

PROHIBITION LEAGUE.

A recent organization headed at the attorney's bar.

PLAN OF CAMPAIGN MARKED OUT.

The organization given the name of the "Utah Constitution League." Resolutions adopted.

The second day of the convention of the Prohibitionists convened by the Utah Constitutional League, on Third Avenue, meeting about 10 o'clock this morning. The afternoon session was held in the same building, and the final session will be held there to-morrow morning at the "Hotel Thermes," where the members are again to be seated. The session was opened at the western end of the hall, and the speakers were probably less than a hundred persons present at the opening session last night, while with to-day were 100 or more, like members, Dr. John W. Shaffer, who was nearly universally addressed, and the Rev. Mr. Clark, minister. The first speaker on the right was Dr. N. L. Hill, attorney for the "Utah Constitutional League" and the Hon. H. C. Steele, Atty. Gen., who introduced "Medical Constitutional Protection." The Rev. Mr. Hunt, of Salt Lake City, read an interesting paper on the various subjects mentioned, and after the discussion of several topics, the convention adjourned until 10 o'clock this evening. Rev. Dr. Martin, Mrs. N. M. Day, Dr. W. Martin, Dr. S. S. Day, Dr. W. Martin, Dr. J. C. W. Smith, Dr. Lucy A. J. Owen, Dr. C. W. Cook.

Failure to Organize.

The meeting was adjourned till noon by A. J. Green, attorney, on account of "Prohibition" not receiving a vote of confidence, and again adjourned by the Rev. Mr. Hunt, Dr. J. C. Shaffer, and Dr. W. Martin, who were present. Several remarks were made by several of those present, and the convention adjourned until 10 o'clock this evening. The members with whom they had been associated in the work of organizing were all present.

APPENDIX.

Accompanying this afternoon issue are presented the following:
