

RECEPTION TO MISSIONARIES.

Prest. Smith Host at an Elegant Banquet Given at the Beehive House Last Night.

A MOST ENJOYABLE EVENING.

Affair Was Given in Commemoration Of Fiftieth Anniversary of Departure to Sandwich Islands.

Fifty years ago yesterday a party of 29 missionaries left this city for the Sandwich Islands, the same consisting of Elders Joseph P. Smith, Silas Smith, Henry P. Richards, Edward Partridge, W. W. Cluff, Silas S. Smith, John T. Caine, George Spiers, Joseph A. Peck, Ward E. Pack, John R. Young, Washington B. Rogers, Sextus E. Johnson, Smith B. Thurston, John A. West, Eli Bell, Simpson Molen, William King, Oron K. Whitney and M. D. Merriek. The latter, however, went only as far as San Francisco, but all the others continued their journey and did faithful missionary work among the natives.

In commemoration of this event an enjoyable reception was last night given at the Beehive house, on which occasion Elder John T. Caine was master of ceremonies. There were present of the party above named, President Joseph P. Smith and Elders Caine, Richards, Cluff, Silas S. Smith, Pack and Spiers, with President John R. Young, President Anthon H. Lund, President Francis M. Lyman, Elders Rudger Clawson, Hyrum M. Smith, George A. Smith, Charles W. Penrose, James Lawson, Nathan Tanner and William Naylor and their ladies as invited guests. Letters of regret were read from Reddick N. Allred, Spring City; Mrs. Eli Bell, Logan; Wm. Parson Prosser, who was one of the first missionaries to the islands; Mary Thurston, daughter of Smith B. Thurston of Orangeville; Mrs. J. E. Molen Pitkin of Millville; John S. Woodbury of St. George; Francis W. Young of Orangeville; Frederick A. Mitchell of Logan; and F. W. Hurst, Logan, who came from Australia and joined the missionaries on the Sandwich Islands.

The reception was given by President Smith and family and partook of the nature of a most elaborate banquet served in elegant style. Members of the First Presidency were seated at the head of each table and the menu included, among other choice and toothsome delicacies, that favorite native dish, poi, made especially for the occasion by the Hawaiian residents of this city. During the supper splendid musical numbers were furnished, and reminiscence addresses were made by Elders John T. Caine, Henry P. Richards, William W. Cluff, Silas S. Smith, Ward E. Pack, George Spiers, President Smith, Nathan Tanner and James Lawson. All referred in happy terms to experiences on the islands, and President Smith and Elder Cluff spoke of the drawing of President Lorenzo Snow, who was restored to life through the power of God and the faith and prayers of his brethren.

At the conclusion of the evening's enjoyment a hearty vote of thanks was tendered President Smith and family for the hospitable manner in which they had entertained their missionary guests. The affair was purely informal and was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Among the missionaries who left at the time stated seven have since died, viz, Edward Partridge, Eli Bell, Simpson Molen, Silas Smith, William King, O. K. Whitney and M. D. Merriek.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

"Aunt Bathsheba's" Eighty-Second Anniversary Joyously Celebrated.

The eighty-second anniversary of the birth of Mrs. Bathsheba W. Smith, known to her many friends as "Aunt Bathsheba," was fittingly celebrated Tuesday afternoon at the Beehive House. Between 29 and 30 relatives and friends were present and the time was spent in offering congratulations and partaking of delicious refreshments. Among those in attendance were Presidents Smith, Winder and Lund, who delivered brief addresses in which they referred to the life and labors of the honored guest. There were also greetings from associate workers in the Relief society, among them an excellent paper by Mrs. L. L. Green Richards. During the afternoon "Aunt Bathsheba" was presented with numerous birthday offerings, one being a bunch of 32 carnations. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion and all present had a most enjoyable time.

HOLMES BALKED ON COLOR

Salt Lake Hotel Man Wouldn't Have A "Nigger" in His Dining Room.

Word comes from Los Angeles that the hotels and the Methodists are having trouble over the accommodation of colored church members, who are there to attend the conference. When Los Angeles was first designated as the place of holding the convention, the hotels agreed to take care of the delegates regardless of color. But when from 1,500 to 400 colored members flocked in, Gus Holmes of the Angels balked, as did two or three others. Holmes gave one of the papers an interview, in which he said he "had a table for niggers, and if they wanted that, they could have it," also, that "he never allowed a nigger to eat in his dining room, and never would," and "that he never had eaten with a nigger and hoped he never would have to."

When this was printed, there was a hub-bub that swelled that part of the Pacific ocean, and was felt distinctly on Catalina island. The papers roasted Holmes and the hotels of the town, and the church people almost resorted to Queensbury tactics. It was straightened out, finally, and the last word is that all but two hotels—both of them small ones—have agreed to house the colored churchmen.

OUT WENT THE LIGHTS.

Ogden Power Station Dismantled by Lightning Last Night Causes Trouble.

There was an electrical storm up north last night, which dismantled the Pioneer station at Ogden. The cessation of the power shut off the electric lights in this city in the resident district for 10 minutes, and partially paralyzed the streetcar service for an hour or more. However, the power lost was immediately replaced from the two Cottonwood stations, the Bear River station, and the Telluride lines, so that business was resumed. The loss to the company was not less than $2,000.

SEVEN JURORS OUT OF TWELVE.

Five More Good Men and True Still Needed in the Wade Murder Case.

THREE SECURED THIS MORNING.

Out of Twenty-five Veniremen Summoned, Twelve Names Were Placed in the Jury Box.

Three more jurors were secured this morning in the case of the State of Utah vs. James H. Wade charged with the murder of Lee You, a Chinaman at Alta on Dec. 19, 1903, making seven of the necessary 12 jurors to try the case. The four jurors secured yesterday afternoon are W. H. Atwood, R. L. Shannon, R. P. Sharkey and J. J. Toronto. The three secured this morning are William Quick, George C. Tripp and David Cameron.

Of the 13 jurors called to the box yesterday for examination, four were accepted, four were peremptorily challenged by the state, three were peremptorily challenged by the defense and the other two were excused for cause, one by the state and one by the defense. A regular venire of 20 names and a special one of the same number were issued by Judge Morse, returnable this morning.

Twenty-five of the veniremen summoned appeared in court this morning and were examined by District Attorney Smith on their voir dire. Of that number 12 were sworn and accepted and their names were placed in the jury box. The others were excused, some being exempt, some being physically disqualified and others being excused upon their own motion. Of the first eight jurors called to the box today three were acceptable to both the state and defense and were sworn in to try the case. Three were excused upon peremptory challenges by the state and two upon peremptory challenges by the defense. Of the next five men called one was challenged for cause by the defense and was excused. The examination of the others had not been concluded when court adjourned for the noon recess.

Motion for New Trial.

Judge Hall this morning denied defendant's motion for a new trial in the case of Lila Read against Charles Read. Plaintiff was recently granted a divorce from defendant and was awarded $70 per month alimony. The motion for a new trial was made for the purpose of having the matter of alimony gone into again.

MAGAZINES FOR HOSPITALS

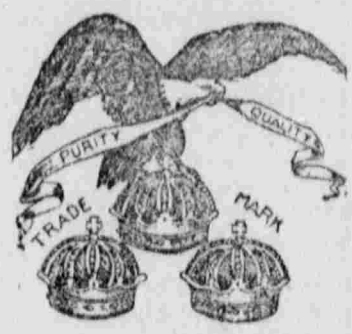

News Book Store Establishing a Free Distribution Station.

Both the Holy Cross hospital and St. Mark's hospital, as well as the County Infirmary, have long felt the need of having some central station or depot in the city established, to which people who felt so inclined could send old books and magazines for distribution among the patients and inmates of these institutions. Hundreds of people buy the current magazines, and after reading them, toss them aside. They accumulate around the household and become more or less of a nuisance to the housewife, while if people knew of some way of getting them to the hospitals and the poor house without too much trouble, they would gladly give them without charge.

The Deseret News book store at the request of the two hospitals, and the infirmary, has decided to establish a station for the reception of these magazines and books, and will see that they are delivered free once a week. All people who feel so disposed can leave their old books and magazines at the book store, and care will be taken to see that they reach the hospitals and the infirmary. No newspapers, pamphlets, or advertising matter will be accepted.

BAD BOY IN COURT.

Albert Cheetham, a lad 17 years old, was arraigned in the city court before City Judge C. B. Diehl this morning on a charge of incorrigibility and entered a plea of not guilty. The judge gave the boy a stern lecture, and told him that he would have to go and live with his aunt or with his grandmother, or else secure employment and keep off the streets. Unless he would do this he would be sent to the reform school the first time he was arrested. The boy agreed to do as the judge advised, and sentence was suspended.

ANOTHER TENDERFOOT.

Falls in With a Glib-Tongued Stranger And Loses $20.

John Spackman, a young man from Richmond, Cache county, on his way to his home from Caliente, where he had been working for several months, was made the victim of a couple of smooth gratters at the Rio Grande Western depot last night and lost $20 in the transaction. While awaiting his train, Spackman fell in with a glib-tongued stranger, who proposed that they go up town while they waited for their train. Spackman agreed to this, and as they were walking toward town, the new friend was accosted by a man of business-like appearance, who told the friend that his goods were ready for delivery, but that he would have to pay $20 at once.

Spackman's acquaintance searched his pockets in vain for money, and was able to find only a check for $800. He proposed that Spackman loan him the $20, and he would deposit as security the check for $800. Spackman handed the money over without a protest, when his acquaintance said that he had to go up the street for a block or two, and for Spackman to wait for him at the depot. Spackman waited for five hours, but the man never returned. Spackman then notified the police and was told that he had been swindled. No trace of the confidence men has yet been found.

CHARTS FOR ST. LOUIS.

Lincoln School Pupils Prepare Some For Exhibition at World's Fair.

Pupils of the third and fourth grades of the Lincoln school have prepared some very interesting and instructive illustrative charts for exhibition at the world's fair which have been submitted to Supt. Christensen to be turned over to the director of Utah's educational exhibit. The charts, which are five in number, illustrate the wheat, silk and dairy industries of the state and also the chief industry of Japan and China, namely, tea and rice. The wheat chart shows the evolution of wheat from the field on through until it is finally made into bread. Small bottles are attached to the chart containing samples of flour made by the pupils and also a small loaf of bread made by them. Attached to the chart with neat ribbons is a miniature sack of flour made by the pupils and the charts are decidedly neat and creditable and will no doubt attract considerable attention at the fair.
