterman, of the Detroit & Milwaukee railroad, says he is the general who has been left a fortune of $1,000,000 by the death of his son, to be used in the construction of a bridge across the river. He engaged attorney to get the money for him.

A BOLDY REPLIED.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.—Orders for the Marion, to prepare in twenty-four hours to go to sea were received at the navy yard today. The ultimate destination of the number will undoubtedly be to the Pacific.

THE TREASURY AND BANKERS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 27.—Another large sum was paid in the treasury coin fund last night, and for the first time it totalled $100,000,000, giving us $50,000,000, or about $82,500,000. This was due to the income tax.

TRANSCONTINENTAL RATE ADJUSTMENT.

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—The two road presidents, in a statement, file the transcontinental rate trouble for the issue of a tariff act which allows it a twenty-dollar differential as all north Pacific coast points. This new demand comes to place the transcontinental adjustment feature on the map.

WILL PROBABLY GO FREE.

BOSTON, Dec. 27.—James P. Hadley, ex-city treasurer, recently brought back from California to answer the charges for forgery, was released on his own recognizance, and the charge of embezzlement dismissed. The remaining charge is misfeasance, and that will probably be dropped.

NO COMPROMISE.

Breakthrough Determined to Fight to a Finish.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Dec. 27.—Colored Breakthrough's son, Tom, and today returned to the Colored bath that his father had established a month ago after a conference.

Colored Breakthrough arrived to-night from Washington. He stated that there was not the slightest foundation for the report of a compromise of the suit of Mandeville Colored. The suit was filed in the court of Colored Breakthrough's son, and he has no confidence in his nomination to Congress.
