Canadian Justice.

The conviction by a Canadian Judge and jury of a murderer worth $1,200,000, is an event of no special importance in the country where it occurred, but to people of the United States it has a meaning beyond what appears on its face. The circumstances of the crime were all, according to American opinion, in the murderer's favor. No special motive could be assigned for the deed; the murderer had no spite to gratify, no revenge to complete; his condition was that of insane intoxication, a particular that, to an American jury, would be greatly in his favor. More than this, he was wealthy, and employed his riches with lavish profusion to precure him the best legal advice and assistance to be found in the Dominion.

But money and lawyers were alike useless. English law knows no respect of persons, and allows none of that exercise of sentimentality which so frequently defeats the ends of justice in this country. The consequence is the rich and the poor stand on the same level, and the man who is able to spend his thousands has no surer chance of an acquittal than the beggar. The justice of the case is the point at issue, and not the family connections, the past services, the wealth, or the social standing of the criminal. Law is for all alike in England, and to judge from this case in Canada, the same justice which meted out a full punishment to the Colonel of the Queen's regiment for a brutal assault is ready in the Dominion to return evil-doers the reward of their deeds, no matter what pleas are advanced in extenuation.

Just on this side the dividing line between Canada and the United States, the scene is changed. Whether from a disregard of law, a disregard of human life, a sentimental sympathy with a condemned criminal, or all three, it is useless to attempt to determine, but no one needs to be informed how difficult it is to obtain a conviction of a wealthy murderer in this country. It is too harsh to say that we have one law for the rich and another for the poor, but one only has to look at the cases which everybody can call to mind, in which rich assassins were either acquitted outright or let off with a very light punishment, while friendless tramps went to the gallows, in order to be assured that the lines of justice are by no means so strictly drawn as they should be. What we need in murder cases is not so much severity as certainty of punishment. Under the circumstances of the Canadian case it is well enough that the death sentence was commuted into imprisonment for life, but every Canadian criminal is absolutely certain that in ninety-nine cases in a hundred the full penalty of the law will be meted out to him for his crime. This certainty renders him extremely careful of human life, and very cautious in regard to crime in general, and we have the best reasons for believing that the same rigid adherence to the letter and spirit of the law in this country would ensure a like scarcity of evil doing.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Nov. 27.

A Young Woman's Sad Fate.

A lady member of the Laight Street Methodist Episcopal Church called last evening at the Police Central Office and made inquiry about a young girl named Rachel Martin, who, she said, had gone astray. A Herald reporter subsequently obtained the following details of the case—

About six months ago a man and woman, who gave their names as George and Clara Smith respectively, were in London, England, and represented to the girl, Rachel Martin, who resided in Deane Street, in that city, that if she would accompany them to New York they would procure for her the situation of governess in the family of some friends of theirs, with a salary of £300 per year. The girl, who was attractive in appearance, and who was of respectable family, partly induced by a desire to see this country, and partly lured by the large salary offered, agreed to the proposition, contrary to the wishes of her mother and relatives. The objections were overcome, however, and she sailed with the Smiths. A short time after she arrived here she was introduced to two or three fast young men, who made improper proposals to her. She somplained of these insults to her supposed benefactors, but they laughed at her, saying that she had better accede to their propositions. This she indignantly refused to do, and demanded that she be placed in the position of governess, which had been promised to her. She received only evasive answers to her appeals and shortly became a victim to a hellish plot. She was put under the influence of opiates, and while in that condition the schemers put into effect the heinous crime which they had planned. When the girl recovered her senses she was informed that henceforth it was intended that she should lead a life of shame. The poor girl was overcome, and bitterly denounced the want of humanity shown by the creatures who had professed to be her friends. She was friendless in the city and was closely watched by the Smiths. She was soon turned out of their house and became lost. She was arrested a few days ago on Greene Street, and sentenced, by Justice Bixby, to the House of the Good Shepherd, where she now is.

Her mother, not having heard from her for some time, communicated with the lady, who told the story to the reporter, with whom she was acquainted, asking for some information concerning her daughter. The lady will have sad news to send to the girl's home.—New York Herald, Nov. 26.

PROTECT YOUR BUILDINGS

Which may be done with one-fourth the usual expense, by using our

PATENT SLATE PAINT,

MIXED READY FOR USE.

Fire-proof, Water-proof, Durable, Economical and Ornamental.

A roof may be covered with a very cheap shingle, and by application of this slate be made to last from 20 to 25 years. Old roofs can be patched and coated, looking much better, and lasting longer than new shingles without the slate, for

One-Third the Cost of Reshingling.

The expense of slating new shingles is only about the cost of simply laying them. The paint is FIRE-PROOF against sparks or flying embers, as may be easily tested by any one.

IT STOPS EVERY LEAK, and for tin or iron has no equal, as it expands by heat, contracts by cold, and NEVER CRACKS nor scales. Roofs covered with Tar Sheathing Felt can be made water tight at a small expense, and preserved for many years.

This Slate Paint is EXTREMELY CHEAP.

Two gallons will cover a hundred square feet of shingle roof, while on tin, iron, felt, matched boards, or any smooth surface, from two quarts to one gallon are required to 100 square feet of surface, and although the Paint has a heavy body it is easily applied with a brush.

No Tar is used in this Composition, therefore it neither cracks in Winter, nor runs in summer.

On decayed shingles it fills up the holes and pores, and gives a new substantial roof that will last for years. CURLED or WARPED shingles it brings to their places, and keeps them there. It fills up all holes in Felt roofs, stops the leaks—and although a slow dryer, rain does not affect it a few hours after applying. As nearly all paints that are black contain TAR, be sure you obtain our GENUINE article, which (for shingle roofs) is when first applied, changing in about a month to a uniform slate color, and is to all intents and purposes SLATE. On our red color is usually preferred, as one coat is equal to five of any ordinary paint. For our BRIGHT RED is the only reliable Slate Paint ever introduced that will effectually prevent dampness from penetrating and discoloring the plaster.

CHOCOLATE COLOR,

TIN ROOFS

BRICK WALLS

These paints are also largely used on outhouses and fences, or as a priming coat on fine buildings.

Our only colors are CHOCOLATE, RED, BRIGHT RED and ORANGE.

TO CALIFORNIA.

We don't give this for an idle accomplis, but it is very strongly rumored that Cedar Rapids is to be the half-way station between Chicago and Council Bluffs.

If this is to be, and some experiments have been made to that end, we suppose it is on account of the superior condition of the road. A trip on the steel railed and well ballasted road, is not any more now, if as much, wear and, tear on the employes and machinery to a train, from Chicago to Cedar Rapids, 218 miles, as it was on the iron rails from Chicago to Clinton, 138 miles, in the olden time.

It is not necessary for us to say that the C. & N. W. R'y is a first-class road in every particular, that it rides as easy as sitting in a "rocking chair," that its coaches are parlors, that its employes are the most polite and affable gentlemen the traveling public can meet or will meet in a lifetime of travel—the esprit de corps of the employes, if we may so say, is at a high standard; we say we need not say this in a newspaper, it is self evident to every traveler on the road. But in the future these are to be increased; we suppose the speed will be increased; if possible, the superb trains will be more superb; there is to be no train more complete, either for comfort or safety, leave the world's commercial metropolis for the GOLDEN GATE, THAN THE GREAT TRAINS ON THE CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY—THE ONLY COMPANY RUNNING OUT OF CHICAGO THAT HAS A ROAD SO RELIABLE THAT THEY ARE NOT AFRAID TO RUN AT ANY SPEED CAPABLE OF BEING ATTAINED BY ENGINES OF THE MOST IMPROVED CONSTRUCTION, RUN WITH THE HAND OF IRON NERVE, AND A HEAD OF BRAINS, WITHOUT ANY FEAR OF ACCIDENT OR INCONVENIENCE.

Every employe on the road feels a personal interest in the North-Western Railway; it's the "clipper" road in the West, and so far as anything he can do it will continue so to be.

THIS IS THE TRANS-CONTINENTAL LINK FROM THE GREAT LAKES TO THE GREAT MISSOURI RIVER.

The old time traveler speaks in high glee of the "ease and comfort" of these days of steel in contrast with the pioneer days of this pioneer road in the days of iron. The comforts of travel on the North-Western Railway are in every traveler's mouth from the Atlantic to the Pacific. It must be a proud compliment to the efficient management, and that is the reason every officer or employe feels so happy and obliging.

It is with pride we mention these things, and join the general shout along the line, Hurrah for the "OLD RELIABLE."—Cedar Rapids Republican, Aug. 14, 1876.
