

TELEGRAPHIC. GREEKS MAY ACCEPT The Proposal of the Powers on Certain Conditions.

ALL HOPE OF HELP ABANDONED.
The opinion still prevails in Greece that a war with Turkey is inevitable.

LONDON, March 11.—The Athens correspondent of the Times, outlining the proposals of the powers, writes on the highest authority that Greece would accept the terms of the powers, but that the Turkish troops are immediately needed from Crete, second, that the powers have now in the island are placed under the command of a military representative of the powers sent to rank in Col. Vassos, for the sake of the restoration of order; and, finally, that the powers induce Turkey to withdraw a portion of her troops from the Greek frontier, Greece doing the same. Greece regards the latter condition as most urgent, in view of the fact that the excitement in Thessaly, not only among the troops, but among the armed population, has reached such a height that a good deal is possible at any moment, involving the outbreak of war.

The Times correspondent thinks that matters have now reached an impasse. It is impossible for the powers to insist on their demand that the Greek army be placed under the command of a military representative of the powers, and the Greek government is unwilling to accept the latter condition. The Greek government is unwilling to accept the latter condition. The Greek government is unwilling to accept the latter condition.
