IMPORTANT TO THE TRAVELER.

It is the duty of all persons before starting on a journey to ascertain by what route they can reach their destination with the least trouble, and if there are two or more roads leading to the same point, to select the shortest and safest, and most comfortable.

We take pleasure in stating, that the CHICAGO & NORTH-WESTERN RAILWAY is the oldest, and several miles the shortest, route between Omaha and Chicago. Within the past two years the road has been put in admirable condition, and almost the entire line has been re-laid with steel rails.

The Depot in Chicago is centrally located, and as their trains arrive there thirty minutes in advance of all other passenger cars, can always be sure of making Eastern connections.

Close connections are made at Chicago with the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern, Michigan Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, Kankakee and others. Pan Handle Routes, for all points EAST and SOUTH-EAST.

If you are going to Chicago, or East, you should at all times purchase your tickets at the Old Pioneer Route.

The Chicago and North-Western. You will find on all through trains Pullman Sleepers, new and magnificent Day Coaches, and the best Smoking and Second Class Cars now on any road in the United States.

Particular information with maps, time tables, etc., may be had at any of the Through Ticket Offices in the West, or upon personal or written application to J. W. Irons, Ticket Agent, Salt Lake City. EVENTING NEWS.

Friday, July 2, 1875.

Local and Other Matters.

TEMPERATURE.—82 degrees F. in the shade 1 p.m. to-day. Fine.

Trains Late.—The U. P. train is four hours and the G. P. train one and a half hours late, to-day.

Adjourned.—The Twentieth Ward Institute has adjourned for the season, to meet on the second Thursday in next October.

Vacation.—At noon to-day the Twentieth Ward Seminary adjourned for a six weeks' vacation, during the heated term.

Child Lost.—Yesterday a lady lost a child but—white hair trimmed with blue ribbon—lost at Temple street or vicinity. The finder will confer a favor by leaving it at this office for the owner.

Woman's Expenses for July 1st contain "Latter-day Saints," "The Wife's Appeal," "R. S. Reports," "A Woman's Thoughts," "Eve's Curse," "A Modest at Church," "About Letter-Writing," etc.

Pagilistic.—Last evening a couple of East Temple Street merchants were unable to see alike on certain matters, which made one of them so indignant that he undertook to pound his arguments into the head of the other with his fist, for which Justice Pyper fined him $5.

General Holiday.—The coming Fourth of July will not be celebrated by any special demonstration, in this city, further than by making Monday, the 5th, a general holiday among all classes, which we understand to be almost the universal intention.

The Medal.—The match game of croquet, for the Lindsay championship medal, was played yesterday, at the Gardens, between the Daynes and Snyder clubs, resulting in a victory for the former, who carried away the trophy.

The medal can be seen at Daynes & Son's store, and Mr. Daynes is ready to receive challenges to contest for the medal, in accordance with rules, which are understood.

How It Happened.—J. M. Ferris, of Eden, Weber County, writes to the Junction that details of a severe accident which lately occurred to his son in that locality. When descending the canyon with a load of lumber, by one of his horses springing forward the young man was suddenly thrown down behind the animal and in front of the single-track. The horse ran and he was dragged under and both wheels passed over the body. When freed from the wagon he got upon his feet and immediately fell into the creek, which was nearly dry, when his younger brother, who accompanied him, rushed to his assistance, and the young man who was hurt having become insensible, he took what measures he could under the circumstances, and he finally showed signs of life. After he was conveyed home it was discovered that the only bones broken were some of his ribs, and he is now in a fair way for recovery.

NOTICE.—The Board of Directors of the Deseret Agricultural and Manufacturing Society are requested to meet at the Historian's Office, Saturday evening, July 3rd, 1875, at 7:30 p.m.

GEORGE E. WALLACE, Secretary.

Home Again.—Darginal friends, C. R. Savage and R. P. Nealen, Esq., arrived home from their trip to the Bay, at one o'clock this afternoon. They left this city June 29. The latter gentleman calling on us, enables us to say that he enjoyed his trip immensely, thinks California a great country, and the people there enterprising and liberal. He looks tanned and more rugged, has lost his cough, and feels considerably set up in health generally, as well as highly pleased with his excursion experience.

Return of Utah's West Point Cadet.—By this evening's train, Second Lieutenant Willard Young is expected to reach home.

In June, 1871, the young gentleman received the appointment to the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., having prepared himself for the examination of that institution at the Deseret University.

By close attention to study and a marked interest taken in every department of the Academy, he has risen in all his classes, until now he graduates fourth in the class of forty-three representative young men of every State in the Union.

In acknowledging the credit he has done himself and the honor to the people he represents, in graduating so high in his class, the government has appointed him to the Corps of Engineers, which is the highest distinction that can be conferred upon a graduating cadet, and one that is enjoyed by but three others of the class.

The success of Utah's first West Point cadet further confirms the erroneous notion of the idea that the minds of polygamous children are inferior to those of monogamic percentage. The Chicago Times of June 28th says:

"A son of Brigham Young has graduated from the military academy at West Point, standing third in his class. It has been said that polygamy results in the impairment of the mental faculties of the offspring, but this does not seem to prove the theory."

A number of the relatives and personal friends of Lieutenant Young got to Ogden this afternoon to meet him and Mr. Spencer Clawson, his traveling companion from New York.
