

ROUTE SELECTED FOR DIXIE ROAD

Preliminary Survey from Lund to St. George is Approved.

WILL EXTEND TO MOAPA.

Has No Connection With Clark Road, But Will Have Junction to Facilitate Shipping.

It is announced that the two preliminary surveys for the Utah Southern extension from the Salt Lake Route to St. George as printed in these columns some weeks ago, the one extending from Lund southward has been approved by the officials promoting the building of the branch line. The other preliminary survey was from Moapa to St. George, but the line from Lund was considered more practicable, hence that route was decided upon. The road as projected will pass through Cedar City, Iron County, which town has granted a franchise through its streets to the Coal Creek mines for a period of 100 years. The officials of the proposed line are: Charles H. Hansen, president; George Foreman, vice president; and C. L. Reed, secretary and treasurer.

The distance from Lund to St. George is about 65 miles, and it is said that instead of stopping at St. George, the line will be continued on to a connection with the Salt Lake Route at Moapa, Nevada, a total distance from Salt Lake of 157 miles, but it is said that the road can cut this down to 140 miles of actual construction. The line is said to have no connection with the Salt Lake Route, but would not interfere in any way with the main line of the latter road to Moapa.

The country to be tapped by the line known as "Dixie" is a fine section with long summers and short winters, with rich soil and fine climate, producing all the staples of the temperate and many sub-tropical fruits. Dry land farming, fruit growing, livestock, mining and other interests have been features of the country for years, although held back by lack of transportation facilities. Oil has been found in that locality, and new prospects have been made which indicate that that section will contribute its share of the big mines of Utah.

In this connection there is a new irrigation enterprise at the town of Enterprise, and a branch will be built to that place as soon as conditions warrant. Enterprise is located about 20 miles from Lund.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

The meeting of the Authors' club on Thursday, when the Federation and club officers of Utah were guests of honor, was a most successful affair. It was held at the home of Mrs. W. W. Ritter, and present besides the club members were Federation officers and presidents of local clubs, where the representatives from a half dozen towns, including Mrs. Weeter of Park City, Mrs. Crawford of Manti, Mrs. Sarah W. Tinsdale of Provo and Mrs. Lucy A. Clark, Mrs. Scoville of Salt Lake, Mrs. Bishop and Mrs. Hilliard of Ogden. A social hour followed the program, which included a talk by Mrs. Byron W. Cummings, president of the Federation, and vocal solos by Misses Edna Evans and Edna Young, with Miss Bernice Young accompanying. Mrs. Cummings' talk and the discussion which followed brought out the practical work done by women's clubs, showing that they are not devoted solely to selfish ends. Mrs. Cummings dwelt on the good work done by the traveling libraries, the importance of adding in civic improvement, especially in regard to health conditions, and many other interesting points and a number of the subjects were discussed by the members.

Next Tuesday evening the Author's club will hold its annual social reunion at the home of Mrs. W. W. Ritter, and a feature of the evening will be a lecture by Mr. M. J. Brines on "Folk Songs," accompanied by Mrs. M. J. Brines, and assisted in vocal interpretations by four young ladies, daughters of members of the club.

Dr. Charles E. Carter entertained at an elaborate banquet last night at the Alta club, the table being laid with gold room and having for a centerpiece a round mirror holding a mound of pink almond blossoms, and circled by dainty electric globes. The place cards were (cathartics) girls, and the Hawaiian Troubadours furnished a program of delightful music. Present besides the host were: Miss Alta E. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scott Johnson of Denver, cousins of the bride; Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. Jedyard M. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford R. Pearsall, Dr. and Mrs. William L. Ellersbeck, Miss Miss Coiburne and B. M. Hogan.

Mrs. J. H. Beifus was hostess at a pretty luncheon and bridge party yesterday, the luncheon being served from small tables which were decorated in pink roses and carnations, while the same flowers were all about the room. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. R. E. Hunt and Mrs. Eugene Chandler. Four tables of bridge were played following the luncheon, when the prizes were won by Mrs. S. C. Snyder, Mrs. J. W. Houston, Mrs. H. H. Peale and Mrs. George W. Snow. The other guests were: Mrs. W. E. Lake, Mrs. J. W. Delano, Mrs. A. H. Boxrud, Mrs. R. E. Hunt, Mrs. A. J. Davis, Mrs. Thomas Marionaux, Mrs. J. C. Hooper, Mrs. Arthur James, Mrs. G. A. Wieser of Fort Douglas, Mrs. C. I. Tuttle, Mrs. Eugene Chandler, Mrs. James Ingebreten, Mrs. F. J. McGanney and Mrs. Fuller.

A very attractive evening of southern story and song will be given by Mrs. William Igleheart and the University Mandolin club in the Third Presbyterian church Friday evening, May 7, at 8 o'clock, for the benefit of the Girls' Utopian and Wasatch Literary clubs.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hale gave a dinner last evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Stephens, the decorations being in red, with a centerpiece of carnations and candelabra shaded in red. Covers were laid for eight.

The Country club is the scene of a number of festivities today, luncheons, dinners and dancing in the evening being among the special features arranged by the committee who will receive the guests. They include Mrs. Robert C. Gemmell, Mrs. Arthur H. Bird, Mrs. L. B. McCormick, Mrs. Ernest Bamberger and Mrs. Frank Judge, those who will entertain at dinner are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Judge, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. H. Vance Lane, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Kriebel, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Gemmell, Mr. and Mrs. Doolittle, D. B. Kimball and Will Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Eager announce the engagement of their daughter, Mabel Alice, to Dr. David L. Barkard of Garland. The marriage will take place early in June. Miss Eager is one of the graduates of St. Mark's training school for nurses and has been head of the Logan hospital for some time.

An interesting wedding of the week was that of Miss Martha Bullock and Mr. John E. Wadley, prominent and popular young people of Pleasant Grove. Miss Bullock is a graduate nurse of the Groves L. D. S. hospital, while Mr. Wadley is one of the most successful fruit growers and cattlemen of Pleasant Grove. They were quietly married last Wednesday, and after a wedding breakfast, left for a honeymoon trip to the coast. Mr. and Mrs. Wadley will be at home at Pleasant Grove to their friends after June 1.

Yesterday afternoon and evening the apartments of Mrs. L. Longbery and Mrs. Anna Knos were invaded by a number of friends and relatives, who called to congratulate and shower beautiful flowers on their mother, Mrs. Lucy W. Kimball, in honor of her eighty-third birthday.

INSPECTING BRANCH.

A party consisting of W. H. Bancroft, vice president and general manager of the Oregon Short Line, his secretary, F. H. Knickerbocker, J. M. Davis, general superintendent of the Short Line, and D. E. Burley, general passenger agent, left in Mr. Bancroft's car last night for a tour over the Yellowstone branch. The line and the connections for park will be inspected, prior to the opening of service between this city and the National park.

PEACE DAY PROCLAIMED

Governor William Spry issued a peace proclamation this morning and sets apart Sunday, May 16, as the day on which it should be observed. It is as follows:

Whereas, widespread sympathy in an international step towards universal peace is manifest in the hearts of the children of men; Ten years ago there was launched a movement, conceived in the most advanced thought of the age, condemning the pursuit of strife and warfare, and crystallizing a peace sentiment for the establishment of which the voices of humanity's greatest teachers have been raised unceasingly; and Whereas, The seed of universal concord and tranquility thus sown has already born fruit, and there is growing abroad in the earth a feeling which forebodes the amicable and peaceable adjustment of differences among nations and people; and Whereas, Recognizing the importance of every move which makes for a more extensive interest in and loyal support of the effort toward the establishment of peace, I, William Spry, Governor of the State of Utah, do recommend the observance of Sunday, May 16, 1909, as Peace day, and earnestly request that the religious organizations of the state hold appropriate exercises in their places of worship, having for their object the promulgation of a spirit of peace, that ultimately peace may be secured as a strong fabric of peace, from which all partial obstinacy and all criminal sinfulness may alike be removed.

And I do further recommend that the observance of the opening of the Hague conference, be fittingly observed in the schools of the state, by rendering of program in harmony with the spirit of the occasion.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the great seal of the State of Utah, done at Salt Lake City, this 1st day of May, A. D. 1909.

WILLIAM SPRY.

By the governor, CHARLES S. LINGEY, Secretary of State.

BURGLAR HELD.

Frank Hall Bound Over for Trial—Judge Bowman's Court.

Frank Hall, who when caught in the act of attempting to pry open a rear window of the Charlton Shop, 122 south Main street, early Thursday morning, led Third Watchman George Houghton an exciting chase, was arraigned this morning before Judge Bowman on a charge of attempting burglary in the second degree, and entered a plea of not guilty. His preliminary hearing was set for May 10, and in default of $500 bonds he was remanded to the custody of the sheriff.

The Saturday morning docket in Judge Bowman's court was uncommonly "slender." A couple of drunks talked themselves out of further trouble, and A. Halfred and his son-in-law, C. H. Yates, of Lehi, convinced the court that their misdemeanor of peddling fish in Salt Lake without the proper license had been committed in ignorance of the law and were discharged. The case of B. C. Merrill, charged with the violation of the city ordinance which requires that milk can be sold in the city, occupied a considerable portion of the court's time in the hearing of arguments of a demurrer to the complaint. Attorney Soren X. Christensen, for the defense, brought out the novel point that it is the duty of the food inspector to locate the dairy
