Had we not played the game, undoubtedly we would have been shut out entereix, a thing we did not propose to have done. After the game, however, Salt Lake had any number of dates open for us, not be-cause she wanted us in the league, but just because we had beaten her. Tow in regard to Salt Lake's claims. Granite played Ogden a tie game-0 to 0. Likewise Granite tied All Hallows -6 to 5. Salt Lake, on the other hand, defeat-ed both Ogden and All Hallows, and as a result claims the championship. We admit that Salt Lake has won the championship of the three-school league (we call it league for want of a better name, but what has that to do with us? We were denied admission to that league principally on Salt Lake's ob-jection, and yet Salt Lake will judge us. They joined Long in warn-ing Hays to leave the country, and when he did not go they went to the cabin at midnight, shot it up and at-tempted to set fire to it. Hays and his family returned the fire, and al-together several hundred shots were said to have been fired. Hays and his daughter were the only persons killed, although a few others High School student body, issued the ollowing statement relative to the foot 2000 1000 150 following statement relative to the foot ball situation: Inasmuch as many people in this vi-cinity have asked us about our position relative to the High School champion-ship, and inasmuch as the Sait Lake High School intends sending their team to Spokane as the state champions, we beg leave to present our side of the question. As is well known, the Granite team has one victory and one defeat to lis credit, both coming from the loca. High School. The claim is made, on the other hand, that whereas Ogden and All Hallows were defeated by Sait Lake, that entitles them to the champion-ship. It must not be forgotten that Sait Lake refuses to play All Hallows again, although they at first agreed to. Why shouldn't the schedule be played out? Ask Sait Lake and you will find no reasonable answer. Again, why should the Granite team be judged by the league consisting of three teams-ogden, All Hallows, and Sait Lake-when admittance to that league was de-nied Granite? And, by the way, Ogien and All Hallows were perfectly will-ing to let Granite into their schedule, but Sait Lake refused, consequently we were forced to take any date that we could find, when the Granite mana-ger sought a game with Sait Lake. Two dates were given him. Sept. 25 or Oct. 3. Otherwise no game would be ninyed. These dates were given him on Sept. 24, just two days before the pro-mosed game, and then not until the man-ager had visited Mr. Stout five different times. Oct. 3 was accepted, the other date being too near. The day set was very stormy and Sait Lake would. BOULDER TEAM WAS BADLY USED UP.

The following dispatch was sent the Denver Fost when the Boulder team reached home atter being defeated by Utan: Boulder, Colo, Nov. 17.-Monday morn-ing the football team of the University of Colorado roturned from Utah, where it was so badly beaten by the Mormons. The members of the squad are unable to explain their defeat. They say they were consident of victory until the last half, when the Utah aggregation seemed to take new life and ran around their ends for gains at will. Forward passes were also used by them with telling ef-fect, Few gains were made through the line. Taking it all in all, Saturday's game was such a surprise to the Colo-rado men that even now they are not able to give a detalled account of the second half.

game was such a surprise to the Colo-rado men that even now they are not able to give a detalled account of the second half. The supporters of the Colorado team have been more anxious to learn how the men came out of the game than they were to learn the cause of defaat. McFadden, who has played such a star fame at half during the entire season for the varsity, seems to have faired the worst of any. He was so badly injured in the battle that he had to be taken out, and it is now very doubt-ful whether he will be able to play against Denver. He is one of the best men Colorado has in the back field, and his loss would be a hard blow. Captain Claire Coffin also had to be taken out of the Utah game. The only trouble with him seems to be that he is not in good all-around condition. He has not played through an entire game this season. He had to be carried off the field in both the Aggle and Tiger games. Newton, Celorado's center, is in the University hospital suffering with ty-phoid fever and is in for a full run of the disease. Prince held down his posi-tion against the Mornons, but was a great disappointment. His weakest point set failed to reach him. Unless this de-fect can be overcome it will be a serious frawback to Colorado's chances of suc-cess next Saturday, as Colorado will de-pend largely on Sterritt outklekking Schrader, if such a thing is possible. Outside of McFadden the back field is in faily good share, although they feel the affects of the long trip. The report that Sterritt had ptomaine poisoning was untrue. He was suffering with a bad stomach before he entered the con-test, but is all right now.

Fine of $50. Oakland, Nov, 18.—There was only a trio of starters in the Pritchard han-dleap at Emeryville today and thu event resulted in an easy victory for Dandellon, which won as he pleased. The Hildreth horse was favorite throughout. Dorante was second, but Archibald, who rode him, was fined $0 for cutting off Neva Lee. The judges also punished other rough riding when they suspended A. New Haven, Conn., Nov. 13.-Inability to seat many of the undergraduates who wish to see the Yale-Harvard foot-ball game on Saturday has resulted in a renewal of the agtiation for a mon-ster concrete stadium or amphitheater here. The alumni weekly is pushing the move. It is suggested that a grad-uate corporation be organied to back the proposal and to start a concrete stadium fund as soon as possible. An is-sue of bonds is contemplated. While the Yale stand at present seats only 32.000 there were approximately 60,000 applications for tickets.

New York, Nov. 19 .- Henri Fournier, Fined Three Dollars.

New York, Nov. 19.—Henri Fournier, formerly the French bicycle champion, but now identified with automobile rac-ing, is soon to take up aeroplaning. Ac-cording to his opinion automobile rac-ing will soon be on the decline and for this reason, he looks to the aerial sport as a better field. New York, Nov. 19 .- Disappointed at the action of a magistrate, a Madison street cigar dealer who lost a large plate glass window through the antics of two women, has put up this notice in bold letters: "This window was smashed by two intoxicated ladies. Window cost $80. Judge fined the ladies $3 each. Where do I get off?"

During the scrimmage one of them was pushed through the glass, leaving portions of her attire, in-cluding a comb, a hat and a piece of skirting behind. These the cigar deal-er has labelled as "exhibits" and puts them in a conspicuous view. Crowds collected ground the right to such an collected around the place to such an extent last night that a detail of police was necessary to keep order.
