

FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

Madam Capplan's concert will be held at night, at the Theatre.

The Territorial Constitutional Convention will meet on Monday, Saturday at heretofore erroneously stated. The convention to nominate a Delegate to Congress will meet the same day.

This forenoon a lady named Eccles, who lives in the southeast part of the city, while in a state of temporary insanity, ran out of the house and jumped down a deep well that was on the premises. When she was on the ground, she was found by the Territorial Constable. He examined the patient and found that she had received a severe cut in the head, and that one of her arms was broken by the plunge. It is supposed that she threw herself into the well with suicidal intent.—Ogden Herald.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Delegates' Credentials.—Delegates from Salt Lake County to the people's Territorial Convention can obtain their credentials of Mr. Francis Cope, at the City Hall, just before noon on Monday, October 9th.

No Vacancy.—Yesterday Gibson Clark, the appointee of the Governor for Probate Judge of Washington County, presented his official bonds. They were not received nor filed, on the ground that the office was not vacant.

Tabernacle Choir.—Conductor Beeley requests us to state that there will be a practice meeting of the Tabernacle Choir, at the Tabernacle, at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening. All the members are expected to attend punctually at the hour stated.

Home Dramatic Performances.—The sale of reserved seats to the Chester and Two Orphans' performance will commence to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock. The Club have been actively rehearsing for the past month, and now feel in readiness for both representations. The full cast, particulars of the story, the orchestra, and the vocal quartet, will be found in our advertising columns.

Deplorable Accident.—This morning a ten-year-old son of Bishop E. F. Sheets was riding to school on horseback, when the animal fell and threw the little fellow off. The unfortunate boy received a severe injury upon his head, causing blood to flow from his ears. It is uncertain whether the injury was the result of the fall or whether the horse tramped upon him. He has been insensible for several hours, and it is feared that a concussion of the brain has ensued.

Purloining Pistols.—Frederick Kassakoff, a youthful Russian, is charged with purloining two pistols, the property of Mr. Sam Levi. One of the weapons was found on his person, and the other was discovered in a satchel, said to belong to Kassakoff. He innocently repudiated the ownership of the satchel and consequently of pistol number two. This morning he asked a continuance of his case till this afternoon, to enable him to procure counsel, which was granted.

Madam Capplan's Concert.—An event that has been the general talk in musical circles during several days will take place at the Theatre to-night.—Madam Capplan's concert. Besides the singing of the noted artist herself, the entertainment will be participated in by a number of the best musicians of the city. The programme is of the higher class of compositions and will doubtless afford special delight to those more or less acquainted with the intricacies of the divine art, and general pleasure to all classes who may avail themselves of an opportunity to enjoy a genuine musical feast.

Grand Jury Empanelled.—In the District Court this morning the grand jury was sworn in a body and charged. Mr. G. D. Hall was selected for foreman.

The charge of His Honor, Chief Justice Hunter, was brief and pointed. He read the statute defining the duties of the jury, and impressed upon them the importance of their position as guardians of the public safety. The unusually large number of homicides that had occurred in the District of late was alluded to, and the necessity of inquiring into all cases of that nature. He drew the attention of the jury to the prevalence of polygamy or bigamy, which could not, he contended, be rightly recognized in any other light than as a crime. He read the first section of the Edmund's law, which defines the offense of bigamy or polygamy, and provides for its punishment. He directed attention to the special necessity for an inquiry into all cases of that character. After the delivery of the charge the jury retired to their room to begin the discharge of their duties.

A Curious Character.—E. L. Kille is a peculiar character. He professes to be an agent for the Singer Sewing Machine Company, but he is not. He makes a living by entering the houses of people with a business-like air, and offering to adjust sewing machines out of gear for a consideration, which is generally from twenty to fifty times more than the work is worth. One instance has come under our observation in which he adjusted a machine in a few minutes and charged and was paid five dollars. The Singer agency was notified of the matter, and not only stated that Kille was not an employee of the company, but, on examination, that the work done by him was only of the value of a few cents. At another place the same individual bought a machine up town under the pretence of taking it to be repaired. Instead of returning it, he took an older and inferior one back instead. "Kille" doesn't cease his questionable career; he will land himself in troubled waters before long, as the Singer agency is looking him up.

A FEARFUL ACCIDENT.

JAMES MOOREGORE FALLS A DISTANCE OF FIFTY FEET AND STILL SURVIVES.

About noon to-day James McGregor, an employee of Mr. F. E. Schoppe, was engaged in stripping the shingles from the roof of the Richards Building, on Second South Street, a short distance west of the White House, preparatory to covering the roof with tile. He got too near the west end of the structure, lost his balance and fell to the ground, a distance of about fifty feet. Mr. Patterson, who witnessed the accident, states that he landed upon some loose shingles, the force with which he struck being so great as to cause his body to rebound. He was picked up in an insensible condition, but life was not extinct. He was at once conveyed to St. Mark's Hospital. The extent of the unfortunate man's injuries is not yet known, but it would be marvelous if he should survive after his fall from the roof of a three-story structure.

Another of the Veterans.—Elder David Nelson, Sen., of Ogden, is dead. The services over his remains were held last Friday. We find the following sketch regarding him in the Herald of that town:

The deceased, David Nelson, was the son of Jonathan and Eunice Stone Nelson; he was born June 18th, 1801, at Seward, Worcester County, Mass. He was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Dec. 1833, by Elder Erastus M. Green. The same day he was confirmed and ordained a Priest by the same person. On March 8th, 1836, he was married to Mary T. Miller, daughter of Geo. and Mary Miller, of Providence, Rhode Island. The same year he gathered with the Saints to Kirtland, Ohio, and there he was ordained an Elder under the hands of Father Joseph Smith. After remaining in Kirtland for some time he removed, in the fall of 1838, to Jackson County, Missouri, but on arriving there he found the Saints had been driven out of that county by an edict of Governor Boggs. He removed to Jackson, Mo., and remained there four years and a half. In 1843 he went to Nauvoo. In Nauvoo, while guarding the temple, he took a severe cold which culminated in the loss of the sight of his left eye. Elder Nelson remained in Nauvoo, until 1845, when he and his family were expelled with the Saints from their beloved city. While in Nauvoo he was ordained a member of the 10th quorum of Seventies, and subsequently a High Priest. From Nauvoo he went to St. Louis, Mo., where, on the 9th of July, 1849, death deprived him of his wife at the age of 32 years. In 1852 Elder Nelson left St. Louis for Utah, where he arrived September 16th. He first settled at Kay's Ward and after two years, as a husband and father, he came to Salt Lake City, where he continued to reside until his demise.

In the winter of 1872-3, in company with his son, James H. Nelson, he went on a mission to his native land, and was warmly received by many of the friends of his boyhood and other acquaintances. In 1880 he was married again, to Miss Sarah Brown, of Bedford, England.

A Remarkable Escape.—Last evening A. W. Cooley, who lives across the river, had placed himself on the outside of too much security. The detestable stuff probably had a soporific effect on his system, as he is supposed to have lain down in his wagon, and become folded in the embrace of morpheus. While he was in this oblivious condition his team wandered westward till it reached the railroad track near the Fifteenth Ward meeting-house. There the outfit met with a serious impediment. The train from the south came snorting and gliding along at an unfortunate moment, for crash it went against the wagon, carrying the vehicle, team and man a distance of about fifty feet. The wagon was rendered a wreck, the team was scratched, cut and otherwise injured. When Mr. Cooley was picked up, the prevalent idea was that he was dead. His corpse was conveyed to the City Hall, and when he had slept off the influence of the soporific fluids with which his system was impregnated, it was found that he had escaped without the semblance of a scratch. The votaries of intemperance might triumphantly state that had Mr. Cooley been clear of intoxicants he would have been killed by the case. But this argument is completely upset by the fact that had he acted upon temperance principles he would not have given the train a trial at extinguishing him. He would also have had a sound wagon and team and five dollars to "boot," the sum in which he was fined by Justice Spivey this morning for placing his team in a position in which he could not take care of himself.

Educational Convention.—The adjourned meeting of the Territorial Educational Convention assembled at the Council House at 2 p.m. yesterday, Hon. L. John Nuttall, Territorial Superintendent of District Schools, presiding. The Secretary, Mr. J. B. Malben, called the roll, the following answering to their names: President John R. Park, Superintendents F. R. Clayton, Beaver; John T. Cairns, Jr., Cache; Anson V. Call, Davis; John E. Dalley, Park; J. H. E. Mason, Morgan; Patrick L. Rich, T. B. Lewis, Salt Lake; John E. Malben, Sanpete; Daniel Harrington, Sevier; John Boyden, Summit; Joshua R. Clark, Tooele; Milton H. Hardy, Utah; A. Hewell, Wasatch.

By request, Mr. F. G. Sanborn, representing H. L. Hancock & Co., of San Francisco, gave some explanations regarding the new and interesting catalogue. Mr. W. F. Holz, of Harper Brothers, explained the merits of Harrington's graded speller. The subject of adoption of school books was discussed at considerable length, but was deferred for further consideration, and the convention adjourned till six o'clock to-night.

The Opera House.—Dr. McKenney, of the Walker Opera House, by special request, negotiated with Dr. Haas for the production of his play, "Abandoned to Fate," for Friday and Saturday evenings of this week. The rates of admission will be reduced especially for the conference, and no doubt his efforts will be appreciated by all classes of strangers crowding the Theatre.

TO THE PEOPLE.

The high tuition exacted by professors of music has placed its acquirement in the hands of comparatively few, and beyond the reach of many. Hundreds of dollars are expended in obtaining a knowledge of music, and many would be glad to continue lessons, having once made a good start, who are prevented by circumstances. The public demand a change. In the interest of THE PEOPLE we have arranged a system of classes for the piano, organ and guitar, whereby the youth of our city who have not already engaged teachers, can have an opportunity of learning music, with a fair prospect of obtaining a thorough course at much less expense than by the old method of individual lessons. Those preferring the latter can also be accommodated at reasonable rates. We have noted with pleasure the good work of Brother Evan Stephens. His success should encourage us all to work for the good of the people at large. The 21 pupils selected from the Sabbath Schools for one term on the Organ gratis were to have commenced this week, but owing to a few wards not reporting, these classes will be held until next Monday, when it is hoped all will be ready. Our terms to additional classes will be 20 cents per lesson for each pupil on either instrument—piano, organ or guitar. One lesson per week. Also classes in Telegraphy at 10 cents a lesson. Very cheap and useful.

Respectfully, FLORA SHIP HILL, H. J. HILL, Box 227, 1st South, opposite 14th Ward Assembly Rooms.

Hanchett & Carter, proprietors of the great 13th Street Livery, Chicago, in a letter dated Dec. 5, 1879, speak thus of Kendall's Spavin Cure: "It is several years since we bought the first of you, and we do not hesitate to say it is the very best article for curing splints, scratches, sprains, etc., that we ever used. We would not be without it in our large livery for thousands of dollars. We properly call it one of the greatest discoveries of the age. It stands without a peer in horse ailments." See advt. d 5w
