DESERET NEWS. THE

"TO BE OR NOT TO BE."

Utah is about to present her petition again for admission into the family of States as the State of Deseret. On what grounds that petition can be justly rejected we confess entire ignorance. The Constitution of the State of Deseret has been pronounced by the best statesmen in the national Council, who are not by any means among those who are favorably disposed towards us, as eminently republican, and in strict conformity with the Constitution of the nation. As amended, it extends the right of suffrage to every citizen, irrespective of color. In this respect its breadth of liberality is equal, if not superior, to the constitution of any other State in the Union. The ability of the State of Deseret for self-government is beyond question; for as a Territory, when much less able saying that the doctrine is a vital part than now, we have had to govern our- of our religious faith, having holy aims selves in the face of opposition, misgovernment and incapability from those a point for consideration that is highly who were sent here to govern and ad- pertinent to the question and the occaminister justice. Financially, to-day, sion. Is it not the proud aim of every Deseret presents a treasury which any other State or Territory in the Union every American citizen, that the form of would be proud of,-free from debt and government under which we live should with a balance in the Treasurer's hands. | be extended world-wide, until it wields And, while our finances are in so pros- universal dominion? If that object and perous a condition, we have, unaided by that hope were realized, would our the General Government, advanced the statesmen in extending the starry folds real and permanent development of this of our national flag over the four-fifths lately barren wilderness, to a degree of the human family who are polygamwhich our gold and silver producing ists, compel them to abandon the pracneighbors, with aid from capitalists and tice, and enforce a condition which the large governmental grants, can show Constitution bequeathed us by our fanothing to equal under the circum- thers never demanded? or would they stances. Education has been fostered; permit them to enjoy the full liberty works of art conducive to our prosperity guaranteed by that instrument? have been executed; immigration has The question may seem far-fetched been encouraged and assisted; Indian and very hypothetical; yet it is not so attacks have been repelled and their much so as might be supposed at first ravages prevented; peace has prevailed glance. The Pacific slope has a large within our boundary lines, except the and largely increasing population, di-Indian difficulties referred to; and the rect from polygamous Asia. Their industry of our citizens has fed thou- mummeries of worship they are persands in the surrounding Territories. Every Constitutional requirement, demanded of Territories who seek admission as States, has been complied with. The law of custom which has prevailed, in the admission of such States, is honored. Our population is sufficiently numerous. And while in every Territory asking the right of self-government grow up American citizens. Will they there are many who from various causes | become sufficiently numerous to control oppose the claim, the few who do so the vote of a State,-say California? It here are so far in the minority that is within the range of probabilities. their expressed opposition is not enti- Should they do so, and extend the polytled to a moment's consideration, when the voice of the great majority is weighed constitutionally interfere to prevent and recognized. Then, the Constitution of the State of Deseret is in harmony with the Constitution of the nation; our population is larger than that of other Territories, which have become States; we are perfectly capable of self-government; we are at a great distance from the seat of the General Government, the mem- Japan and China, long buried in exclubers of which have few opportunities of siveness, have opened their ports for ascertaining our true requirements, and commerce with us. The exclusive are exposed to be misled by the interes- spirit of ages is disappearing before the being orderly and law-abiding, characteristics which mark all agricultural communities; and we ask the right of self-government, a right which has never been denied to any other Territory with the same population and capabilities, whose constitution has harmonized with that of the nation 'Why should that right not be granted to Deseret?

Though it is contended by some of the ablest jurists that Territorial governments are in their very essence and character opposed to the spirit of the Constitution, and incompatible therewith, we will not stop to argue the point. A Territorial government has been extended to us for years. We now ask to change it, and adopt one, the legitimacy and constitutionality of which cannot be questioned. Have we not the right to so ask? And is it anything but a simple act of justice that we should obtain it?

It may be urged that plurality of wives is an objection to our being admitted as a State, because it is an insti-dominance in those distant regions. Can the inhabitants accept our Constitution and remain idolators? Certainly. Can they do so and remain polygamists? Why not? In five years, with the Pacific Rail road completed, China and Japan will be in closer communication with years ago. The growth of liberty submitted to the constituted authorities, and Pagan? Such was the design in framing it. Must all those vast nations marriage, hallowed to them by the traditions of many centuries, and accept the monogamy of Christendom, with the social sin which has ever accompanied it, before they can enjoy that liberty? even though they should in all things . respect the rights of their fellow beings.

Sneering at our hypothesis will not stroy the "Mormons," and harrased senting us; our citizens are noted for American institutions will yet hold States to this wild region of country, had even them made them suffer bitterly by mob violence. To recount the persecutions which they endured, would be to relate the most barbarous and unprecedented acts ever perpetrated in any country claiming to be civilized.

> Statements of their sufferings and the Washington than London was fifty outrages committed upon them were among the teeming millions of Asia sustained by the strongest and most unis only a work of time. Is our Consti- impeachable testimony; but their petitution sufficiently liberal to embrace tions were treated with neglect, and under it people of every shade of color, contemptuously cast aside. In accordwith every form of religious faith, ance with the commandment which Christian, Jew, Mahommedan, Hindoo they had received, judges, governors, State legislatures, the Congress of the nation, and the President were severally be compelled to change the form of appealed to, as redress failed to be obtained from each; while the persecutions increased in virulence in proportion with the increasing numbers of those who composed the Church.

> > Judges disgraced their judicial position, refused to the injured Saints even the shadow of justice, leagued themselves with the mobocrats and ruffians to detution not recognized by any other State. Without entering into a question which has been treated on at length in our columns not a great while ago; without again showing the plain and indisputable truth, that honorable marriage is in all countries and under every circumstance superior to illicit sexual communion; without doing more than and noble ends in view, we will present American statesman, and the hope of free institutions, or their restriction within narrow bounds, is opened by it. Even mighty. Governors, instead of hearken. the amount of freedom which may be ing to their importunities, winked at dom to the slave. As a nation we have petration; and one of those governors declared that the bondman suffering issued an order to have the "Mormons" emancipated, free, disenthralled. We A State legislature, where noted moboshall be taxed. Nay, we open the path have revealed their own turpitude. of honor to him, and bid him aspire to Congress referred back the memorial manently, shall bigoted prejudice and I can do nothing for you;" and, "If I "You cannot come unless you sunder Missouri!" your domestic ties, cruelly desert part of your family, and bring here but one wife; or bring all and prostitute all but one?" Gentlemen, honorable members of Congress, the solution of this question is a community who believe in Christ, worship God, accept the sacred Scriptures, and practice that patriarchal order of marriage which God has approved, blessed and commanded. We are qualified to become one of the family of States. Extend to us that right, and proclaim to the world, that monogamist and polygamist, white, red or black, christian, infidel, Jew and pagan, can all enjoy here the blessings of liber-Constitution of our country and extent to all others the same inalienable rights which they enjoy themselves.

and to the consequences which the acts of the present will have on the generations of the future. Here is an arguintelligent mind in the nation.

meet the point. True statesmanship them and their leaders with the most does not alone legislate for the present. unjust accusations and vexatious law-It looks from the present to the future; suits, denying them the privilege of calling witnesses by trumping up charges against those whom they thus , called and having them arrested, while ment worthy the consideration of every men were suborned to swear anything and everything which might secure a The question of the extension of our conviction; yet in that they were foiled through the providences of the Alenjoyed under those institutions is their enemies, to whom no crime was brought to issue. We have given free- sufficiently enormous to prevent its perinvoluntary servitude, shall stand forth exterminated, or driven from the State. raise him from the degradation of a dark | crats sat as representatives of the people, slavery to the dignity of American | threw out the petition of the Saints and citizenship. We give him the right to would not permit a Committee to invessay who shall govern him, and how he | tigate their case, as the evidence would the highest positions. We offer the forwarded to them to the same legislasame rights to citizens of every shade | ture; and the then President of the naof color. But should some of those citi- tion, after treating the deputation which zens invite their Asiatic friends to come waited on him almost with contempt, here for the purpose of remaining per- said "Gentlemen, your cause is just, but narrow mindedness step in and say, take up for you I shall lose the vote of The Lord, in the revelation referred to, declared what would be the result if these repeated appeals were unheeded, and if the importunings of His persecuted Saints did not obtain redress for them:-"And if the President heed them is easy, and it is in your hands. Here not, then will the Lord arise and come forth out of His hiding place, and in His fury vex the nation, and in His hot displeasure, and in His fierce anger, in His time, will cut off those wicked, unfaithful and unjust stewards, and appoint them their portion among hypocrites and unbelievers." (Doc. & Cov., page 283, 3d European ed.) From the time when the commandment was given until the first appeal was made to the President by the Prophet Joseph Smith in ty and freedom, if they will uphold the person, something like six years had elapsed, during which petition after petition, and memorial after memorial, had been presented to various authorities and supported by immense numbers of affidavits from the outraged and op-Overthirty-three years ago the Church pressed, and from friends of law and of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints re- order who were not members of the ceived a commandment from the Lord Church. But redress was not obtained, to seek redress at the hands of the and the appeal was carried to the Lord legally constituted authorities, for the of Hosts whose commandment had been wrongs which they had suffered. They thus strictly obeyed. Have the words were then few in number, compared of the Lord been thus far fulfilled, when with the present time. But the same | He declared the consequences of refusmitted to enjoy. The connecting link between free American institutions and Chinese idolatry is forged. The right of suffrage is being extended to them. They bring here with them their peculiar notions and ideas. Their children, born on this soil, and having those notions ingrafted upon their minds, gamy of Asia there, could Congress them? But to carry the idea further. We talk of annexing Canada, and throwing a protectorate over Mexico. Will the destiny of the nation stop there? No; its course is onward, ever onward if its statesmen do not call upstorms of political strife beneath the fury of which the bark of State will be shattered.

PROPHECY FULFILLED.

ted statements of unscrupulous men who progress of this great Republic. There spirit of persecution which afterwards ing redress to His people? Has not the have pecuniary motives for misrepre- is nothing utopian in the thought that drove them mercilessly from the eastern nation been vexed with a sore vexation?

The second of th