EDITORIAL NOTES.

Rutherford Burchard Hayes is the full name of the gentleman.

The New York Harvard claims that "it is against Wheeler that he was chairman of the Pacific Railway committee when all the jobs were passed."

The Springfield (Mass.) Republican says—"The outlook for the republican party in Connecticut is anything but cheerful. It seems to be a case of irrepressible conflict, and to be getting no better very fast."

A placard in a store in Seabrook, N. H., says what many a man thinks is very sensible, but what he dare not say to his wives and daughters—"It is better to wear a calico dress without trimmings, than to owe the shopkeeper for the most elegant silk, cut and trimmed in the most bewitching manner."

It is urged that Hayes will suit the English and German voters. Commencing in the middle and going one way, it spells the English "yes," while going the other way it reveals the German "yah!" Wheeler will suit the French and the Scotch. The former will answer "Oui" and the latter "weel."

Mr. and Mrs. Sartoris (Nelly Grant) were to sail for Liverpool for America to-day (24th).

Secretary Chandler has gruffly informed the clerks in the Department of the Interior, that if any one presumes to call him "Zach. Chandler," certain dismissal will be the penalty.

The Indianapolis Sentinel says—"Col. Bob. Ingersoll was related with the work of the Convention. He spoke freely on the Cincinnati train, using 'cuss words' unreservedly. He said, 'The Republican party had made a grand blunder; in fact, it had made an ass of itself. The ticket had no elements of strength. It could awaken no enthusiasm. The news would fall upon the party like a sick buzzard upon a dead ass. When orators of the party went into the canvass they would have to confess that their candidate did not know anything, but the only thing they could plead was that he had not stolen anything.' Ingersoll's Illinois companions preserved a sullen silence, or only gave a grunt of acquiescence."

The following appears in the San Francisco Chronicle—"New York, June 21.—It is rumored in Union Square this evening that Rose Eyring was dead, and the manager of one of the theaters telegraphed to Chicago for information. The reply read: 'She is alive and kicking in this city.' Miss Eyring's engagement with Shook & Palmer closed on Saturday night in Chicago. She has not appeared on the stage since her attempt to commit suicide. It was her intention to take the Rose Michel company to San Francisco, but one will probably abandon the trip. She is suffering from the effects of the laudanum and it is thought will return to this city within a few days."

Minnesota farmers complain of bad weather and damaged wheat crops. Half the pleasure and luxury of a farmer's life would vanish if he could not grumble about the weather and the crops.

The law creating the Los Angeles Board of Public Works, passed at the late session of the California Legislature, has been declared invalid, to the gratification of full two-thirds of the people of that city.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE MATTERS.

We have received an "Address of the National Woman Suffrage Association to the National Republican Convention," also the Constitution of the National Woman Suffrage Association, with the names of the officers, Elizabeth Cady Stanton being President. The following is the Constitution named—

"ARTICLE 1.—This organization shall be called the National Woman Suffrage Association."

"ARTICLE 2.—The object of this Association shall be to secure NATIONAL protection for women citizens in the exercise of their right to vote."

"ARTICLE 3.—All citizens of the United States subscribing to this Constitution, and contributing not less than one dollar annually, shall be considered members of the Association, with the right to participate in its deliberations."

"ARTICLE 4.—The officers of this Association shall be a President, a Vice-President from each of the States and Territories, Corresponding and Recording Secretaries, a Treasurer, an Executive Committee of not less than five, and an Advisory Committee consisting of one person from each State and Territory."

"ARTICLE 5.—All Woman Suffrage Societies throughout the country shall be welcomed as auxiliaries; and their accredited officers or duly appointed representatives shall be recognized as members of the National Association."

The Centennial headquarters of the Association are at "The National Woman Suffrage Parlor, 1431 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa. Matilda Joselyn Gage is chairman of the Executive Committee, and Elizabeth C. Anthony is corresponding secretary."

The Association intends to issue a "Declaration of Rights for woman," and a "Grand Protest against calling this Centennial a celebration of the Independence of the people, while one-half of the people are still subjects—still political slaves." The women of the whole land are invited to unite in the Declaration and Protest.

In commemoration of the 25th Anniversary of the First Woman's Rights Convention the world over knew, the Association will hold a grand mass convention in Philadelphia, July 19 and 20 of the present year.

Mrs. Stanton, Mrs. Gage, and Miss Anthony are preparing a history of the woman suffrage movement in this country, extending to the close of this Centennial year, with short biographical sketches and pictures of the women most prominent in the woman suffrage reform.

WIGGINTON'S UTAH ELECTION BILL.

IN the House of Representatives, June 12th, Mr. Wigginton, from the Committee on Territories, reported a substitute bill "to regulate elections and the elective franchise in the Territories of the United States," which was read twice and recommitted. We subjoin a brief abstract of the principal provisions of this new bill.

SEC. 1. Provides that only male citizens of 21 years and upwards, resident in the Territory six months preceding an election, and in the precinct ten days, shall vote. Idiots, insane persons, convicts, bigamists and polygamists cannot vote. None but qualified voters can hold civil office in a Territory.

SEC. 2. Provides for secret ballot. SEC. 3. The secretaries or the governors of Territories to supervise the printing of all ballots and envelopes used, and see that the latter are properly gummed, or "mutilated," as no other material can be used to secure them. Anybody can obtain these ballots and envelopes by paying the cost price of them. The secretary finable as high as $1,000 and imprisonment for as long as two years for willful neglect or omission in this connection.

SEC. 4. Three judges of election in each precinct—the senior justice of the peace, and two other electors, one appointed by the governor, the other by the county court.

SEC. 5. The judges of each election precinct to choose two clerks of election.

SEC. 6. The judges and clerks to be sworn in. Vacancy in judges to be filled by choice of qualified voters present at the polls at the time.

SEC. 7. The judges can administer the oath to each other and the clerks, if no other authority is handy.

SEC. 8. Polls open from 7 a.m. till 6 p.m. If choosing of judges interferes, then polls to open as soon as possible.

SEC. 9. Polls to be opened by proclamation of one of the judges, and closed by like proclamation thirty minutes before the time of closing.

SEC. 10. Ballot-box to be publicly opened and exhibited before commencing to poll, then looked and not opened again till after the election.

SEC. 11. Each clerk of election to keep a poll book with number and name of elector entered as he votes.

SEC. 12. All voting to be by ballot, delivered to a judge.

SEC. 13. All the candidates voted for by one elector to be on one ballot.

SEC. 14. Ballot to be delivered to a judge openly; judge to pronounce the name of the elector; if not objected to, and the judge is satisfied, the vote is to be received.

SEC. 15. Only answers questions then to be questioned by the judges; if the judges are satisfied with the answers, then the vote to be allowed. Certificate of naturalization, duly certified, to be produced, if required, also a certified copy of court records naturalizing such voter. If original certificate and court record are lost, then the applicant to be allowed to vote, on stating when and where he was naturalized.

SEC. 16. Challenged and allowed voters to be so distinguished on the clerks record, to be taken as prima facie evidence.

SEC. 17. Voters to be counted publicly immediately after the election until completed.

SEC. 18. Procedure in counting the votes.

SEC. 19. Ballot-box not to be removed from the room until all the ballots are counted. Names of candidates voted for on each ballot to be read aloud by the judge, and recorded.

SEC. 20. Result to be publicly announced. Concerning lists and certificates.

SEC. 21. County court to canvass returns in public, declare the result, make abstracts, etc. Secretary of Territory to canvass votes, etc.

SEC. 22. Manner of conducting town or city elections similar, with necessary exceptions.

SEC. 23. Concerning perjury.

SEC. 24. Concerning hindering an elector from voting, repeating, illegal voting, etc.

SEC. 25. Concerning opening ballot-boxes or ballot-box illegally, disclosing names of persons voted for by any elector, forgery or counterfeit of returns, altering returns, making false or fraudulent returns, omitting to perform duties, etc.

SEC. 26. The Governor to establish election precincts in certain cases.

SEC. 27. Repeals repugnant acts.

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 24.—Logan, Ill., called up the House bill to extend the time for filing claims for additional bounty under the act of July 23, 1865, and which expired by limitation January 30, 1875, until July 1st, 1880. Passed.

Kelly called up the House bill to adjust the claims of owners of lands within the State of Oregon, which was discussed and laid over.

Allison, from the committee on appropriations, reported with amendments the House bill making appropriations for the support of the army for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1877, and gave notice that he would call it up for consideration on Monday. Placed on the calendar.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 24.—In the House this morning the amendment to the sundry civil appropriation bill, increasing the item for lights on the Mississippi and Missouri rivers, from $150,000 to $180,000 was agreed to, yeas 84, nays 70.

The next amendment was the appropriation of $50,000 for geographical surveys under Lt. Wheeler, which was rejected, yeas 60, nays 78. The bill then passed. House adjourned at 2:35 a.m.

The House was called to order at 12 o'clock by Clerk Adams, in the absence of the Speaker, and the Speaker pro tem, Sawyer of Ohio, was appointed Speaker pro tem, during the present absence of the Speaker.

EASTERN.

Sound for St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, 24.—A dispatch was received to-night from the Virginia delegation stating they will arrive here to-morrow, and that they are a unit for Tilden.

The Tammany delegation, numbering twenty-five, will arrive here on Monday morning.

The democratic members of the New York board of Aldermen will also leave there to-night, and will perhaps reach here on Sunday; they are anti-Tilden men.

Portion of a National Bridge Burned.

The two northern spans of the railroad bridge across the Missouri River, at Kansas City, was burned yesterday, doing probably $100,000 damage. It will perhaps take two weeks to rebuild, and in the meantime the H. & St. Joe, the E. C. and St. Joe, and St. Louis R. C. & N. W. roads will not be able to run trains into Kansas City.

The Enforcement Act.

New York, 24.—The Tribune's Washington correspondent says the bill to amend the enforcement act passed the Senate by a strict party vote. Both voted with the republicans.

The debate was conducted almost entirely by the democrats, who resolutely opposed every provision and principle of the bill. The purpose of the measure is to cure the defects in the original enforcement act pointed out by the decision of the United States supreme court in the Grant-Parish and Kentucky cases, and to frame a new law which, while not liable to a charge of unconstitutionality, shall accomplish the purpose of the original enforcement act. It remains to be seen, however, why this bill should have been pressed at the present time, when the grant of wisdom is so clearly seen, when it is remembered that the bill cannot pass the House, and cannot receive the democratic vote.

A Plot to Secure the Vote.

The Washington correspondent says that they think that the order discontinuing the military division of the south is simply a plot to secure the electoral vote of Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi and Missouri for the republicans.

Get the Worst of It.

A detailed special from the Big Horn expedition, makes it pretty clear that Gen. Crook got decidedly the worst of it in his late fight with the Sioux, on Rosebud River, on the 17th inst.

Bank Statement.

The weekly bank statements are as follows: Loans increased $1,335,000; deposits decreased $417,800; legal tender increased $138,100; deposits increased $149,800; circulation decreased $42,000; reserve decreased $61,750.

Missed.

At 11:30 this morning Lawrence Robinson, aged 41 years, a native of California, committed suicide by shooting himself with a revolver in the city of Hialeah, Fla.

Robinson, who has only arrived in this city recently, was sitting up a barber shop in Cherry Street this morning. He was out with his young son and sat for a time on one of the seats in the park. He gave his son $50 in money and some other valuables, and on some pretext went away, and during his absence he drew a pistol from his pocket and discharged its contents into his abdomen, and died almost instantly.

The son was taken to the hospital for his father's aid, but died before he could be taken to the hospital. Robinson leaves a wife, who is a resident of California, and one son.

Army Appropriation Bill.

WASHINGTON, 24.—The army appropriation bill, as reported from the Senate committee on appropriations to-day, is changed in the following important particulars: The committee entirely strikes out the provisions by which the army was to be reduced and re-organized, and to establish lower salaries for officers. Amendments are accordingly reported increasing the House items of appropriation to an aggregate extent of over three million dollars, so as to provide for continuing the present force of 25,000 men and the officers' salaries prescribed by the existing law, and also to more nearly conform to the estimate of Secretary Taft. In other respects the principal items of the increase are $315,768 for the pay of army, $291,000 for subsistence, $400,000 for transportation, and $600,000 for hire of quarters, etc. The committee recommended the retention of the House provision concerning officers' mileage, fixing it at eight cents per mile in lieu of all other travel allowances.

Sentences in the Whiskey Cases.

CHICAGO, 24.—In the United States Circuit Court this morning, James in behalf of the defendants in the whiskey case, asked for a stay of sentence, which was overruled by Judge Bledgett, who passed sentences as follows: A. C. Hoesling to pay a fine of $5,000 and be imprisoned in the county jail for the term of two years; O. K. Dickson and Jonathan Ober, distillers, a fine of $1,000 and three months in the county jail; Simon Powell, distiller, a fine of $3,000 and six months in the county jail; H. B. Miller, ex-county treasurer, a fine of $3,000 and six months in the county jail; F. L. Reid, a fine of $1,000 and one day in the county jail; H. G. Pahlman and David Luch, a fine of $1,000 and three months in the county jail; Wm. Cooper, a fine of $300 and three months in the county jail; F. P. Hutchinson and David Cochrane, a fine of $1,000 and three months in the county jail; Geo. T. Buthome, a fine of $3,000 and one year in the county jail.
