Brooklyn-Sunday, Dec. 6th the semi-annual conference was held in New York City, 151 W. One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, and, during the two sessions, which were well at-tended, the saints and friends had the privilege of listening to the students, who spoke very encouragingly to the people. On Monday evening following, a sociable was given, and there we had the opportunity of listening to the singing of Bros. Easton and Christopherson, and Sister Claudia. MISSION NOTES FROM SOUTH AUSTRALIA

89 Whitmore Square, Adelaide, South Australia, Nov. 21.—On the 24th of October, at the Torrens river, Elba and Dell Antuar were baptized into the fold of Christ and on Nov. 5, at the B. I. baths, Mr. and Mrs. George Thredgold were also haptized, Elder Lorin Hall officiating on both occasions. This makes 11 that have been baptized n this conference during the present car. Considering everything we feel his is a good record and the occasion of much encouragement.

During the last few months we have disposed of 785 books entitled, "Mr. Durant." Most of these little books we have sold (we have given some away to the poor.) but as a rule they ell well and are the means of much

In these visits the eiders have an excellent opportunity to instruct the new saints in regard to honest every-day living—that no occasion should be made a pretext for excuses, etc. This is a very important feature of mission work and no doubt our elders will have a happy time and do much good.

As a token of love which is fully reciprocated, President and Sister Bennion have presented each elder and sister missionary in this mission with a fine, large size photo of themselves. They couldn't have given anything which would be appreclated more.

Christmas eve the mission house was filled to the limit with local saints and friends who enjoyed the rendition of a mogram appropriate to the occasion, and received a personal visit from Santa Claus who gave presents and sacks of goodies to all.

Former President Joseph A. Moltae of the Western States mission and his family have moved from Denver and are now comfortably located at Independence in a pleasant little home recently purchased for the Church by our mission president. Wednesday evning a very successful program was rendered in the large hall. ter which refreshments were served all the friends and saints present. Here in Authors we have a very fine meetinghouse that was built by the Church and private contribution at a cost of about $5,000 or $9,000. It stands at the end of a short street and faces south, which gives us the benefit of what little auc that does shine have what little sun that does shine here. It is one of the best locations for a church in Aalborg. The meetinghouse is a two-story building, with the large hall on the second floor, while the elders working in Aalborg branch and the custodian of the building live in rooms on the ground floor.

The people here, as a rule, are indifferent to religious affairs, but we find many good people, and we have many fine friends. The bitterness towards the Latter-day Saints that wes quarterly conference of the Union Stake of Zion convened on Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 12 and 13, at La Grando, Oregon. There were present Elder John Henry Smith of the council of the twelve apostles, and Elder C. W. Nibley, presiding bishop of the Church. President F. S. Bramwell presided at all meetings. Reports of nine bishops disclosed a very healthful condition prevailing in this stake. All wards are fully organized and All wards are fully organized, and much interest is manifest in all the stake officers to look after the dilatory and wayward ones. Personal visits to the homes of the saints by the dif-ferent bishoprics and officers of all auxiliary organizations are being made with excellent results. All the organizations are following

La Grande, Oregon, Dec. 14.-The

All the organizations are following closely the outlines of study, and much interest is expressed and satisfaction voiced by many for the good already derived from the M. I. A. manual.

The priesthood in all the wards of the stake is already prepared to take up the special work proposed for the classes in quorum capacity, and are anxiously awaiting the arrival of the books containing the lessons. Monday night is priesthood night, and we expect an incalculable amount of good repect an incalculable amount of good re-aulting from this arrangement. Much valuable instruction was given during and this conference. Two lectures were given here, under the auspices of the La Grande ward M. J. A., by Dr, and Mrs. Bancroft, and they certainly came up to all ex-pectations. JAS. HOOD,
