FORTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 27. — Randolph from the committee on military affairs, reported a bill already published for the relief of Fitzjohn Porter.

Logan made a minority report. He dissented in toto from the preamble; first, that the President had no authority to organize a commission to examine the case by taking ex parte testimony; second, that the action of the court martial is not reviewable by Congress; third, Congress has no right to pay a person for services not rendered because exclusion from the army. The bill was placed on the calendar.

Edmunds offered a resolution which was agreed to, instructing the committee on judiciary to inquire whether in the settlement or adjustment between the United States and the railroad mentioned as provided for in the act of Feb. 22, 1875, to provide for settlement with certain railroad companies, any discrimination or difference of treatment has been made by United States officers in favor of one or more such companies as against others, and if so, what further legislation, if any, on the subject is expedient.

Pendleton introduced a bill to authorize the appointment of medical inspectors in the navy to the office of chief of bureau of medicine and surgery and to remove the disability of the present incumbent.

Consideration was then resumed of the joint resolution introduced by Bayard to withdraw the legal tender power of United States notes.

Bayard spoke in favor of the resolution.

Pendleton, Ingalls and Cameron presented a petition of ex-soldiers and sailors for the passage of the Weaver bill to pay such persons the difference in value between greenbacks and gold. Cameron desired to say in presenting the petition that he believed every one of the signatures was forged.

Teller (by request)—To regulate Indian affairs. Teller said the bill was drawn by a gentleman conversant with Indian affairs, but he (Teller) dissented from a considerable portion of it. Adjourned.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 27.—Goode, chairman of the Yorktown celebration, reported a bill appropriating $100,000 for a monument at Yorktown, and appropriating $20,000 to enable the committee on the Yorktown celebration to make all necessary arrangements for such a celebration of the centennial anniversary of the battle of Yorktown, as shall be of fit historical significance of the occasion; passed.

A bill passed setting apart for park purposes certain lands in California, on which are growing the redwood or big trees.

The bill declaring all public roads post routes, was reported from the committee on postoffices and post roads, but a point of order being raised against it, the bill was withdrawn.

The House then went into committee of the whole on the revision of rules.

Rule 1st, relative to the election of officers, was agreed to. Rule 2d, about the duties of the Speaker, was agreed to. Rule 3d, duties of the clerk; agreed to. Rule 4th, duties of the sergeant-at-arms, was passed over for the present. Rules 5, 6 and 7, on the duties of officers; were agreed to. The committee arose and the House adjourned.

EASTERN.

CAPITAL NOTES.

WASHINGTON, 27.—Caldwell, of Kentucky, in behalf of the private land claims committee, endeavored to obtain unanimous consent to-day to report for the passage of a resolution directing the Secretary of the Interior to suspend action on the New Idria Company's application for a patent until Congress shall have disposed of the pending bill on the subject of the McGarrahan claim.

Page promptly objected to the resolution, therefore it was not read, but it will doubtless be brought before the House within the next few days, as the committee will very soon be reached in the regular call for reports.

Senator Lamar's friends are much relieved by the advices received by Senator Gordon as to his condition. He has left Jacobson and is now at his home in Oxford, and his health improves steadily. He is therefore expected to resume his seat in the Senate very soon.

The Senate, during to-day's executive session, finally disposed of the long-standing subject of contest by confirming Norman Buck's nomination as one of the United States judges for Idaho, to succeed Associate Justice Park, who was nominated as his own successor nearly two years ago and then confirmed by the Senate, but whose commission was withheld by the President by reason of certain charges brought to light immediately after the date of his confirmation. The case was before the Senate in the last Congress and was discussed several times, but went over from one cause or another until to-day, when it was finally settled.

The Secretary of the Treasury has been invited by the Senate finance committee to give his views on the subject of funding.

A dispatch from Washington reports that the House committee on Territories has refused by a vote of 3 to 1, to change the political status of the Indian Territory.

The recent publication to the effect that Grant's nearest friends are authorized to announce that he is not a presidential candidate are known to have been impelled by the hope of eliciting contradictions of the fact from certain gentlemen. This expectation has failed, but it can be said on good authority that soon after the General reaches Mexico, one of his friends will make a statement in his behalf which will definitely settle Grant's status as a factor in the coming presidential struggle.

The Consul General at Melbourne writes the State department, Dec. 1, that several companies have been formed to develop the production of petroleum found in large quantities of good quality, in various parts of the colony. The trade of the United States with Australia is only four per cent. of the total trade of the latter with all countries. With Great Britain it is over $70,000,000; with the United States it is less than $3,000,000.

In the House to-day, Caldwell (Kentucky), from the committee on private land claims, asked leave to report a resolution instructing the Secretary of the Interior and his subordinates to cease and desist from hearing or in any way considering an application for a patent to any portion of the land known as Rancho Panoche Grande, in California, until the bill relative to that land now before Congress shall be disposed of. Page objected.

The Senate finance committee to day declared, by a vote of four against three, to report John M. Morton's nomination favorably.

MAINE MATTERS.

Adverse Ruling on the Fusionist Legislature—Everything Quiet.

BANGOR, 27.—The Supreme Court Justices to-day set forth their reasons in answer to the fusionists' questions for declining to recognize the fusionist legislature. They say, while not admitting even by implication that any legally organized body has submitted to them questions, yet they would be lacking in duty if they should fail to give the reasons which may guide citizens in pursuing their duty, as the Supreme Court must eventually in all cases like the present, pass upon the laws which so-called or actual legislative bodies pass. It is proper that that tribunal should consider it at once, with or without question, which is the one and only legislature of the two claimants.

The court says a large portion of this question has been decided in its answers to Governor Garcelon and the Council in issuing certificates of election to certain men as Senators and Representatives, who did not appear to be elected, and declining to issue to certain others who did appear to be elected, were in violation of their legal and constitutional obligations and duties. They cannot ignore the fact that Garcelon disregarded the opinion of the court given in answer to his question. He omitted to revoke the summonses illegally issued to men not elected; nor did he issue summonses to men who were elected. The officers who presided in the fusion branches of the legislature recognized men as members who were unlawfully introduced into them by unconstitutional means, and refused to recognize certain men who were lawfully elected.

It cannot be claimed that the fusion House ever had a quorum without counting men whom this court had declared not elected, and therefore they cannot recognize the fusion House as a legal body. The same is true of the Senate.

They then considered whether there is in existence a legal legislature, and conclude that in the organizations made peaceably, on the 13th of January, the republican House and Senate were made by a majority of the members appearing to be elected. They traverse the point raised that the republican organization was illegal, because no notice of the intended action was given the minority so as to enable them to participate, and say the minority were not excluded. The organization was publicly made and the want of notice did not invalidate the organization. Although the manner was irregular, yet the voice of the people is not to be stifled on that account, nor the government fail to be maintained. Full quorums were present and the Houses were therefore legal bodies. The Justices concluded by saying they only performed their solemn duty in deciding that the Senate presided over by Joseph A. Locke, and the House presided over by Geo. E. Weeks, are the legal and constitutional legislature of the State.

All the Justices signed the decision.

Augusta, 27.—The more ultra of the fusionists say that should the opinion of the Court be averse to their position they will adjourn in a body subject to the call of Gov. Smith; that Sawyer will continue to discharge the duties of Secretary of State, and all the returns and other documents from the fusion towns are to be sent to him. They said not more than half a dozen will take their seats in the republican legislature. Their constituents are bolstering them up to this; meanwhile they will memorialize Congress. But conversation with the more conservative element shows that this opinion is entertained by but few.

Portland, 27.—The proprietors of Congress Hall have decided not to let it to the fusion legislature on any terms. It will therefore probably not come here.

Augusta, 27.—The fusion House to-day accepted the report of the committee of investigation, that they had notified Wallace R White against whom charges of bribery were made to appear before them, but he had failed to do so. Adjourned until to morrow.

The Senate did not have a quorum and adjourned.

New Telegraph Company.

NEW YORK, 27.—The new American Union Telegraph Company opened for business yesterday to Buffalo, Boston, Baltimore and Canada, and intermediate points. The rates charged were exactly the same as the Western Union. The officers said they were not really ready for business, and would not be until about March 1st. They had consented to anticipate that date merely to accommodate the new French Cable Company, which desired to begin the transmission of messages to France and the Continent yesterday. The rates asked by the latter company are also similar to those of their competitors. The Anglo-American and direct cable companies, when asked whether no reduction was intended, the officers of the American Union Company said the question of rates had not yet been considered by the board of directors, and they really could not give any definite information on the subject.

Electric Light and the Moon.

The Sun says: The electric light in Menlo Park looked yellow in contrast with the light of the full moon last evening—as yellow as gaslights appear in contrast with electric lights. A number of globes that have been up 200, 300 and 400 hours have been found to be cracked where the wires pierce the glass, and have been taken down. Their places have been filled with new lamps, none of which have yet cracked. Edison said last evening that these new lamps gave him good reason to believe they would not crack at all. He has now 82 lights aglow on the circuit. This is the largest number yet used. Three new buildings are now in course of erection on the laboratory grounds. One is for the glass blowers, the second for 14 dynamo machines by which Edison proposes to start 700 lights, and the third is the machine shop.

Frank Leslie's Will.

Objections to the probate of the late Frank Leslie's will were filed yesterday by his two sons, Alfred and Henry. Henry, who calls himself Frank Leslie, Jr., avows that the making of the will was caused by fraud and circumvention, and undue influence practiced against the decedent by a person named as executrix, in the will, whose maiden name was Marion Florence Follen, otherwise known as Mrs. Frank Leslie; that such person was not, at the death of Frank Leslie, nor at any time, the wife of Frank Leslie; that at the time he executed the will, if he did execute it, he was insane and incompetent.

The Presidential Race.

CHICAGO, 27.—Murat Halstead telegraphs to his paper from Washington as follows respecting presidential prospects: There is every prospect that the Grant presidential boom will not last more than two weeks longer, it promises to end peremptorily and finally at the Pennsylvania State convention next week.

It is reliably learned here that some of Grant's most intimate friends in Philadelphia have authority from him to act in the premises, and they will withdraw his name from consideration as a candidate. The Pennsylvania convention where there will be delegates from several counties instructed for Grant, will give his friends an opportunity to speak out on the subject. His friends decline to enter into a contest for the position, and of late it has become very apparent to them that it would be impossible for him to get the nomination without a contest.

Halstead also quotes Jonas R Young (a great man) as saying that Sherman has been doing stalwart work in his own campaign, and has alarmed Blaine's followers and supporters, and that it is expected Blaine will devote himself to getting the Grant vote should Grant be withdrawn from the canvass.

Code Duello.

The Times New Orleans special says: The topic of conversation tonight at the hotels and public places is the forthcoming duel between State Treasurer Major E. H. Burke and Major H. J. Hearsay. Burke, besides being State Treasurer, is the editor of the New Orleans Democrat, the organ of the democratic party. Hearsay, was, a few months ago, editor of the Democrat. The difficulty arose from a newspaper discussion regarding the contract for city printing, which was awarded to the Democrat. Major Burke was challenged by Hearsay, and the challenge promptly accepted. Yesterday the seconds were engaged in arranging the details of the duel. The duel is arranged to take place to-morrow morning. A peaceable settlement of the affair is regarded as impossible.

New Orleans, 27.—The duel was fought this afternoon at Metairie ridge, near the city, with pistols; distance 10 paces. After firing two shots each, the friends interfered and the difficulty was adjusted.

Morton's Chances Good.

CHICAGO, 27. — The Journal's Washington special says: The action of the Senate finance committee to-day, in agreeing to report favorably upon the nomination of John M. Morton to be Collector of Internal Revenue at San Francisco, is a great surprise to the California delegation, which confidently expected an adverse report. The confirmation of Morton is now assured.

Politics in the Pivotal State.

The Journal's New York correspondent also says: The Tildenites and Tammanyites have gone in force to Albany, each striving to obtain an advantage over the other in filling vacancies in the State Central Committee. Urgent telegrams were received by the rivals commanding their presence. It is understood that the two Tilden members to be appointed will be Clauson, the great brewer, and Henry Havemeyer. The former will represent the Germans on the committee, and is regarded as favored by Oswald Oleanderfer, proprietor of the Staats Zeitung.
