Lively Fracas-Two Accidents .-The following are from the Territo.

rial Enquirer:

Quite a lively fraces occured on Sunday last at Payson, which caus-ed no little excitement in the town for two or three days after. Our in-formant states that a young man named Henry Gough was intoxicat-ed and created a disturbance in the vicinity of M. Box's livery stable, when some of his comranions warn when some of his companions warn ed ihim of the approach of the marshal and urged him to go home. Gough, hewever, declined to leave, and commence to use loud threats against any police afficer who might attempt to quiet or arrest him. The attempt to quiet or arrest him. The officer came up soon after and sought to arrest this disturber of the peace, but was violently assaulted hy him, Gough pylling him by the beard during the stroggle. The young man's father, Richard Gough, then appeared on the scene and assisted his son in his attempt to resist go-ing to jail, by forcing himself be-tween the two and trying to loosen the officer's hold, while the younger Gough still maintained his hold on the officer's beard.
