NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

William Brown, a young man who resides in West Weber, was driving across the track on lower Twenty-fourth street, when a Union Pacific switch engine, backing down with a dining car, ran against his wagon. Brown did not notice the approach of the engine and will pitched out and received a very bad shaking up and a broken collar bone. Dr. Joyce, on learning of the injury, took Brown to the hospital and attended to his injuries. The team started to run away after the accident, but was stopped before it had time to complete the destruction of the wogan.

ARRESTED FOR BURGLARY.

A young man named James Miller was arrested yesterday by Officer Hutchins, and a charge of burglary will be brought against him. The police were notified yesterday morning that a room at the Central hotel had been entered at the Central hotel had been entered during the night and a suit of clothes stolen. The burglar had gained en-trance through a transom that was left open and found a good suit of black clothes in the room, which he wrapped up and carried away with him. Officer Hutchins was detailed on the case and found the young thief on west Twen-ty-first street near the R. G. W. bridge where he was endeavoring to sell the clothes to a gentleman when the officer put in his appearance and placed young Miller under arrest. He claimed to have bought the suit in Chicago, but the owner identified the suit, pocket knife and theater lickets in the pockets and proved that the suit was bought by him at the Toggery.

BURGLAR SUSPECTS ARRESTED.

Deputy Sheriff Wilde from Summit county, came to Ogden to locate if posthe burglars who entered the Coalville Co-op Monday night and car-ried away a quantity of clothing and other goods. Officer Hutchins and the deputy made a round up of the depot yards and arrested two young men who gave their names as John Nixon and P. M. Reader, on suspicion. Though none of the stolen goods were found in their possession they answer the deseription of two young men who were seen at Coalville the day previous to the burglary, and they tell conflicting stories. They deny absolutely any knowledge of the crime or of having been in Summin county, but the officers believe they were justified in arresting them and will hold them for further de-

DELOS LOMBARD DEAD.

One of Tintie's Oldest Miners and Settlers Goes to Long Rest.

Special Correspondence. Eureka, Juab Co., Dec. 8.—Delos Lombard is dead and all Tintic mourns his demise. The end came at 3 o'clock Thursday morning. For several years past Mr. Lombard has been a great sufferer with asthma, which finally re-sulted in his death.

Mr. Lombard was one of the first settlers of Eureka, having resided here for the past 33 years, and has been prominently identified in upbuilding the great Tintic district. He served as justice of the peace of Eureka and also county commissioner of He was largely interested in different mining properties and was the north end of the district. Mr. Lombard was well known to all the prom-inent mining men of Utah, and it can be truly said he went to his long home, honored and respected by all who knew him. He was generous to a fault and many a miner has cause to remember bim for his generous aid at times when it was most needed. He knew no creed but extended the helping hand to all regardless of their religious reliefs. Deceased was about 60 years of age and was single. He has a brother, Dr. Lombard, who resides in Salt Lake City. Tintic lodge No. 9, Masons, of which Mr. Lombard was a charter member, will have charge of the funceremonies which will be conducted at Salt Lake Sunday, the re mains being shipped to that city Fri-

The town was begun about a year ago last July and now has near 400 inhabitants. The farms and ranches are off to the southeast and west of town, while all the country to the north on the other side of the river is a big ranch company's erty. Everywhere are new buildings in course of erection and more in contemplation. The town is well supplied with fuel, as within two miles are mines of excellent coal and a large mine is being opened almost in the fairly good crops for the first year's operations and are preparing to plant nore extensively the coming season.

Tabor was organized into a branch last March and in September it was was chosen Bishop, with Thos. B. Hull and Ed Lindsey as counselors; W. F. Russell as superintendent of Sabbath school, Samuel Bennett as president of Y. M. M. I. A. and Josephine Francis president of Y. L. M. I. A. Louie B. Duncombe president of primary. All organizations are in first class working order.

A new schoolhouse, 26x76 feet, has just been completed. It is contem-plated in the near future to erect a ward house. The place is fast growing and has now 51 houses, two lumber yards and two stores.

The Canadian Pacific railway has a water tank here and pumps the water from the Belly river, two miles below. They offer to supply the houses with water at the rate of $15 a year, but wells of good water are obtained at from 10 to 25 feet.

There are yet town lots for sale at $17 a lot of one acre, but all the homesteads near the town are taken. The odd sections are for sale by the railroad at a reasonable figure.
