BIG DAMAGE SUITS ARE FILED

Against Railroad Companies for Death Of Employees—Scotts Will Honor Burns' Birthday—Briefs.

Ogden, Jan. 18.—The deep sorrow felt in Ogden over the demise of Mrs. Sarah T. Evans, who was at the head of the Domestic arts and science department of the Weber academy, was evidenced at the impressive memorial services over her remains held at the academy lecture hall at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning. During the many beautiful expressions of love and esteem by the speakers, few dry eyes were in the large audience. Principal David O. McKay presided at the services. Under the direction of Prof. Joseph Ballantine the following music was beautifully rendered: "Nearer, Dear Savior to Thee" and "Lead Kindly Light" by the academy choir. "Her Teacher's Work is Done," by a double male quartet. In the selection of songs was sung by Mrs. Lily Pye Bradford; Miss Myrtle Ballinger sang "Rock of Ages." The speakers were Miss Pearl Crum, Miss Lettie Taylor, William Driver, representing the students, Prof. S. D. Bradford and W. M. McKendrick of the faculty, Judge H. H. Rolapp of the Weber state Sunday school board; President L. V. Shurtliff of the academy board, Hon. C. C. Richards, in behalf of her neighbors, Apostle David O. McKay touched especially on her life's good influence. Hon. Joseph Stanford, secretary, read a touching memorial from the board of education of the Weber state academy.

The student body faculty and board of education of the academy accompanied the remains to the depot where they were shipped to Salt Lake for service this afternoon and burial by the side of her husband. The floral tributes were beautiful, among them being a design representing an open book from the faculty and a large garland from the students.

BIG DAMAGE SUITS.

Railroads Sued for Deaths of Employees in Avoidable Accidents.

Ogden, Jan. 18.—Mrs. Edna A. Elmer, widow of William W. Elmer, through her attorneys, A. G. Horn and Joseph Chee, filed her complaint in the district court against the Southern Pacific company and Oregon Short Line Railroad company, and Supt. E. C. Manson, making all defendants for damages in the sum of $30,000, which she alleges was sustained by reason of the death of her husband, who was killed near Lake station, Boxelder county, last September. It will be recalled that William W. Elmer was head brakeman on the ill-fated train that was ordered over the old track to Kelton to bring a load of sheep to Ogden. On the return trip and while the train was traveling eastward, and near Lake station, a culvert had been destroyed by fire and the train was wrecked and Elmer was caught between the engine and tender and crushed to death. The complaint alleges accident was due to carelessness of the railroad company not to maintain automatic brakes on the train.

The Rio Grande Western has been made defendant in a $25,000 damage suit filed in the second district court by Eva Wilson. The complaint alleges that plaintiff's son, Herman E. Wilson, was employed by the railroad company April 16 last, as brakeman, on a water train. At the station of Woodside, Utah, he was compelled to go between two cars to make a coupling, and was caught between the drawheads and crushed to death. BANISHED.

Coffee Finally Had to Go.

The way some persons cling to coffee even after they know it is doing them harm, is a puzzle. But it is an easy matter to give it up for good, when Postum Food Coffee is properly made and used instead.

A girl writes: "Mother had been suffering with nervous headaches for seven weary years, but kept drinking coffee."

"One day I asked her why she did not give up coffee as a cousin of mine had done who had taken to Postum. But mother was such a slave to coffee she thought it would be terrible to give it up."

"Finally, one day, she made the change to Postum, and quickly her headaches disappeared. One morning while she was drinking Postum so freely and with such relief, I asked for a taste."

"That started me on Postum and I now drink it more freely than I did coffee, which never comes into our house now."

"A girl friend of mine, one day, saw me drinking Postum and asked if it was coffee. I told her it was Postum and gave her some to take home, but forgot to tell her how to make it."

"The next day she said she did not see how I could drink Postum. I found she had made it like ordinary coffee. So I told her how to make it right and gave her a cupful I made, after boiling fifteen minutes. She said she never drank any coffee that tasted as good, and now coffee is banished from our house."
