LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.
Thermometer 67 degrees F. in the shade at 1 p.m. to-day. Clear and cool.
Religious Services.—Religious services in the Tabernacle to-morrow afternoon, commencing at two o'clock, and in the meeting houses of the several wards in the evening.
Coming.—Louis Albiach, the young tragedian of the West, will appear at the Theatre next week in "Hamlet" and "The Marble Heart." He is spoken of very highly as a dramatic artist, and will be a novelty to Salt Lake.
Gone.—It is reported that the escaped convict Wiggins has left the country, disguised as a tramp. It is stated he was seen yesterday in Silver Creek Canyon, riding upon a coal wagon. Wiggins is a very bad man.
The Pamphlet.—The Pamphlet on the Death of President Brigham Young, with a brief sketch of his life and labors, account of the funeral ceremonies, including a full report of the address, resolutions of respect, etc., is now ready. Price 15 cents per copy, two copies for 25 cents, at the News Office counter.
Grape.—The bunch land north of the 20th Ward water ditch is well adapted for the cultivation of the grape. This has been demonstrated by brother Godfrey Lienhardt, who has raised a considerable quantity of luscious fruit of that kind, including quite a number of varieties, such as the Isabella, Union Village, three kinds of California, and the Sweetwater. The fruit is of good size and excellent flavor. This result has been attained with a very limited and uncertain supply of water. The vines are in a very healthy condition.
From Nebraska.—We received a pleasant call this morning from Hon. Clinton Briggs, of Nebraska, who, with his wife and son, are staying in this city. Mr. Briggs is a well-known and respectable republican, who came within five votes of election for Senator at the last election. He is in company this morning with Hadley D. Johnson, Esq., the old "wheel horse of Democracy" in the same State. Notwithstanding their different positions on politics, they are staunch friends, and illustrate the title of Lindsay's new play, "Under One Flag." We wish the gentleman and his family a pleasant visit.
To-night.—"Under One Flag, or Love and War," written by Mr. John S. Lindsay, will be repeated at the Theatre this evening. The shooting scene will be omitted and other curtailments effected, by which the drama will be made far more acceptable to the public, simply because as presented on Thursday evening it was too lengthy. This is really a good play, abounding in natural though exciting and interesting incidents, and as the company have had time to review their respective parts and the benefit of Thursday night's experience, the public may expect a well played and attractive performance this evening.
Necessary Caution.—It appears that the citizens of Heeneville and vicinity got within gunshot of the desperadoes, Charles Wells and Idaho Bill, on Wednesday, and could have killed them easily as they ran for the brush with their heads lowered. The citizens, however, did not think it judicious to shoot them down. Doubtless their reasons were prudent. They are aware of the experience of others who are alleged to have shot men of the same stamp, under similar circumstances, when escaping from legal custody. Even now men residing not far from Heeneville, have been recently arrested and placed in the penitentiary on account of an indictment for the alleged killing of "Ike" Potter, one of the most notorious desperadoes ever known in this part of the country. He was shot down, it is alleged, when escaping from custody, and the Heeneville people doubtless kept this and other similar cases in view when they demurred to stopping the progress of the retreating convicts by means of the bullet. They probably thought that in a few years a grand jury might take the matter into consideration, a desperate effort be made to scrape together some manipulated evidence to place the matter in a wrong light, and they find themselves eventually within the walls of the same prison from which the convicts had escaped. No one can blame the citizens for this display of caution, for they manifested the utmost alertness and willingness to aid in the capture of the runaway, and had there been a legal officer along to depose them they would in all likelihood have taken the convicts anyway, for they asked those in pursuit from this city to depose them, that they might act with authority of the U. S., and thus avoid any legal protest of the matter being placed in the light of a "bloody Mormon outrage," should the desperadoes be used up in the attempt to capture them. But even that authority is not sufficient to "Mormon" being maliciously prosecuted for performing a legal act. Altogether while the readiness with which the people of Heeneville responded in endeavors to aid in securing the ends of justice, their prudence in refraining, under the circumstances, from going to the extremest point in the matter is not to be condemned.
Personal.—We received a call to-day from Mr. Farquhar, of Glasgow, Scotland, who is on a visit to the city to see his sister, Mrs. H. H. Farquhar, of the First Ward. Mr. F. is going to San Francisco, and intends subsequently to visit some of the leading cities of the east. He is on a pleasure tour.
Returned.—Governor Emery has returned from his trip to the north-western Territories. He appears in excellent health.
