Country-women and Christian sisters, I beg of you heed, even at great personal sacrifice, this petition for Utah; patriotism, philanthropy, reli-gion, demand of us that if there is in Utah opportunity to build the Church of Christ, and if souls are there perishcrucified, a willing Saviour, we should make every effort to aid them. There is perhaps not one Christian in twenty thousand who gives all that he can, who reaches the utmost limit of his ability. I do not now ask any of you, my ais-ters, for a trifle which you will not notice; but I want from each one of you a States over twenty-one years of age, gift that will be felt, a gift limited only and not disqualified by the conviction and His demand, who says "Bring ye all the tithes, ye have robbed me." If you have given all that you expected, begin now and give what you did not expect to; dedicate to this cause the money mentally appropriated to the new dress, the furs, the laces, the jewelry, or the year- the marital relation of husband or wife, ly grand party. At that rate of giving, we shall goon have money enough, and the bell of this church of ours shall speedily be sounding its call to prayer. Is it hard to sacrifice these appropria-tions for personal or home adornment? Consider that a year hence most of these decorations would be out of date or forgotten; and a century from now, when we are all dust, what advantage would in Territorial matters in; citizens souls this church in Utah might gather for heaven, these are the good things that shall never die; these, like the path ment of those rights, and, in order to of the just, shall shine more and more pass the bill, take specious advantage of unto the perfect day.

It is just entering upon its twenty-seventh year. Every number is beautifully printed on fine paper, and ele-gantly illustrated with original engravings, representing new inventions, novelties in mechanics, manufactures, chemistry, pho-tography, exchitecture, surjoulture, engi-neering, science and art. Farmers, me-chanics, inventors, engineers, chemists, manufacturers, and people of all pro-fessions or trades will find the Scientific American of great value and interest.
