Colburn and Frank J. Cannon, for $20,000.

The success of the revival meetings in the First Baptist church has stirred up a greater interest in the meetings now being held in the East Side Baptist church by Rev. Dr. Lamkin. The auditorium of the latter church is not large enough to hold the crowd. Over 75 people have expressed a desire at the East Side church to lead a Christian life, and quite a number have already united with the church. These will be baptized this evening.

Dan's Review says of business conditions obtaining in this city for the week ending April 23: "Business improves somewhat as the spring advances, and while still quiet, is about normal for the season. Better weather, but limited trade and collections are about fair. Crop indications are favorable and sheep shearing in southern districts is in full swing. The product is moving freely at satisfactory prices. And returns should shortly help the situation and improve collections."

The Men's club of the First Congregational church held a well attended meeting Monday, in the parlors of the church, and listened to a lecture by Engineer Hayward on electricity. Mr. Hayward covered the general field pretty thoroughly, giving an interesting historical resume of the subject with description of the earlier developments after the discovery of the fact that the fluid could be generated and made of practical use.

Rev. Dr. J. L. Albritton, who was formerly pastor of the First Methodist church in this city, is now pastor of the Methodist church at Lewisburg, Pa., but he and his family are compelled to lodge at the local hotel, as the parsonage is under attachment. The previous pastor, Rev. R. H. Colburn, had trouble with his congregation, and left for another field after attaching the parsonage for $100 he claimed coming to him from the church. Until the matter is settled, Dr. Albritton will reside at the hotel.

Lee Burns, formerly a railroad employee, who was released from the city jail on suspended sentence, was arrested yesterday by Officer Davies, on the charge of vagrancy. Burns had a lady's pocketbook in his coat pocket. There was no money in the purse, and when questioned by the officers, Burns said he was out with a lady and that she spent the money together. He said he forgot to return the purse to her. It would not take any great amount of evidence for the officers to believe that Burns stole the purse. He was locked up pending a hearing before Judge Diehl.

The funeral of Mrs. Charles Smith took place this afternoon. The husband, who has come into a deal of unpleasant notoriety of late defrayed the expense of many things for which which credit has not been given him. Altogether he has not been nearly as black as his accusers have painted him. There are facts in the lamentable case that might have put matters in a far different light. But the grave will not cover them and it is probably well that it will. It should be stated, however, that the woman was not divorced for inhuman treatment or anything else. Her suit was for separate maintenance and that only.

Tra Mann and H. C. Tovey called on the "News" today and stated that they, with Ralph Hepworth and Mark Holbrook, caused the arrest of two men Monday for wire stealing, having followed the culprits from Bountiful to this city, when they handed them over to an officer. The boys state that they heard the men cutting the wires and immediately ordered them to desist. Then they notified Constable Charles Ellis, who gave them permission to arrest the boys under arrest, but as they resisted the boys resorted to the only alternative and followed them into this city. One of the thieves got away, but the others will have a hearing Monday at Farmington.

There continues to be war between the two upper classes of the High school, the latest "unpleasantness" being in connection with the class day programs. The juniors are to give their program first, and wishing to "get the horse on" the seniors have been advised to let the latter so as to appropriate their program, and make the senior class day a decidedly tame affair. The rivalry culminated the other night, in a clash by a crowd of seniors in the First Presbyterian church where the juniors were rehearsing, and an attempt was made to grab the paper containing the program. However, one of the junior girls tucked it into her sash and escaped. Principal Eaton has now taken "a hand in the game" and sternly forbids any more spying.

Dr. W. C. Alban, of Walla Walla, Wash., says: "I find Herpicide all that is claimed for it as the cure of dandruff, and I shall prescribe it." B. F. Redman's scheme for weekly excursions at conference rates, Saturdays and Sundays during the summer, was referred to a special committee. The board decided to add the local brewers in their endeavor to bring to Salt Lake this summer the national convention of the United States Brewers' association. The following business men were elected to membership in the club: From Salt Lake, P. F. Phelps, M. D. Wells, Frank C. Donovan, Fred G. Palmer, Charles H. Griffin; from Ogden, George W. A LIVELY MIX-UP.

Window Smashed and Man and Woman Arrested and Placed in Jail.

A row at the Continental rooming house last night, during which a large plate glass window was smashed, resulted in the arrest of Mrs. James Wilson, 35 years of age, on the charge of insanity, and R. Cooley, 28 years of age, on the charge of destroying property. Cooley and the woman had an altercation, and the former smashed the window, although he says it was an accident. When Officer Brown placed them under arrest they resisted, and it was only after a lively mix-up that he landed them in jail.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured

"I have been subject to sciatic rheumatism for years," says E. H. Waldron, of Wilton, Junction, Iowa. "My joints were stiff and gave me much pain and discomfort. My joints would crack when I straightened up. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and have been thoroughly cured. Have not had a pain or ache from the old trouble for many months. It is certainly a most wonderful liniment." For sale by all druggists.

SUIT FOR DAMAGES.

J. B. Taylor has been made defendant in a suit filed in the district court yesterday by W. G. Ehlerl who asks judgment for $2,000 as damages for an alleged unlawful and malicious arrest and imprisonment of plaintiff at the instance of defendant. Plaintiff alleges that on April 18, he was arrested upon a complaint sworn to by Taylor charging him with stealing 12 planks valued at $10, and was confined in jail for two hours. On April 20, he was arraigned before Judge Diehl and acquitted. By such unlawful and malicious arrest and confinement he has been damaged in the sum stated above.

Street Car Runs Into One With Usual Disastrous Result.

As car 28 was coming up from Murray shortly after 11 o'clock today it ran into Holey & Co's wagon at the corner of Sixth South and State, reducing it to a pile of kindlingwood. Fortunately, however, the driver, Charles White of 618 South Second East street, escaped uninjured, although his load of butter and eggs was converted into an unpalatable mess. The accident is supposed to have been the result of too close driving.

(Special to the "News")
Lehi, April 27.—While attempting to board a Rio Grande freight train this morning, Charles E. Bruce missed his hold and was thrown against the wheels, his head striking with terrific force. He was picked up unconscious and given prompt medical attention, but it is feared that his injuries will prove fatal.

Bruce came to Lehi yesterday morning in company with Leonard Bruce, a cousin, and Ed. Bader. The men live at Poona, Colo., and were on their way to Butte when the sad accident occurred. The injured man was taken to Provo, where he was placed in the hospital.
