HOLDS COURT AWHEEL.

The municipal court of Ogden, pre-rided over by Justice Howell, estab-lished a precedent yesterday by be-coming a bicycle court and was lit-erally held awheel. It was a case where the evidence could not come to the justice, so the justice went to the evidence. Fred M. Tout, who has been recently appointed special of-florer to represent the State Humane so. ficer to represent the State Humane so-clety, informed the judge that there were numerous cases of cruelty to ani-mals within the environs of the court's jurisdiction, but the evidence was suc a scould not easily be presented and labeled as exhibits. The upshot of it all was that the court went out on a tour of inspection. Round about the city the officials sped, the court dismount-ing occasionally to hold a "sitting" and conduct a judicial investigation. At the Japanese quarter on lower Twenty. fourth street came probably the most serious business of the day. Here was found a cow crippled past all hope of cure. The owner of the poor beast was called before the justice, and a sentence of death imposed-for the row. Numerous other cases were invesligated and judgments rendered. Final Secisions were reserved in a number of cases until the reports referred to yetrinary surgeons could be made.

CEDAR CITY. STRICKEN IN MISSION FIELD.

Robert Bullock Dies Three Days After Returning From Scotland.

Special Correspondence. Cedar City, Iron Co., June 25 .- Funeral services over the remains of Elder Robert Bulloch were held in the tabernacle of this city this afternoon, at-tended by a large concourse of citizens. Appropriate and consoling remarks were made by a number of Elders. In February, 1992, Brother Bulloch left his home in obedience to a call to take a foreign mission. On his arrival in Eng-land he was assigned to the Scottish for several years. The two mountain streams, Big and Little Cottonwood, which furnish the water, are falling in volume, but the ground has been pretty well soaked up during the high water, and a second crop of hay is almost asand a second crop of hay is almost as-sured, should there be no rain for a lit-tle time. Grain on the upper land is heading out, and the first crop of hay is on the way to the stack. Our choir leader. Wm. E. Cox, claims to be the happiest man in our town. The cause is the unusual increase of three in his family in the last month; a son a daughter and a son-in-law. His and he was assigned to the Scottish mission, where he labored faithfully until June, 1903, when he was honorably released, through sickness, to return home, where he arrived on the 20th departing this life three days later. While in Scotland he was seized three days with a very severe attack of la grippe, which developed into a serious case of son, a daughter and a son-in-law. His wife a week ago last Thursday pre-sented him with the first two named, iropsy that proved fatal. Decensed was born in Kilmarnock, Scotland, Jan. 8, 1838.
