DESERET EVENING NEWS.
Wednesday, ... April 21, 1869.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRICAL.—Last night Mrs. Fanny Morgan Phelps made her first appearance before a Salt Lake audience, in "The Actress by Daylight," and the "Wild Irish Girl," in both of which she was applauded, in the latter vehemently, keeping the house in an almost continual roar of laughter. She was called twice before the curtain.

Mr. Hardie played excellently in the first piece as Daniel Downright; Mr. Graham, as Downright, jun., also appeared to advantage. In the second piece Miss Lockhart's page was well played. The other characters were well sustained.

Both pieces will be repeated to-night.

MOVEMENTS OF PRESIDENT YOUNG AND PARTY.—The party held meeting at Scipio last evening, Elder W. Woodruff and President D. H. Wells addressed the congregation. They left Scipio shortly before nine this morning, with the intention of staying at Fillmore to-night.

THE SUPPOSED MURDERERS ARRESTED.—We have been informed, on reliable authority, that the supposed murderers of Elder Griffith Roberts have been arrested and will have an examination to-day.

IN THE CITY.—Last evening we were favored with a visit from H. Rogers, Esq., representing Messrs. J. A. and J. H. Griswold & Co., wholesale dealers in teas, coffees and fancy groceries, and C. M. Simmons, Esq., of the firm of Esmay, Simmons & Co., importers and jobbers of foreign and domestic wines and liquors; both of Chicago. These gentlemen visit our city to extend the business connections of their respective firms, which have long been well known to our merchants; they leave to-morrow for Corrinne.

MARRIED.—By Elder Joseph F. Smith on Monday the 19th instant, Mr. James Goddard to Miss Veran Crompton, both of this city.

POLICE.—An Indian was this morning fined $25 for stealing a revolver.

"Anon" has our thanks for his communication, but he will observe, the details of the sad affair were given at length in our issue of Monday. We shall always be pleased to hear from him.

PRISONERS TAKEN TO OGDEN.—We learn by Deseret State Telegraph that Thomas Braingan, charged with shooting Russell some three weeks since, and Augustus Taske charged with killing Westlake yesterday morning at Wasatch, were last night taken to Ogden for safe keeping. It is thought that they will be tried there.

RETAIL CO-OPERATIVE STORE.—Our readers will notice, in our advertising columns to-day, the announcement of H. B. Clawson, Esq., General Superintendent of Zion's Wholesale Co-operative Mercantile Institution that a retail branch has been opened at the store lately occupied by Messrs. Ransohoff & Co., at which all kinds of goods, hats, caps, boots, shoes, &c., for gentlemen's use are offered for sale at retail at the lowest market rates.

STATE OF THE WEATHER.—Salt Lake City, very unpleasant with occasional snow storms, roads in very bad condition.

By Deseret Telegraph line: St. George, clear, north wind blowing, no rain or snow yet. Thermometer 56, at 8 a.m.; Parowan, cloudy but mild; about six inches of snow fell yesterday and last night; Beaver, light fall of snow through the night; at 9 a.m. the sun shining and pleasant; Cove Creek, cold and quite cloudy, about five inches of snow, snowing now; Fillmore, cloudy, snowing pretty hard; been thawing all night; gloomy and wet; Scipio, very gloomy this morning, looks much like winter, two inches of snow; Springtown, snowing and very cold, been snowing for the last two days, but melts fast; Moroni, been snowing all the morning, two inches deep now, quite a cold wind blowing; Nephi, very stormy, been snowing all the morning, the roads very muddy; Payson, quite cold and cloudy, snowing; Springville, snowing a little, the roads very bad; American Fork, wet, stormy and snowing, snow melts fast; Farmington, been snowing all day; Logan, stormy.

EASTWARD.—The Cheyenne Leader, speaking of the late Indian troubles between Forts Laramie and Fetterman, says.

The facts are that four men were conveying the mail between the two forts when they were attacked by Indians as is supposed, one having been found dead, and the others being missing. The paymaster left Fort Russell for Laramie yesterday morning, with an escort of twenty-five men; but upon receipt of a telegram containing the above intelligence, the commanding officer at Russell sent a re-inforcement of fifty men to overtake and accompany the paymaster and his first escort. Laramie is garrisoned with six companies of cavalry. The story of Fort Fetterman being demanded to surrender to Red Cloud, does not receive much credence here.

This of course contradicts the report concerning Red Cloud's demand for the surrender of Fetterman."

"Mattie Lee, who has been on trial in Omaha the past few days, charged with the murder of Maggie McCormick, was acquitted on the 12th inst."

Died:

In this City, at the residence of H. W. Lawrence, Esq., on Sunday, April 18th, of cancer, Margaret Dunkin Higgins, wife of Nelson Higgins, aged, 73 years.

Deceased has been a worthy member of the Church for many years and emigrated to this country in 1851. She died in full faith of the gospel and in a sure hope of a place among the just in the morning of the first resurrection.—[Com.

At Smithfield, on the 13th inst., of inflammation of the lungs, Louisa Poole, daughter of Alva and Phebe Houston Alexander, and wife of Jeremiah Hatch.

Deceased was born on the 2nd of January, 1825, at Agnith, Sullivan County, N.H.; was baptized in 1841, moved to Nauvoo the following year, and came to this valley in 1850. She leaves a husband and nine children to mourn her loss. She lived and died in the hopes of a glorious resurrection. Happy in life, knowing that she was truly filling the measure of her creation, happy in death, knowing she will again meet those she loves at the dawn of that day when the grave gives up its prisoners.—Com.
