

McFARLAND WINS RACE

Defeats Pye After a Hard Ride Of Nearly Five Miles.

KRAMER TAKES HALF MILE.

The Australian pursuit race between McFarland and Pye at the Salt Palace saucer last evening was easily the feature of the program of sprint races. It was a grueling contest from the start to the finish, and the victor was not known until the last lap. The Australian started with a rush and passed his opponent after riding nearly five miles. Pye got a splendid start and gained about forty yards on McFarland. He managed to keep the advantage for two miles or so but then slowly but surely began to weaken. McFarland rode steadily until he knew Pye was losing ground. Then the big speedster started a sprint which he kept up for two laps and rushed ahead of Pye.

AMATEUR EVENTS.

The amateur pursuit race, was another interesting event. While it did not last long it was a bitter contested affair. Scannell proved to be the winner. Not once did he take place but kept gaining until he had retired every man on the track.

The Kramer-Clark combination was too much for the other riders in the final of the half-mile race. The Australian pulled Kramer from the start and two laps from home dropped out. The champion went it alone but finished first by about four lengths.

The limit men racing the scratch men in the two-mile handicap professional prevented the contest from getting away on the start and proved the downfall of the fast ones. Williams beat West and Samsonson finished in the order named.

Will Fight for the Title of World's Heavyweight Champion.

James J. Jeffries Chosen to Referee Fight—Promises to Be a Stubbornly Contested Affair.

Burns or Squires? Thousands are asking the question today and thousands are expressing their opinions as to the outcome of the world's heavyweight championship fight, which is scheduled to take place at Colma tomorrow between Tommy Burns, the Canadian fighter, who lays claim to the title, and big Bill Squires, the Australian champion.

There is a world of interest in this contest and Manager Coffey of the club promoting the fight is confident there will be a record-breaking crowd at the ring-side. There is interest in the matter of Burns and Squires made from the fact that it is a championship affair. It will be the first public appearance of Squires in America and a great deal of attention will be paid to his performance. The fight is a great deal to the big fellow, if Squires actually defeats Burns Jeffries will undoubtedly take up the offer of $50,000 made by "Doc" Hickey and fight for the world's championship.

James J. Jeffries, champion of all champions, has been selected as the third man in the ring. The battle may mean a great deal to the big fellow, if Squires actually defeats Burns Jeffries will undoubtedly take up the offer of $50,000 made by "Doc" Hickey and fight for the world's championship.

Jeffries is abnormal in many respects. He is of a weight greater than that at which he is likely to meet any of the fighters who are in the ring. He is a powerful man, and his strength is a great asset to him. He is a powerful man, and his strength is a great asset to him.

WHAT NAUGHTON SAYS.

W. W. Naughton, the San Francisco sporting writer and expert on matters of fact, writes interestingly as follows concerning Burns and Squires:

"No place of higher interest is looked for on the eve of battle than Bill Squires of Australia and Tommy Burns, the Canadian. Each has trained under conditions which were exactly to his liking and neither has met with the semblance of a mishap. The two sturdy rangers are equipped of everything in the shape of superior flesh. They are clear-eyed and muscular looking and they are as brown-skinned as gypsies from swimming and sun bathing beneath summer skies."

"On the face of it it looks as though the world's championship fight on the afternoon of the Fourth of July should be one of those stubborn tussles that live in memory. It is not a case of a couple of careless fighters, but of two heavyweights being reached up for the occasion, as is frequently the case with modern gladiators."

NATURAL BORN ATHLETES.

"Squires and Burns are natural born athletes and get up with a bad taste in your mouth. You want something to stimulate your liver. Just try Herbine. The liver regulator, positive cure for Constipation, Dyspepsia and all liver complaints. Mrs. E. W. Worth, Texas, writes: 'I have used Herbine in my family for years. Words can't express what I think about it. Everybody in my household is happy and well. We owe it to Herbine. Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept., 11 and 13 South Main Street, B.'"
