Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

The Presidential Party in the South.

CHATTANOOGA, 20. — The presidential party arrived shortly after noon in a rainstorm, but a vast crowd greeted them at the depot, and the 18th Infantry presented arms as the President stepped from the coach. The party were driven in carriages through the principal street.

On Market Street was a large arch with the monogram "R. B. H." worked in flowers.

On alighting at the Stanton House, 1,500 people were ready to welcome the guests, and twenty little girls dressed in white strewed floral tributes before him.

Col. Cook, a confederate, welcomed him with a flattering tribute to the success of his southern policy. In dispelling the gloom from the South he had earned her gratitude.

The President responded, alluding to the historical interest attaching to Chattanooga, and to the peculiarly mixed character of the people, white and black—the Georgian, Alabaman and Tennesseean, and said this fact should enforce the idea that equal and exact justice must be meted out to all.

Short addresses were also delivered by Secy. Evarts, Gov. Hampton, Judge Key and others.

After the speeches the crowd thronged the hotel, men, women and children evincing anxiety to shake hands with the President and Mrs. Hayes. In the evening a dinner banquet was given at the Stanton House, where the festivities were kept up to a late hour.

Senator Bogy's Successor.

ST. LOUIS, 20.—There is a good deal of speculation this afternoon and evening as to who Governor Phelps will appoint to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Bogy. The legislature does not meet until a year from January, and the question is whether the governor will call a special session to elect a successor or make an appointment for the unexpired term. It is well known that Governor Phelps desires to be elected for the next term, and it is thought he will not appoint any one who will be likely to interfere with his aspirations. Among those prominently named in connection with the appointment are J. O. Broadhead, Erastus Wells, J. D. L. Morrison, brother of the present chairman of the house ways and means committee. There is some talk of Governor Phelps resigning with the understanding that Lieutenant Governor Brokmeyer, on assuming the executive chair, will appoint Phelps to the vacancy.

The Express Robbers.

OMAHA, 20.—There is no further news of the express robbers. Of the money stolen $40,000 was consigned to Wells, Fargo & Co., New York, and $20,000 to the New York Bank of Commerce. The money stolen from the passengers aggregated nearly $2,000.

Retired Army Officers.

WASHINGTON, 20.—Congress will be asked at the approaching session to change the law relating to the retirement of army officers unfit for active duty on account of age or disability. The law limits the retired list of the army to 300, while in the navy there is no limit whatever. The army officers who are disabled for active service are compelled to remain in active service until death creates a vacancy in the retired list before they can be retired. There are now eighty-four officers waiting to be placed on the retired list, and unless the law is changed it will be several years before all can be retired from active duty.

Compelled to Sign.

All the clerks from Ohio have been obliged to sign a paper agreeing to go home and vote next month, under penalty of being placed on the black list. This paper was presented yesterday, with the approval of Secretary Sherman, to every clerk in the treasury department from Ohio, and not one refused absolutely to sign it, although many did so protesting they were not able to bear the expenses of the trip. There is general complaint among the clerks that they are compelled to disobey the President's orders and some threaten to call the President's attention to the acts of his subordinates as soon as he returns.

Struck by a Squall.

NEW ORLEANS, 20.—The schooner Guiseppe was struck by a squall on August 28th in longitude 85, 36 west, latitude 18, 15 north and sunk. The captain and three men were rescued. Two of the crew were drowned.

Fatal Shooting Affray.

RICHMOND, Ky., 20.—A year since Jaspar Maupin shot John Breman at Kingston, Madison County, wounding him. Maupin was indicted, and his trial set for to-day, but the case was not reached. This evening the parties met in the street in Richmond, each accompanied by friends, when firing began. Jaspar Maupin, John Breman, Chris. Ballard and Wm. A. Cornellson were killed. The survivors were arrested.

Railroad Accident.

YORK, Pa., 20.—This morning a train containing 600 or 800 Sunday school excursionists, when eighteen miles from York, was thrown from the track, and two boys, named Jones and Barton, standing on one of the platforms, were instantly killed. One man was seriously, and five or six slightly injured.

Increase of Yellow Fever Cases.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., 20.—The large increase in the number of cases of yellow fever at Fernandina and the increasing mortality render contributions in money badly needed. It is hoped the north will respond to the appeal for help.

WESTERN.

Pardoned.

SAN FRANCISCO, 20.—The Call's special from Sacramento announces that Governor Irwin has pardoned ex-Harbor Commissioner John J. Marks, convicted of embezzlement of public funds in 1875, and sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary.

The Chinese Murderers.

The governor has offered a reward for the arrest and conviction of the Chinese engaged in the recent Rocklin tragedy.

Warrants have been issued for the arrest of twenty-eight white men engaged in driving Chinese away from that vicinity.

The governor characterizes Col. Bee's dispatch, asking his interference to put down disorder in Placer County, as injudicious, tending to exaggerate, in the minds of non-spectators, the amount of disorder prevailing there. He expresses regret at the illegal action of the whites, as tending to prejudice eastern people against the State in the settlement of the question of Chinese immigration.

The Libel Suits.

A Placerville dispatch says, Congressman Page's libel suit against the Chronicle was continued by the court this evening on motion of the defendant, on the ground that Mrs. Pidney and some other witnesses could not be found. The prosecution opposed the continuance on the ground that Page and Sargent must soon leave to attend the extra session of Congress, and desired an immediate trial. It was finally decided that the case should be continued from term to term until their return.

From New Zealand.

The following items have been received per the steamer Australian:

New Zealand, 1.

Wrecks are reported on the west coast with loss of life.

At a great native meeting, Maori, King of Tawhiao, found his supporters in the minority. There is every indication of the hostiles coming within the law, although for the present they have shut up their country against Europeans.

The mines on the Auckland gold fields continue to return large dividends.

Politics do not run smoothly, and if the government survives the session it will be with greatly crippled energies. Additional taxation is necessary, and this is unpopular.

News from Samoa says, directly after the German man-of-war Augusta left for Sydney, civil dissensions broke out. The rebels appeared openly, with arms in their hands, and during the last month entrenched themselves around Apia in a strong position. There they remained for some time without striking a blow. On the 12th, a strong force of the king's party marched up to the rebel entrenchments, which they quietly surrounded. A parley was then held between chiefs on either side, and while it was going on a sudden fire was opened on the insurgents, of whom between 50 and 100 were killed. They resisted for some hours. In the morning the rebels surrendered, and the king, taking away their arms, set them at liberty. Almost all the dead bodies were subjected to mutilation by cutting off their heads. The victors bore these about on sticks for some days, now and then performing war dances around them. Many white men went to see the fighting.

Honolulu travelers, visiting the crater of Kilauea during the first week of September, represent it as very active and brilliant. The old south lake was, on the 10th instant, about 1,000 feet in length and 600 feet in width, boiling and spurting.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Eastern War News.

LONDON, 20.—The first division of the Russian guard having passed through Roumania, the passage of the second division has commenced.

It is stated in well-informed circles that the Porte will not accept mediation while a Russian soldier remains on Turkish soil, nor will it consent to an armistice unless the basis of subsequent peace proposals are at the same time defined.

Chefvet Pasha, commanding the relieving force at Orchanie, has communicated with Osman Pasha. The revictualing of Plevna is therefore expected shortly.

FRANCE.

More Prosecutions.

PARIS, 20.—It is stated that the Journal des Debats will be prosecuted for publishing an article signed Lemoine, violently attacking President MacMahon's manifesto.

It is reported that the manifesto prepared by M. Thiers shortly before his death will be published on Saturday.

A BENEVOLENT COUNTESS.—The Vicountess Strangford, who raised and distributed a large sum of money for the relief of the Bulgarian peasants last fall, is now establishing hospitals for the wounded in Turkey, and superintending the details of field relief. As Emily Beaufort, she attracted much attention in 1860, by publishing two volumes, giving the results of explorations made by herself and sister in Turkey, Egypt, and Syria. Two years later she married Viscount Strangford, one of the finest Oriental scholars in Europe, and for seven years she accompanied him in his studies and travels. At his death, in 1869, she founded a college for the promotion of medical science in Damascus, and established a prize for geographical proficiency at Harrow, where her husband had been educated. When the story of the Bulgarian atrocities was exciting the sympathetic world, she collected the sum of $145,000, and, in person, purchased and distributed that amount of necessary articles. The National Association for Providing Trained Nurses for the Sick and Poor of London, owes its origin entirely to her efforts. She is about forty years old.

Chanzarnier was only afraid of one thing—a draught. During an attack on a detachment of Arabs posted in a narrow ravine, Chanzarnier was seen sitting calmly on horseback with his arms crossed in the mid-thof a hail of bullets. "Look out Colonel," said an officer "you should take more precaution. You are exposing yourself." "Oh, thanks," answered Chanzarnier, mistaking the cause of the other's solicitude. "I'll muffle up," and he turned his coat collar up round his ears.
