The Government Troops have Entered Paris!

Examination Relative to the Premature Publication of the Treaty!

WASHINGTON.

The premature publication of the treaty of Washington, General Phil. Sheridan has arrived. In the course of the day he will pay his respects to the President and Secretary of War.

A telegraphic transfer of a hundred thousand dollars, in gold, from San Francisco to New York, was made today.

The subscriptions to the new loan today, up to noon, were $25,000.

The internal revenue receipts to day were $20,222 dollars.

WASHINGTON, 15.—Terry, Connecticut, and Logan, Illinois, took their seats for the first time this session. Rowland, Tenn., Johnson, Va., and Kellogg, La., are absent from the city. There are three vacancies, one from Georgia, one from Alabama and one from North Carolina. After prayer and reading the journal, a resolution was offered, which was agreed to, requesting the President, if not inconsistent with the public interests, to communicate copies of all the correspondence in the State Department, in relation to the ship Hulk, with the Secretary of the Navy, the property of a citizen of Conn., and which were seized by the British authorities in the Falkland Islands, in 1854, and also the report of Lieut. Lynch and other naval officers, on file in the navy department, on the same subject. On motion of Cameron, the Senate went into executive session.

The subject of the premature disclosure of the treaty of Washington, is more talked of here than any other, and an opinion prevails among many Senators and others, that the disclosure, having been made, it is better to let the public know the truth, than to keep it secret. It is expected that the President will be reported to the Senate today, and if they refuse to answer questions, that body will decide what their punishment shall be.

NEW YORK.

The purchase of the Erie—Revolutionary.

NEW YORK, 15.—A train from Jamaica, consisting of two passenger cars, a milk car and two flats, loaded with hay, caught fire near Chateaufort yesterday and was burned up. No passengers were hurt.

The day this morning repeats the report of Vanderbilt's purchase of the Erie, and says it is generally believed to be true, though every effort is being made to keep it secret. It also says that the Erie is a valuable property, and that the Erie is a valuable property, and that the Erie is a valuable property.

A special telegram from Havana gives later news from the Republic of Mexico. The opposition party has elected a new President and Vice-President of Congress, which is considered a great victory. Seneca Pavia has arrived in the city of Mexico, and met with an enthusiastic reception. A party of enthusiastic men, removing the horses, hauled her from the station to her home, and she was carried off in triumph.

A revolution is in preparation in Tampico, and active operations are being made to suppress it, and secure the commanders of the insurgent forces who have been captured. They have been summoned and will probably be caught.

OHIO.

CINCINNATI.—At a late hour last night there was a fire in the rectifying establishment of Willis, Johnson & Co. The loss is not yet ascertained, but it is not less than two hundred thousand dollars.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, 15.—A cyclonic action, from a portion of northern Illinois, reports an unprecedented growth for this season of the year. Vegetation is suffering badly.

At a picnic near Palmyra, Missouri, on Saturday, a party of roughs put a quantity of tartar emetic in a spring from which the picnic party were using water. Nine persons were seriously poisoned and five are not expected to recover.

CALIFORNIA.

Woman suffrage convention.

SAN FRANCISCO, 15.—The sale of fast stock today, by Chase & Bowley, was not largely attended, and the bidding was not lively. "Alice Bonham," that cost Oscar Lewis $1,400 a few years since, was struck off at $235, and the fine roaster, "Jeff," brought only $300.

Wm. B. Herman, a native of England, aged 27, was sent to the Stockton insane asylum today. He shot the woman with whom he was lodging through the arm the other day, from jealousy, having caught another man paying attention to her, and appears to be a dangerous customer.

The woman's suffrage convention met this morning, only 100 persons and thirteen females in attendance, the membership having run down from 119 last year to 40 this time. Some of the members blame Collins, of Nevada, for this falling off, alleging that his course had disgusted the members (as well as the public). A number of the usual class of speeches were made, and pending the report of the committee on nominations, the convention adjourned till 2 p.m.

FOREIGN NEWS.

FRANCE.

VERMILLES, 15.—Cannonading continues unimportantly. The Assembly appoints a commission to examine the treaty. It is expected that it will be severely criticized.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Versailles in Paris.

LONDON, 15.—A dispatch from St. Denis says, to-day the divisions of the Commune will be terminated by a dissolution of the central committee, or the absorption of that on public safety with the central office of the war ministry, and the central committee will be dissolved.

A new military commission has been appointed. Desolence and the central committee, fraternize. Henri is appointed chief of the war ministry, and the central committee will be dissolved.

The entry of the troops at the Point du Jour is imminent.

The Times says Cluseret and Megy are released.

There will be an armistice on Wednesday to enable the inhabitants of Vauvre and neighborhood to move.

A circular by Groussin invites the members of the central committee to Paris to discuss the Versailles Convention.

The Germans are concentrating towards Paris.

The headquarters of the Prince of Saxony are transferred to Marigny.

The chief commands of the guards are removed to Montmartre.

The fall of Montmartre is imminent. The war minister, Ollivier, is in Paris. Paris is unapproachable. There is great loss of property and life.

How to Rule a Husband.—Above all things, it is a wife's duty to be home attractive to her mate. Let her keep a sharp eye on the cook; nothing makes a man more discontented with his home than his dinner, ill-served; if there is anything that will make him swear (and there generally is), my dear young lady, although his temper seemed so angelic when he was wooing you, it is his dinner that has made him a demon.

Or a hot one with his cheese. Neglect of this sort is unpardonable. Again, it may not be possible to give him dainties, but it is easy to avoid monotony by a careful selection of the food; book; and it is quite astonishing how the monster man can be subjugated and assuaged by a judicious variation of his meals. The creature may be logically pictured tightly led by a fair wife; but in fact, he is a demon, and he is a demon.

Indeed, there are a thousand ways to lead him, if women would show a little tact, with which they are so falsely credited. Opposition, contradiction, makes him furious; he demands, and becomes altogether dangerous. Wherefore, treat him tenderly. O wife, and you shall find him round your marriage finger, if you have sense to take his chance of gaining what they have set their eyes on a thousand times through a sheer stupidity; they know that a certain line of conduct is sure to anger him, and yet they will fully pursue it, in another direction.

Tact! Such women, I say, have not even instinct. Birds of paradise, for instance, (not to be rude) would set in a more sagacious manner. — Chamber's Journal.

THRILLING INCIDENT.—At a temperance meeting in Philadelphia, some years ago, a learned clergyman spoke in favor of wine as a drink. He was interrupted by a man who said he was a plain soldier man and asked leave to say a few words. "A young friend of mine," said he, "who had long been intemperate, was at length prevailed on, to the great joy of his friends, to take the pledge of entire abstinence from all that could intoxicate. He kept the pledge faithfully for some time, struggling with his habit fearfully, till one evening, in a social party, he took a glass, saying a few words in vindication of the practice. 'Well,' thought the young man, 'if a soldier man can take wine, and justify it so well, why not I?' So he took a glass. It instantly rekindled his slumbering passion, and after a downward course he died a raging madman." The old man paused for a moment, and was just able to add: "That young man was my son, and that clergyman was the Rev. Doctor who has just addressed the assembly." — Good Words.
