Alfred Henry vs. H. H. Hosmer agreed by counsel and taken under advisement.

George Leathers et al vs. Peter Mitchell. parties to the action failing to appear, judgment was ordered rendered for the defendant.

All cases set for January, May 18th, and June 1st were adjourned until May 18th or 19th a.m.

PRELIMINARY PLEAUE MEETING.

At the women's mass meeting held in the Tabernacle last Tuesday evening, the question was raised whether a preliminary meeting was to be held for Monday, the 12th that a general committee on arrangements was appointed to make a number of visiting connections.

It was decided to ask the ministers of the various congregations to private services on Sunday, and the committee to meet after that smaller meeting.

A large portion of the National Reserve has been formed in this city with forty members.

The scene is off the ground in Carbon Valley and mining operations are progressing.

Great preparations are going on in connection with the forthcoming convention of the National Reserve.

All the leading ministers, preachers and organizations will be invited to take part in the services, and the general assembly of the National Reserve will arrange for having the children and teachers of the public schools participate.

The commencement exercises of the Western Mining Academy will be held on the 12th. The students, professors and students are working diligently preparing for the exercises, which will be of great interest to all.

Mr. George W. Larke, Jr., who has been a member of the National Reserve to his home for the past five months, was recently selected by the State.

A carriage license was issued Thursday evening to Christian W. Jensen, 22 Main Street, Ogden, and Fred McDonald, 21, of Blackfoot, Idaho.

The Ogden Live Stock and Peasant emigrating company of Charles M. and Thomas J. Brown, and E. C. Armstrong, left the Union factory, which were sold and shipped to San Francisco where they were slaughtered for shipment to Europe.

DIVORCE SUIT FILED.

Arthur Carter, through his attorney, Thomas Jones, today filed a suit for a divorce against Martha Carter, wife of Arthur Carter, who was born at Salt Lake City in 1866, and died there after the examinations.

The teachers asked the professor, who was a graduate of the University of Michigan, to remain. Instead of the 12th, at the Parker school he had his final examination at the lake or some of the resorts. The graduating exercises will be held in the auditorium of the university on the evening of the 13th.

The city teacher examination will be held at the university on the 13th, June 17th and 18th, and perhaps the 19th.

The board decided that the teachers of the city schools would not be compelled to attend the summer meetings of the various organizations, if they did not have the right to appropriate money for that purpose.

The regular monthly meetings of the various organizations were likewise suspended.

The schools of the county have had a very successful year and are now preparing to close the present session.

County Superintendent Brown, has arranged for the summer school closing exercises. The examination of the eighth grade of the south district will be held at the university on the 13th, and the examination for the North district will be held at American Park on the 14th. The examination of the entire county will be held at the Park on June 15th.

An effort is being made to have the state examinations of the University of Utah to decide the question to the graduates.
